

Miscellaneous.

AND now the man who belongs to the winning boat crew thinks how vast are the benefits of a college education.

C. A. Livingstone, Plattsville, says: "I have much pleasure in recommending Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, from having used it myself, and having sold it for some time. In my own case I will say for it that it is the best preparation I have ever tried for rheumatism."

A MATHEMATICIAN, being asked by a stout fellow, "If two pigs weigh twenty pounds, how much will a large hog weigh?" replied:—"Jump into the scales and I will tell you immediately."

A SEARCH WARRANT.—If there is any lurking taint of scrofula in the system, Burdock Blood Bitters are warranted to search it out.

A BIG diamond measuring nearly two inches in length, and an inch and a quarter in its shorter diameter, has been unearthed in the Kimberly mines, South Africa. The name of the hotel clerk who bought it is not given.

RESCUED AT LAST.—W. H. Crooker, druggist of Waterdown, says, when all other remedies fail for Bowel Complaints, then Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry comes to the rescue.

"WHAT are those speckled birds?" inquired Mrs. Skinflint of a poulterer. "Guinea fowls, ma'am." "Keep 'em, then," murmured the lady, and she walked away disgusted at such imposition; "you don't get my guineas for 'em, that's all."

THOSE TWIN FOES to bodily comfort, Dyspepsia and Biliousness, yield when war is waged against them with Northrop and Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Its use also insures the removal of Kidney and Uterine maladies, and promotes unobstructed action of the bowels. The purity of its ingredients is another point in its favour. As a blood purifier it has no equal. It is also a great favourite with the ladies.

HOPEFUL WORDS.—Mrs. McArthur, of Hopeville, Ont., says she could not keep house without Haggard's Pectoral Balsam to cure prevailing throat and lung troubles.

A MISERLY old farmer, who had lost one of his best hands in the midst of hay-making, remarked to the sexton as he was filling up the poor fellow's grave: "It's a sad thing to lose a good mower at a time like this; but, after all, poor Tom was a dreadful great eater."

PERSONS of weakly constitutions derive from Northrop and Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda a degree of vigor obtainable from no other source, and it has proved itself a most efficient protection to those troubled with a hereditary tendency to consumption. Mr. Bird, Druggist, of Westport says: "I knew a man whose case was considered hopeless, and by the use of three bottles of Emulsion his weight was increased twenty pounds."

ORANGE CREAM.—Take the juice of six oranges and the rind of two grated; put them into a stewpan with a pint and a half of water and twelve ounces of white sugar; stir till the sugar is dissolved, then add the well-beaten whites of six eggs; stir over a slow fire till it thickens; then strain through a hair sieve or muslin, and stir till cold. Put back into the pan, and add the yolks of the eggs well beaten; stir over the fire till the mixture begins to simmer; then pour into a basin and stir again till cool enough to be transferred to glasses.

TIN BOXES FOR FLOWERS.—Botanists collecting flowers carry tin boxes. These will keep flowers perfectly fresh for some hours, the moisture in the flowers being preserved from evaporation by the close tin. For unprofessionals, a large-sized baking-powder box would be a convenience for bringing home trophies from the woods, or the garden of a friend.
