

EXCITEMENT UNABATED.

THAT REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE OF A ROCHESTER PHYSICIAN FULLY AUTHENTICATED.

Cleveland, O., Herald.

Yesterday and the day before we copied into our columns from the Rochester, N. Y., Democrat and Chronicle, a remarkable statement, made by J. B. Henion, M. D., a gentleman who is well known in this city. In that article Dr. Henion recounted a wonderful experience which befell him, and the next day we published from the same paper a second article, giving an account of the "Excitement in Rochester," caused by Dr. Henion's statement. It is doubtful if any two articles were ever published which caused greater commotion both among professional people and laymen.

Since the publication of these two articles having been besieged with letters of inquiry, we sent a communication to Dr. Henion and also one to H. H. Warner & Co., asking if any additional proof could be given to us as to the validity of the statements published. In answer thereto we have received the following letters, which add interest to the entire subject and verify every statement hitherto made:

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

GENTLEMEN:—Your favour is received. The published statement, over my signature, to which you refer is true in every respect, and I owe my life and present health wholly to the power of Warner's Safe Cure, which snatched me from the very brink of the grave. It is not surprising that people should question the statement I made, for my recovery was as great a marvel to myself, as to my physicians and friends.

J. B. HENION, M.D.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 21.

SIRS:—Acknowledging your favour duly received, we would say: The best proof we can give you of the statements made by Dr. Henion are entirely true, and would not have been published unless strictly so, is the following testimonial from the best citizens of Rochester, and a card published by Rev. Dr. Foote, which you are at liberty to use if you wish.

H. H. WARNER & CO.

To Whom it may Concern:

In the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle of December 31, there appeared a statement in the form of a card from Dr. J. B. Henion, of this city, recounting his remarkable recovery from Bright's disease of the kidneys, after several doctors of prominence had given him up, by the use of Warner's Safe Cure. We are personally or by reputation acquainted with Dr. Henion, and we believe he would publish no statement not literally true. We are also personally or by reputation well acquainted with H. H. Warner & Co., proprietors of that remedy, whose commercial and personal standing in this community are of the highest order, and we believe that they would not publish any statements which were not literally and strictly true in every particular.

To the Editor of the Living Church, Chicago, Ill.:

There was published in the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle of the 31st of December, a statement made by J. B. Henion, M.D., narrating how he had been cured of Bright's disease of the kidneys, almost in its last stages, by the use of Warner's Safe Cure. I was referred to in that statement, as having recommended and urged Dr. Henion to try the remedy, which he did, and was cured. The statement of Dr. Henion is true, so far as it concerns myself, and I believe it to be true in all other respects. He was a parishioner of mine and I visited him in his sickness. I urged him to take the medicine and would do the same again to any one who was troubled with a disease of the kidneys and liver.

Words of the Wise.

If you hit the mark you must aim a little above it.

AFFLICTION, like the iron-smith, shapes as it smites.—Bovee.

WE count words as nothing; yet eternity depends upon them.—Quesnel.

ONE knows the value of pleasure only after he has suffered pain.—Fontenelle.

WHEN we are most ready to perish then is God most ready to help us.—Luther.

SUNDAY is the golden clasp that binds together the volume of the week.—Longfellow.

MODERATION may be considered as a tree; of which the root is contentment and the fruit repose.

THERE is a power to make each hour As sweet, as heaven designed it!

Nor need we roam to bring it home, Though few there be that find it!

We seek too high for things close by, And lose what nature found us;

For life hath here no charm so dear As home and friends around us.

AND many strokes, though with a little axe, Hew down and fell the hardest-timber'd oak.—Shakespeare.

A HOLY act strengthens the inward holiness. It is a seed of life growing into more life.—Robertson.

SOME one asked Coleridge if he could prove the truth of Christianity. "Yes," said he, "try it."

WHEN a man has no desire but to speak plain truth, he may say a great deal in a very narrow space.—Steele.

"STANDING on what too long we bore With shoulders bent and downcast eyes, We may discern—unseen before— A path to higher destinies."

—The Ladder of St. Augustine.

As I approve of a youth who has something of the old man in him, so I am no less pleased with an old man that has something of the youth.—Cicero.

WHEN home is ruled according to God's word, angels might be asked to stay a night with us, and they would not find themselves out of their element.—Spurgeon.

POLISHED steel will not shine in the dark; no more can reason, however refined and cultivated, shine efficaciously but as it reflects the divine light of truth shed from heaven.

LABOR is life! 'tis the still water faileth; Idleness ever despaireth, bewaileth; Keep the watch wound, or the dark rust assaileth.—Frances S. Osgood.

AN earnest Christian is always peculiar and half incomprehensible to the world. He has something which they have not and which they do not know how to reckon in their calculations.

A SAFE INVESTMENT.—Investing twenty five cents for a bottle of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, the best throat and lung healer known. Cures coughs, bronchitis, asthma and all pulmonary complaints.

THE passions are the winds which urge our vessel forward and reason is the pilot which steers it; the vessel could not advance without the winds and without the pilot it would be lost.

"LOOK at the bright side! Recount all thy joys, Speak of the mercies which richly surround thee:

Muse not forever on that which annoys; Shut not thine eyes to the beauties around thee."

WHOEVER would be Christ-like should be willing to wear Christ's crown; and the crown in which he was revealed to us was not silver nor gold, studded with gems. The crown which Christ wore was worthy of Him. He came by suffering to redeem this world from suffering. Shall the servant be greater than the master? Shall Christ suffer and you not?

THE SIN OF FRETTING.—There is one sin which is everywhere and by everybody underestimated, tolerated with undue tolerance, and quite too much overlooked in our valuation of character. It is the sin of fretting. He who frets is never the one who mends. Most men call fretting a minor fault—a foible and not a vice. There is hardly any vice, except drunkenness, which can so utterly destroy the happiness of a home.

SERIOUSLY ILL.—A person suffering with pain and heat over the small of the back, with a weak weary feeling and frequent headaches, is seriously ill and should look out for kidney disease. Burdock Blood Bitters regulate the kidneys, blood and liver, as well as the stomach and bowels.

Miscellaneous.

WHEREVER men are struggling and striving and suffering, be sure that the life of Christ is there. For He does not wrap Himself up in His heavenly home, and look out of the window only, upon this far-off earth; He lives in our nature.

As a general thing ladies who make any pretensions to refinement desire to have soft white hands. We believe that there is nothing will tend more to produce this effect than the constant use of Murray & Lanman's Florida Water mixed with the water in the basin. It removes redness and roughness. The ladies of Cuba and South America were the first to discover the extraordinary virtues of this floral water as a cosmetic, and have long since discarded the use of all others.

In all times of trouble good men have resorted to prayer and been comforted. Perplexed, discouraged, annoyed, or even despondent, O Christian, resort to prayer and you will find a present help in Him whose grace was never sought in vain.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints. After having cured his wonderful cure over thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

SPEND your time in nothing which you know must be repented of. Spend it in nothing which you could not review with a quiet conscience on your dying bed. Spend it in nothing which you might not safely and properly be found doing, if death should surprise you in the act.

A DOUBLE PURPOSE.—The popular remedy, Hagyard's Yellow Oil, is used both internally and externally, for aches, pains, colds, croup, rheumatism, deafness and diseases of an inflammatory nature.

LET me give you the history of pride in three small chapters. I. The beginning of pride was in heaven. II. The continuance of pride is on earth. III. The end of pride is in hell. This history shows how unprofitable it is.—Dr. Newton.

THE Upright Piano is rapidly taking the place of the square piano, formerly almost universally used, being a much less cumbersome and more attractive piece of furniture. A very important improvement in the upright, recently effected by the Mason & Hamlin Company, must give it still greater pre-eminence as a practical instrument. They have succeeded in dispensing with wood in securing the strings of this instrument to its iron plate, so producing an instrument with purer, more musical tones, and especially of much greater durability.—Boston Traveller.
