FIGHTS SWARM OF BEES WHILE 200 FEET IN AIR
Pittsfield—Steeplejack Edward Hicks of North Adams, while making repairs on the steeple of the First Methodist Church here recently, was considerably disturbed by a swarm of bees that attacked him continually. Although 200 feet from the ground, with just a rope around him, he made a gallant fight, but was obliged to resort to a blow torch in order to drive the pests away. A Little Booklet Mothers Should Have

It Tells What a Mother Ought to Know for Baby's Sake.

Above all things every mother wishes that her child, or children, whatever their age, may be bright, healthy, good-natured, rosy boys and girls; clear eyed, clear skinned babies; good sleepers, bright wakers. Every mother's wish for her little folks is that they may be well. It is natural for little folks to be well, no wise mother thinks that her child at any age is in a natural state unless it is well and happy. No mother can expect, though, that the child will escape all the ills to which babyhood and childhood are subject, but she can do much to make baby's battles for health easily won.

TOO MUCH FOAM ON BEER

Bavarians Spoiled Walters' Dreams of Profit.
Berlin.—Walters and Munch beer hails dreamed of increasing the family exchequer by thousands of marks daily by drawing 250 liters of beer from 200-liter barrels. Seventy extra trains brought as many thousands to the Bavarian capital for the celebrated "October feast" and the waiters counted on selling 20 barrels of beer each daily at one mark per liter, making a profit to the waiter of fifty marks each barrel. The dreams burst, however, because the wily Bavarian, though thirsty, always measures the amount of foam before drinking from his liter stein. Complainers averred to the police they were willing to bear high taxes and low wages, but would not allow their beer to be tampered with.

DO YOUR CHILDREN GROW FAST ENOUGH?

Are They Sturdy, Healthy, And Strong, Or Pale, Weak And Run Down?

Growing children need a great deal of food, and sometimes they will not eat the kind of food that they need for strength—then they become thin, pale, and run down.

This condition of undernourishment can be corrected by taking Father John's Medicine which does contain just the food elements such as children need, and that is why so many children gain weight regularly while they are taking this old fashioned family medicine.

Father John's Medicine expertly blended preparation of cod liver oil with other ingredients in such a way that its food elements can be easily taken up by those who are weakened and run down. Your friends and neighbors know its value. Thousands of mothers depend upon it to keep their children well and strong.
