SPIRITUAL SONGS

for SOCIAL WORSHIP. A Word from Rev. Dr. H. M. Storrs.

ORANGE, N. J., Jan. 12, 1883. In rendering fresh, invigorating help to the "service of song," Rev. Dr. Robinson is certainly determined to forget those things which are behind, and reach forward to those which are before, and to come to perfection. The Church of God has been placed under new, and we may hope, better obligations to him for this more recent contribution. "Spiritual Songs for Social Worship," which clearly seems to be the best book in sight for the purpose, we have adopted it for use in our social meetings after careful examination. It is undoubtedly a decided improvement upon the "Chapel Edition" of the "Songs for the Sanctuary," which has proved well and is widely known as a standard book. It will not take much time to state what seems to be the marked and peculiar merits of this later work, for that was not my object in writing, but I wish to express to you, and through you to Dr. Robinson, our common gratitude for the aid so rendered to the life and warmth of our social worship. Very truly yours, HENRY M STORRS.

The price of this book is only 50 Cents, in Quantities.

A returnable sample copy sent for examination without charge. THE CENTURY CO., New York, N. Y.
