place as
two boys
at school

rest in the ling them-, they yet vard which affirm that to manage example of to insubhe said one and Ralph much help

e separation hard to bid life lay far ed they sel-

of both remained those days spent at Hawthorne Lodge, which had been so full of hard work and pleasant play, and whose influence upon their lives had been blessed of God to their abounding and eternal good.

THE END.