

CHAPTER IV.

Old Indian Haunts.—Their Encampment near Goderich Harbour. — Indian Wigwams. — Indian Missionary, Peter Jones.—Indian Offerings to Manitou.—Personal Description of the Indians.—Improvement in Indian Morals since their Conversion to Christianity.—History of an Indian Family.—Their miserable Condition.—My Remedy.—Indian Manufactures.—Canoes.—Log-Canoe.—Elm-bark Canoe used by the Chippewas.—Many Uses of the White Birch	PAGE 32
---	------------

CHAPTER V.

Aquatic Propensities of the Indians. — Indian Burying-places.—Fragments of Pottery.—Pit discovered at Manvers. — Indian Hunters.—Curious Oration of an Indian Chief interpreted by John Got. —Native Indian Preacher, Peter Jones.—His Success.—Progress of the Indians in Reading and Writing. — Indian Oratory. —Names given by them to the English Settlers.—Peter Nogun makes a bad Bargain for Jowler.—Good at Deer.—Indian Dance.—Captain George Kishew.—Indian Duel.—Indians at Evening Service.—Indian Hospitality and Generosity to my Daughter.—Population and Places of Resort.—Burial-place of the Chippewas and Mississaugas.—Grave rifled by a Phrenologist. — Obsolete Indian Festival.—Belief in Immortality of the Soul and the Flood	54
--	----

CHAPTER VI.

Ancient Indian Customs.—Religion.—Jugglers.—Resemblance of the Customs of the Six Nations to the Jews.—Land of Souls.—Indian Proserpine.—Feast of Dreams.—Indian Quacks.—Courtship.—Naming the Child.—Dislike of the Indian Nations to punishing their Children.—Inexpiable War.—Its Cause.—The Huron Nation almost destroyed.—The Wampum.—The Calumet.—Indian Oratory.—Method of declaring War. — Treatment of their Prisoners.—The Death-song.—Mischievous Effects of Raw Spirits	90
---	----