Scientific and Useful:

RICE boiled very slowly in milk and sweetened is a very palatable and healthy dish for children.

SPOTS of grease may be removed from coloured silks by putting on them raw starch made into a paste with water.

STORKS made of wool, with wings wide-spread are suspended by invisible wires in a bay window and, if handled artistically, are very effective.

ROSETTES.—Three eggs, the yolks and whites beaten separately, one quart of milk, small piece of butter, one cup of flour, salt, three teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Bake in a quick oven.

CRIMSON curtains can be made from new cotton plush, ornamented with a border of old gold plush or satin, and looped back with crimson satin ribbons. They can be used for the bed room, sitting room, or dining room, and found both warm and pretty.

NAILS and screws, if rubbed with a little soap, are easily driven into hard wood. The same household commodity, of a fine white quality, rubbed over new linen, will enable it to be more easily embroidered, as it prevents the thread from cracking.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S Vegetable Compound is a most valuable medicine for ladies of all ages who may be afflicted with any form of disease peculiar to the sex. Her remedies are not only put up in liquid form but in pills and lozenges in which form they are securely sent through the mails.

BROWN APPLE SAUCE. Brown apple sauce, to serve on the platter with pork chops, is made by taking a little soup stock, or if you have some roast-beef gravy it is still nicer; into this put the apples which are peeled and cored and sliced, let them cook until tender in this, season with salt and a little red pepper. When the apples are done beat them light and soft.

A MEDICAL man advises the disuse of feather dusters, and advises the use of a cloth to wipe away dust. He asks: Do you know just what you are doing when you brush dust away? You disseminate in the air, and consequently introduce into your own interior, into your tissues and respiratory organs, all sorts of eggs, spores, epidemic germs and murderous vibrations which dust contains.

CHICKEN KROMESKY'S.—Pick out the meat from what is left of a roast fowl, chop it up (not too finely), and toss it in a saucepan with a good piece of butter and a little flour; add a few mushrooms finely minced, pepper, salt, and spices to taste, and some minced parsley; moisten with a little stock, then stir into the mixture, off the fire, the yolk of an egg beaten up with the juice of half a lemon, and strained. Turn this mixture on a dish to get cold. Cut some slices of bacon as thin as possible, and to the size of one and a half inch by two and a half inches, place on each slice a teaspoonful of the mixture, and roll it up neatly in the bacon; beat up together the yolk of two eggs, and four or five of cold water; incorporate with this about three tablespoonfuls of flour, and a good pinch of salt; keep on heating the mixture for a little time, then add as much water as will make it of the right consistency. When ready to use this batter, stir into it quickly the whites of two eggs beaten up to a froth. Dip each kromesky in it, and fry them a nice colour in hot lard.

VIENNA ROLLS.—The so-called "Vienna rolls" can be made in any household by the following recipe: Finest wheat flour, eight pounds; milk, three and one half quarts; water, three and one half quarts; compressed yeast, three and one third ounces; salt, one ounce. After all the materials have acquired the temperature of the room the flour is poured in a loose heap in the middle of the baking trough, and a small quantity of the heap, on one side, mixed to a thin dough with the milk and water previously poured together, and mixed with the yeast and salt. The dough is allowed to stand three quarters of an hour, well covered. After this, or as soon as fermentation has commenced, the dough is mixed thoroughly with the remainder of the flour and the rest of the liquid, and left to rise for two hours and a half. It is then cut into one pound pieces, each of which is divided into twelve squares of equal weight. The corners of each of these squares having been turned over to the centre, the cakes are put into the oven and baked for fifteen minutes. The heating must be uniform. If the oven is hotter in one place than another the cakes must be shifted about. To impart a gloss to the rolls they are brushed over with a sponge dipped in milk.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure COD LIVER OIL, WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES, is Especially Useful for Children's Diseases as it acts both as food and medicine. It gives flesh and strength by virtue of its nutritive properties, but creates an appetite for food that builds up the wasted body.

Woman's Suffering and Relief.

Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its former elasticity; driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvellous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system, are relieved at once, while the special cause of periodical pain is permanently removed.
