CABLE LETTER.

Barney Barnato "King of the Kafirs" Dined by the Lord Mayor.

Concerning Royal Personages—The War Cloud Which Hangs Over Europe.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Court will move from Balmoral to Windsor Castle on November 15, when Prince Karl of Denmark, whose betrothal to Princess Maud, the youngest daughter of the Prince of Wales, has recently announced, will visit the Queen. The Prince and Princess of Wales, Princess Maud and other members of the family will be present. The Queen will then give her formal assent to the marriage of Prince Karl and the Princess Maud.

The betrothal of another physician-ordinary to Her Majesty being attached to the court while it is at Windsor is now being urged. The duties of Dr. Reid, the physician-in-ordinary at present in attendance on the Queen, are irksome. He is unable to move to Windsor on the day or night, and it is therefore desired that Dr. E. H. Hill, of Windsor, be appointed his assistant.

The diplomats of Europe as a rule are all looking upon the sea of uncertainty and through the fog of unprejudiced political outlook has been murky and threatened to a degree not experienced for such a length of time in years past. Then again the atmospheric conditions which prevail here—continuous fog and rain—have added a feeling of depression and gloom to the political outlook.

The House of Commons when it re-assembles will be called upon to discuss the importance of the Times article representing the opinion of the House of Commons on this subject, which is attracting much attention, said: "England can brook no rival naval armaments." This remark to a certain degree sums up the situation, which is perplexing and full of uncertainty.

The Premier says the announcement that South and West Australia and Tasmania will not co-operate in the construction of a Pacific cable is not a matter of surprise, but the interests of those colonies being bound up with a rival system. At the Colonial Conference the Hon. James Baker, Minister of Education, and the board of trustees will be present to receive the distinguished visitors. The winners of the medals are fortunate to receive them from the hands of the Countess of Aberdeen, and on this account will doubtless appreciate them all the more.

THEODORE DURRANT.

We Has Written a Detailed Sketch of His Life and Ambitions.

His Sentence for the Lamont Murder Postponed for Two Weeks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Theodore Durrant has written a sketch of his life and ambitions, and has told how he feels to be on trial for murder. He takes the churches to task for what he thinks is their lack of Christianity, and says that his coolness during the trial was due to the love and comfort given him by his mother. He stoutly proclaims his innocence, and says: "This world is only a temporary trial, to prepare us for another and better world. This existence consists of only a few troubles and painful years at best, but there we will enjoy eternal happiness in the company of angels of God. We have the assurance of the holy scriptures that riches and prosperity here are impediments to happiness hereafter."

THE HYAMS CASE.

Some Testimony of a Very Damaging Character to the Prisoners.

TORONTO, Nov. 9.—Startling new evidence was produced at the trial of the Hyams brothers to-day, when five people swore to seeing a wound on Wells' forehead that had never been seen before, and that an undertaker, his assistants, the coroner and others testified did not exist. This wound is said to have been just over the left eye, and the Crown will attempt to show that it could not have been done by the elevator, but was inflicted in the cellar by some instrument. This fills in what was rather a weak point in the last trial. Mrs. Caroline Wells testified that she saw the body of Wells in the coffin after the undertaker had prepared it. There was a wound over the left eye, which had been filled with plaster of Paris, and she had covered this over with powder. The wound was an inch or an inch and a half in length and was ragged at the edges. Several witnesses gave testimony to the same effect, and severe cross-examination could not shake their story.

Eliza Pengelly, servant at Hyams', told of Dallas Hyams' arrival at his home that morning. He was nervous and distressed. He told her that a terrible accident had happened and that Wells was killed. Two days afterwards Harry Hyams asked her to wash a pair of drab trousers, on which she thought were blood stains. She washed them but the stains would not come out. The trousers were afterwards sent to the dyer's. The Crown's case was greatly strengthened by to-day's evidence. The attendance was larger than on any previous day, and the prisoners evidenced the greatest interest in the proceedings.

CAPITAL NOTES.

Appointment to the Customs at Kaolo—Winter Ocean Mail Service.

Dominion Revenue and Expenditure—The Premier on Pacific Cable Construction.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—John McIntosh, of Kaolo, has been appointed permanently as sub-collector at that point; he has been acting in that capacity for some time.

The Allan and Dominion lines are strongly opposed to the contemplated subsidy to the Beaver line for a winter line of steamers between St. John and Liverpool. The general impression here is that the government will grant the subsidy, but on representations to-day from the Allan and Mr. Torrance the decision was postponed until Tuesday to enable the old companies to submit a tender for the St. John service.

The revenue during the last four months increased $450,000 and the expenditure decreased $437,000, a net increase of $13,000,000.

The Premier says the announcement that South and West Australia and Tasmania will not co-operate in the construction of a Pacific cable is not a matter of surprise, but the interests of those colonies being bound up with a rival system. At the Colonial Conference the Hon. James Baker, Minister of Education, and the board of trustees will be present to receive the distinguished visitors. The winners of the medals are fortunate to receive them from the hands of the Countess of Aberdeen, and on this account will doubtless appreciate them all the more.

The Times, a new Conservative weekly, makes its debut to-morrow.

OTTAWA, Nov. 9.—The cabinet held a short session this afternoon. The impression is general that parliament will not now be opened before January 2.

The report is current both Hon. Mr. Chaplin and Judge Meredith will join the cabinet after the session.
