MEMORIAL SERVICE AT CLEMENTSPORT

Big Event Takes Place in The Old Church to Morrow Afternoon September 1st.

Far down the Annapolis Valley, in beautiful burrowland lies Clementsport. "The Queen of the Basin", crowning the crest of a hill on the south mountain and looking over the shabby waters of the Basin to Annapolis and Digby, stands the old church erected in the year of our Lord 1789.

In this historic structure there is to be held on Sept. 1st at the hour of 3 p.m. A memorial service to the memory of the old pioneers, the Empire loyalists and those who lie buried beneath its shade.

Part and tradition are interwoven in the church history. The exact date of erection is not known, but it is 1789 or earlier. Calneek says 1788.

At the close of the revolutionary war 1783-84 a large number of loyalists came to this province, the greater number going to Halifax, Shelburne and what is now St. John, but a number came to Annapolis and Digby, and settled along the sides of the Annapolis Basin, obtaining grants of land from the Imperial government. Those who settled in the township of Clements were for the most part from New York and of Dutch descent. Ditmars, Vroom, Polyhemus, etc., at about the same time a number of German mercenaries who had been employed by the British in the war received grants. They, however, settled inland on a section which still has their name, "The Waldeck" and the Hessians lived, while the Dutch settled along the shores of the Basin, where many of their descendants still reside.

After building their log houses here as elsewhere their next concern was to build a house to the honor and glory of Almighty God, and thus Old St. Edwards was built. The huge timbers were cut near at hand and hewed by willing hands—boards 2 ft. wide, shaved pine shingles were put on with hand made nails. The plaster was made from lime obtained by burning clam shells on the beach and is so hard it will bend the point of a small nail. The architecture is Norman—and the south door is a unique feature.

Situated on the top of the left hill it is visible for miles and was so built as a landmark for the fishermen and mariners coming up the Basin. It was altered and sounding board being taken down and the former split in two and placed either side of the chancel to form prayer desks and lecture. The church was despoiled of altar, altar veil, etc. to furnish the new St. Edwards built farther down the hill. At present the restoration only goes to that of 1857. Next year it is proposed to restore it to its premature state.

The church is situated in what was a park of the parish of Annapolis until 1841, when the present parish was formed. The following rectors ministered in the old church: Rev. W. M. Godfrey, Rev. C. W. McCully, Rev. Robt. T. L. Anketell, Rev. W. S. H. Morris, Rev. John M. Withercombe and Rev. W. B. Beeler. The new church was erected in Mr. Beeler's time, and he, together with Rev. John Lockwood, and the present rector, Rev. A. W. L. Smith, have held the services there.

The Archbishop of Nova Scotia will preside, Rev. Archdeacon Vroom, one of the descendants of the loyalists, will give the address. Rev. Canon Morris and Rev. Jno. Lockwood, former rectors, Rev. Canon V. E. Harris, another descendant of the early settlers, and the present rector, Rev. A. W. L. Smith, will take part in the service.

The following are the invited guests:

Bridgetown played their final league game on Saturday and scored a fine victory at the expense of Kentville, by 123 runs, to 60. Whiteaway, the Bridgetown innings totalled 123. Walker bowled well for Kentville, securing 7 wickets. W. Donat and C. A LETTER FROM OTTAWA

Dear Sir: Once more I am sending you a line from the Capital, to let you know how affairs in general are here at the seat of government.

To begin we have just passed through the hottest summer ever known in this part of Canada, a season very trying on both man and beast, and daily for a time there would be some of both prostrated by the intense heat of the sun, and great humidity, but like all such periods they have their end, and now we are enjoying the balmy, and very comfortable weather due this time of year.

Our new Governor General, Lord Byng, created quite a demonstration when he arrived in the Capital, and the whole city was en fete for two days, in honor of Lord Byng, of Vimy, and his old comrades in arms.

The "Byng boys", as our Canadian lads were called, turned out in force to meet their old and revered commander, in the late great war and we all believe he spoke the truth, when he said he considered it the proudest moment of his life, when the honor was conferred upon him to lead the valiant Canadian boys to victory in the great battle of Vimy Ridge, and although he felt greatly honored in being appointed Governor of the banner overseas nation. Yet the command of the brave lads, who distinguished themselves so handsly at that memorable battle, will always look upon it as the proudest period of his life, but saddened by the loss of so many brave spartans who fell soldiers' graves in that far off war scened land.

His wife is already very popular, having a decided literary mind, having already written some very interesting books. The Governor and his lady will be, without doubt, extremely popular in this Canada of ours. I have just returned from a few weeks' stay in the Adirondacks. It is a wonderful resort and largely patronized by tourists from both Canada and the United States. The scenery is grand, the air pure and health-giving, and there is a continuous chain of fine summer hotels from Banner House to Saratoga Springs, nestled beside beautiful lakes and all comforts and pleasures

BEAR RIVER

Miss May Chute, who has been visiting friends in Granville Ferry and Granville Centre, returned home last Tuesday.

Rev. M. C. Burt, of Chelsea, Mass., will conduct services in the Advent Church on Sunday 10.30 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7.30 p.m.

A very exciting ball game was held in Lawrenceston on the 25th, between Bear River and Lawrenceston. Bear River getting the game, 8 to 7.

NEWSPAPER SPACE

Every line in a newspaper costs the proprietor something. If it is for the benefit of the individual it should be paid for. If the grocer were asked to contribute groceries to one abundantly able to pay for them he would refuse. The proprietor of a newspaper must pay for the free advertising if the beneficiary does not, and yet it is one of the hardest things to be learned by many, that a newspaper has space in its columns to rent, and must rent them to live. To give away rates for anything less than living rates is as fatal to a newspaper as for a landlord to furnish rent free.

Minard's Liniment for Burns, etc.

to extend the stay of the guests. I am much interested in doings at old Annapolis Royal the last of this month. Dear old Judge Hallburton. How many times I have read Sam Slick. That book truly made him famous, and I believe he was the first Canadian to sit in the British Parliament. It is something to be proud of that among other things in old Nova-Scotia has been first, that the first court of Canada was set up in old Annapolis Royal.

To-day the Obsequies of Sir Sam Hughes takes place at Lindsay, Ont. Whatever may have been the faults of Sir Sam Hughes, he surely made history for himself during the war and it is doubtful if any other man would have succeeded so well in raising an army of something over four hundred thousand volunteers in so short a time. He is gone, but the memory of Sir Sam Hughes will long live in the memory of all loyal Canadians.

I am glad to write the dear MONITOR arrives weekly on time and perused with as much interest as ever. For fear of trespassing upon your valuable space, I will close.

"GODLESS MEN"

Reynold Barker Picturizes Ben Ames Williams' Stern Story of The Sea, Played By Splendid Cast. Released By Goidwyn.

Reviewed by Mary Kelly.

Closely resembling Jack London's stories of the sea and the evil men who own it, is Ben Ames Williams' "Godless Men", translated for the screen by Reynold Barker. In it are found the same types, the same uncompromising, idealistic attitude toward life gained after years of hardship and bitterness, and finding expression in acts of hate. With this sort of background, the presence of a pure girl and a minister with love for all men in his heart, lends a touch of striking picturesqueness balancing the extreme horribleness of parts of the story with their beauty of character.

The theme is one of strong, compelling interest. A father who has lost faith in God and men and has taught his creed of hatred to his son, is forced to the bitter realization that the boy has become the incarnation of his own worst thoughts, and is incapable of any act of goodness. This prepares the way for an intensely dramatic death scene in which the son stabs the father. Overcome by the knowledge that his son is too evil to live, the father kills his own child.

The performance of Helene Chadwick is an exceptionally beautiful one. Her scenes with her father, to whom she is strangely drawn, though unaware of their relationship, are remarkable in their depiction of purity, goodness, and genuine affection. Russell Simpson, as "Black Pawl", senses the fine distinction between innate wickedness and the hardness that comes with years of disillusionment. In contrast is the sheer malevolence expressed by James Mason in the role of the son. Other examples of fine acting and fine directing are the performances of Alec. B. Francis, John Bowers and Robert Kortman.

The above has been secured at a big expense and will appear at the Primrose Theatre Monday night (Labor Day) September 5th. See adv. in today's MONITOR.

A PLEASANT WEEK SPENT IN KINGS CO.

Mr. H. E. Carter, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Howard Carey, also Miss Lena Barnes, returned home last Wednesday, after a very pleasant week spent in Lakeville, Kings Co. They arrived in Lakeville on Wednesday, August 17th, taking the train as far as Coldbrook, where they were met by Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Corbett with their auto, with whom they spent and enjoyed their visit.

The week was spent in auto drives, boating, fishing, and various out-door sports.

On Thursday they motored to Kentville in the afternoon, had supper and ice cream and then continued by auto to Wolfville, where the Lakeville base ball team were giving an exhibition game with a Wolfville team. Mr. Carter states that the Lakeville boys put up a good brand of ball and look real snappy in their attractive uniforms. Mr. Corbett, with whom the party stayed during their visit, was the able catcher for the team. After the game, which was won by Lakeville, they returned to Kentville and took in the theatre before returning to Lakeville.

Another pleasant drive was enjoyed on Sunday, when they motored across the North Mountain to Canada Creek. They enjoyed a tasty dinner at Mr. Corbett's parents', and in the afternoon had a pleasant motor boat trip on the Bay, given by Mr. Mike Balsor.

The above are only a few of the pleasant features of their trip, and they are each very much indebted to all their friends and acquaintances who made their visit such a pleasant one.

WOOD $7.50 PER CORD

The Annapolis Spectator says: As the price of cordwood now quoted by supply men runs from $9 to $11, it will be interesting to consumers to know that it can be placed in town for not exceeding $7.50 per cord if orders can be made up for not less than 100 cords.

LABOR DAY IN BRIDGETOWN

Everything in Readiness for the Big Celebration Which Promises to be the Best Yet

Everything in connection with the Labor Day celebration is progressing favorably, and Bridgetown will no doubt have the best annual celebration ever arranged and a record attendance is expected from all over the province.

Merchants and manufacturers have started work on the floats and many ideas are being thought out in connection with the decorated autos. This trades procession and auto parade accompanied by the Annapolis Royal concert band will be the leading feature in the morning programme.

The ladies are said to be taking a deep interest in providing for the dinner and supper to be served in the big tent on the grounds.

The afternoon programme of sports promises to be exceptionally good. The baseball between the Yarmouth Juniors and Bridgetown Juniors will be a hard-fought game as both teams are out to win.

The Tolliver Sunny South Minstrel troupe, of Halifax, will give a half-hour's performance of high class vaudeville consisting of music, dancing and comedy.

The Wanderers baseball team, of Halifax, have been engaged for a special baseball attraction and will play against the Bridgetown seniors. This is expected to be a close game.

Beginning at 7.30 p.m., the vaudeville troupe, above referred to, will give a complete performance in front of the grand stand, assisted by the Annapolis Royal concert band, under the direction of Mr. Paul Yates. This band will also give a free concert on the grounds at 11.30 a.m.

The management of the Labor Day celebration have already expended a sum exceeding $500 for special attractions and we believe that all the citizens of Bridgetown will take a deep interest in making the third annual Labor Day celebration a big success.
