

FIG. 1236.—CLEMATIS PANICULATA, (JAPANESE ORIGIN).

Perfectly hardy and a rapid climber, producing a mass of pure white, sweet scented flowers. Unlike any other Clematis, the flowers are borne in long panicles and appear in August; the foliage remains fresh and green into early winter. This Photo was taken from a vine which had only been planted five months.