Kingston Business College

is recommended by the Bishop and Clergy. Send for Catalogue.

J. B. MACKAY,

The Catholic Register.

TORONTO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1902

"Truth is Catholio ; proclaim it ever, and God will effect the real.—BALMEZ.

SMOKERS

Buy Prepression Smoring Micture, positively cool and fragrant, 10 cents per

ALIVE BOLLARD,

199 Yonge Street, - TORONTO.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

VOL. X. No. 43

Rome, 18th October, Onnellan, in The Dublin Free- Your Holiness' illustrious career. gratulations are sent to the Sover- blessing for the Irish people. eign Pontiff on many occasions from Emperors and Kings and rulers of na tho people, and in Latin, the lan- white poplin adorned with yellow tions; it is rare, indeed, to find a whole nation express its devotion to already published by you. the Sovereign Pontiff through its In response to its affectionate and poplin, with silver shamrocks. work of the Centre Party in the German Parliament.

The resolution adopted by the Irish Parliamentary Party at its general meeting in the House of Commons a few months ago, and which constifutes the address delivered to Pope Leo XIII. by Six Thomas Grattan Esmonde, explains in the fullest de-Esmonde, explains in the fullest de-gree the motive of this national act never missed an opportunity of the which the Irish Nation, almost alone gation," by which the Religious Or- that their convents in Japan were is illuminated according to the best claring, and most beautiful examples of anHe had always been glad to show great Pontiff Leo XIII., who rules cleant Celtic art extant, is enclosed in his affection for the Irish people the Church during a quarter of a dorned with interesting decorative presented itself. He sympathized, he land. work, following the best traditions in said, with Ireland in her continued his line of adornment.

At half-past eleven yesterday morning Sir Thomas Grattan Esmonde, accompanied by his sister, Miss Esmonde, profeeded to the Vatican. The ments Sir Thomas Grattan Esmonde ter, of Sir Thomas.

"Most Holy Father: holo-hearted allegiance to St. Peapproach Your Holiness with this pression of our filial respect and

"We ask your permission, on be-

THE POPE AND THE IRISH PARTY half of our Nation, to add our voice

"And we assure Your Holiness that the form of a Dove. man's Journal, the representative of from no part of your Realm will The last page contains the address the Irish National Parliamentary more fervent aspirations arise for in Latin, also in three panels, illuminations Party, Sir Thomas Grattan Esmondo your continued health and happiness inated in 12th century style, the bor-M. P., was received in private and than from that little island in the der work composed of vine leaves special audience by the Holy Father Western Seas, where the words of and trefolis, symbols of strength and Leo XIII. in the Throne Room. The onymous in the minds and hearts of gelists—the man or Angel of St. occasion was a remarkable one, and its faithful people." And, in coaclu- Matthew; the ox of St. Luke; the without parallel in the modern annals sion, the representative of Iceland winged lion of St. Mark, and the

> The address, admirably illuminated borders. and written in Irish, the language of Such is the address. It is bound in guage of the Church, will have been flowers—the Papal colors; and within Parliamentary representatives in this the Pontin replied that he accepted manner of the Irish representatives. manner of the Irish representatives. the address with great pleasure and the address with great pleasure and satisfaction, and, opening the casket, he took out the address and held it has not, of such universal homage he took out the address and held it has a sort of paid to the Pontiff; and this was the paid to the Pontiff; and this was the centence of the Irish representatives.

There is one recent case, if I missatisfaction, and, opening the casket, he took out the address and held it in his hand, as if emphasiring his accordance of the Irish representatives. Formed of Silver, it is simply and chastely ing of the so-called "Republican Compaid to the Pontiff; and this was the centence of the Irish representatives. to the Sec of Bater.

xicties is, he said, a constant source Coelo." of consolation to him, and a model sorrows, and he hoped that they were drawing to a close.

He then intormed Sir Thomas Esmonde that an official reply to the scribe, ways the late Miss Margaret truth and justice than he did for have two Torquemadas "nouveau report for the purpose of stating due consultation with his colleagues, Stokes in her interesting "Early popularity. When the Bishop's name jeu." "The signal honor has been con- Christian Art in Ireland," was carferred upon me by my colleagues of ried to marvellous perfection in Irethe Irish Parliamentary Party of land; and she notes, besides, that asking your acceptance of our unani- great labor was bestowed upon the mous address of congratulation., He- ornamentation of manuscripts, espepresenting, as we do, a Catholic peo- cially of the sacred writings: "These ple (a people that, since the days of are wonderful monuments of the st. Patrick, through all the vicissiconceptions, skill and patience of the les of its sorrowful but glorious scribes of the seventh century. The istory, has never wavered in its penmanship of the Irish scribes is known to have exercised a consideraa's Chair), we have felt it our duty ble influence on that of the Continent from the time of its first introduction board. It has been stated, over asks the same paper, will M. Combes tion by the Irish missionaries, which continued to prevail till the thir- of the striking anthracite miners are > documents. This address is illuminated accordng to the traditions of ancient Celtic art, which is almost wholly resheltering a beloved daughter. Irestate that the miners themselves are > land, a daughter of the Church, thus > well pleased. The strong Elshop's reland, a daughter of the Church, thus > well pleased. The strong Elshop's reeves of fools. ancient Faith, is symbolized by the self is outraged in the terms exacted try-St. Columba, in Donegal, and wide satisfaction. the Oratory at Killaloe. The Papal Arms occupies the chief division of the leaf, and the side panels are held to the central one by Celtic interlaced animal forms, which signify "Life Eternal." Silver and gold, emblems of the Pontificate, are the leading features amidst the coloring. The second page, according to the same illuminated-design, contains the address, written in the Irish language and character, occupying three panels. It is adorned by many forms of interlaced crosses and animals of the earth, the air, and the sea, typical of the Christian Faith and of the uni-

The third page contains the trans lation of the Irish sitle into Latin; it is illuminated after the manner of documents dating from the 12th con-tury, and black to orms of leebad within a trefoll, make a director three in One. They are occupied with to those of your dutiful children from the symbols of the Father-representovery portion of the globe, in respect- ed by a hand protruding from a Yesterday morning, writes Mr. P. ful homage at this crowning point of cloud; the Son, representing by the Lamb, and the Holy Ghost-under of the nation. While personal con-sectulations are sent to the Sover-blessing for the Irish people.

the cover it is lined with pale green

Such is the tribute of affection

Bishop Spaiding

added the name. As a result Catho- Colleges, The Figuro asks, referring ed by the latter. lic America rejoices that one of its especially to the Congregation of the leading thinkers will take part in Mission, what M. Combes will say to solving one of the greatest problems the Socialist Deputy who, during the

of the new century.

"PHENYLE"

Germioide Disin-

It is not expensive. It holds Prof. Eilla' Cerificate and two World's Fair Gold Medals.

Interest at 3% per cent, per an-num is allowed on deposits of $1 and upwards. It is paid or compounded half-yearly.

Depositors are offered every facility consistent with the due protection of their laterests,

MORTGAGE CORPORATION CORONTO ST. - TORONTO

great Pontiff Leo XIII., who rules evil work of moral subjugation." is playfully satirized by The Univers Libro Parols, which publishes the open to you to address yourself about his simost daily statribes for Cardinal's letter, states that it the public."

discussion of the Foreign Office Esti-From another point of view it is mates may propose the suppression peculiarly appropriate that a Catho- of the Endowment of the French lic should have place on the arbitra- Schools in the East. How, in fact, likely to accept it, because a Bishop dent of the Council in his big speech > say that the Vincentians in the East | nent citizens and nublic men are too useful to France to be threatened with limitation of their TRIAL OUTFITS 76c Pre Paid -It has been endorsed and suloghed -by leading musicious beck fereign -and those of home.

They are assisting the Government in maintaining protectorate in the East, which is (Written for The Catholic Register.) being continually coveted by other Powers. The Temps further states Public Works, in accepting that genstrike at the Congregation of St. Vincent de Pari, and concludes that made use of the following language: the question is not religious nor poleon the First, accorded special ations of much greater importance. privileges to the Brothers of the

Blake and Differ for Toronto

and over, that at least 30 per cent. be able to defend the priests of the now in the United States and ar exactly the same mind upon every burning of libraries and registers." teenth and fourteenth centuries." The Catholics. We know from letters of the striking anthracite miners are proceeding for the fact such could not be expected. It whom he is pandering, he will be ended to find any 12 "that the ancient relationship bethe mining region that they are emi. deal oring to drive them out of the Music Hall by the end of November or 14 men in the world whose opin- tween the churches has been impairsings that characterized the ancient nently practical, moreover. Whatever Colleges at home? The Gaulois, al- or during the first few days of De- ions and ideas are identical on all ed." the decision may be they are more luding to the remarks of the Presi-likely to accept it, because a Bishop dent of the Council in his big speech Masers Blake and Billiam will another ence between a member of a governof their faith assisted in forming it, about "the terrible duel between laNaturally, The New World feels for and capital which is forthcomIn Montreal and Ottawa as well as would be advantagious to the countic art, which is almost wholly religious and is remarkable for its symbolism. The title page, according to the scheme of decoration designed by the illuminator, is enclosed with Naturally, The New World feels for and capital which is forthcomligious and is remarkable for its glad of the appointment. It is grating," says that M. Combes is trying here. The Montreal meeting has been try, and the same, or another Ministry, and the same, or another Ministry, and the same to be of fixed for December 2nd, and it has secular press, the country over, accepts the appointment as one highly sible owing to its truckling to Soin the figure or form of a cinque foil, satisfactory. We cannot yet say cialism, by the old dodge of religious tinguished members of the Irish party, never yet considered the subject, nor persecution, which chables those in will come to Toronto before going come to any decision, either for or persecution, which enables those in will come to Toronto before going come to any decision, either for or against storm, like a fond mother ligious press will assume. Dispatches power to avoid making necessary re- east or not. Next week everything against that particular policy.

and Deputies to preserve religious your duty towards the Government of tion, to adopt every idea of the exliberties. The prelate insist on the which you are a member, I now re- Minister. The Premier has in no way, value of the Religious Orders, and peat what. I told you on Sunday. I bound either himself or his Cabinet. affirm that as an essential part of do not wish to discuss at this mo- in the matter of policy; all that has the Church they have to be defended ment either the value or the oppor- been done was to vindicate the basic by the Episcopate and by the secu-tuneness of the theory of which you principles of the constitution. ar elergy. They also point out that have constituted yourself the cham- Consequently we repeat that the the Religious are protected by the pion. This question, important as it time to decide as to the wisdom, os Concordat, the author of which, Na- may be, is overshadowed by consider- otherwise, of the Government's policy "If you had reached the conclu-

Christian Doctrine which have not sion that the interests of the coun-lengthy discussion, and before the sesin his hand, as it emphasizing his acceptance of it. He was, he said, glad to receive this new proof, in addition to many former proofs, of the continued affection of the faithful Irish people to the Sovereign Pontiff and people to the Sovereign Pontiff and people to the Sovereign Pontiff and people to his "dear friend Briss" of the continued to him in the popular proattributed to him in the popular pro- nounced to his "dear friend Bris- of the nuns of the Holy Infant, who was to have submitted your views to past week, will be almost forgotter, phecy concerning the later Popes at son," and to the world in general, have been expelled from seventy your colleagues for the purpose of se- and minds grown eccler will be in a Ireland, in all its troubles and and tributed to St. Malachy: "Lumen in his determination, it supported by schools in his diocese. The Cardinal curing a unanimous action of the better condition, to deliberate calming violes is he said a constant source tributed to St. Malachy: "Lumen in his determination, it supported by schools in his diocese. The Cardinal curing a unanimous action of the better condition, to deliberate calming tributed to St. Malachy: "Lumen in his diocese." The Cardinal curing a unanimous action of the better condition, to deliberate calming the same being a unanimous action of the better condition, to deliberate calming the same being a unanimous action of the better condition, to deliberate calming the same being a unanimous action of the better condition, to deliberate calming the same being a unanimous action of the better condition, to deliberate calming the same being a unanimous action of the better condition, to deliberate calming the same being a unanimous action of the better condition, to deliberate calming the same being the same being a unanimous action of the better condition, to deliberate calming the same being the same be the majority, to prevent "la congre- recalls that these nuns did noble Cabinet, which is the very basis of and effectively upon the situation. We responsible government.

gree the motive of this national act never missed an opportunity of de- amidst the nations, offers through its ders are meant, from "strangling the thrown open for eight months to the assent of your colleagues to the new come the country will not regret Parliamentary representatives to the laity," and from "continuing the invalided soldiers from Tlentsin, and policy which you recommended you having had to wait so long. that M. Delcasse himself thanked the would have had to choose, either to Superioress-General of the Order, on adopt their way of viewing the mat- DR. DE COSTA AND THE "400." dent Celtic art extant, is enclosed in his anceston for the from people the Church during a quarter of a magnificent casket of solid silver, whenever an opportunity for doing so century, and who dearly loves from the part of the Government, for the ter, or to part from them, and then lished by "dear friend Brisson," who services rendered to the troops. The for the first time it would have been before the Holy Trinity Christian

(The Chicago New World.)

the past thirty-five years against "la mouth back, and remains unanswer- congregation," which he would make congregation," which he would make congregation, and the second congregation congregation congregation, and the second congregation address of the Irish Parliamentary to a deep surprise. During re- responsible for all the crimes com- the part of the present head of the remain a member of the Government, was placed upon a large tray, and was placed upon a large tray, and in the course of a few days, and he was placed upon a large tray, and was carried by the Pontifical servants in lively into the ante-chamber of the Irish people. He also took this the most striking of all. It must have surprised its recipient himself. The President of the United States in question is certainly inspected and only the part of the present head of the remain a member of the Government, mitted in Paris during that long persons in the course of a few days, and he concluded by giving his blessing to have come to the fore; but this was however, the journals of other texture find that M. Combes and his occasion to bless, in a special manhave surprised its recipient himself. The President of the United States in question is certainly inexplicable, disputes the merits of the political the night hydre, had amnointed the foreign Office The Libre Parols, in the course of a few days, and he cent months several lesser surprises. During responsible for all the crimes 'combined in the course of a few days, and he cent months several lesser surprises in the unsettled condition of the unsettled in the course of the polity which has not as yet been the dispute the ment of the unsettled condition in the course of a few days, and he cent months several lesser surprises in the continue for the unsettled in the unsettled in the course of the months several lesser surprises.

The president of the parols of the unsettled in the course of the foreign Office The Libre Parols, in the course of a few days, and he cent months several lesser surprises.

The president of the parols of the unsettled in the course of the months to take and at the same time advocate a policy which has not as training to the unsettled in the course of the months to take and at the same time advocate in the course of the Government, the unsettled in the course of the interest of the unsettled in the course of the months to the unsettled in the course of the course of the discussion which it was horse—monsistions, prelates, noble guards and private chamberlains.

The President of the United States are sensited to the Inight before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the United States are sensited to the political the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Inight before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the Pontiff gave a special the night before, had appointed "Rt. In The President of the ground that he's list. The Temps, for finstance, in a predicament, just as his chief, and common the gound that he's list. The Temps, for finstance, in a creditly-trimmed article, refers, something in the fashion of The Unit of Combes, will be when in the approaching session of Parliament he proaching session of Parliament and the proaching session of Parliament he proaching session of Parliament he proaching session of Parliament he proaching s interested in the symbols with which it was remembered that, it was adjorned. After a few moments Sir Thomas Grattan Esmonde ter of Sir Thomas.

| The Matin, which has been making them at home. | The Matin, which has been making not fully discussed, much less come from a union of the best people tells the Minister of the Council that desperate efforts to get information to any definite conclusion in regard history.

| The Matin, which has been making not fully discussed, much less come from a union of the best people tells the Minister of the Council that desperate efforts to get information to any definite conclusion in regard history. tells the Minister of the Council that desperate efforts to get information to any definite conclusion in regard must always call for, the adjustment that the very acriminious remarks to enunciate a line of policy that THE SCOTCH AND THE DUTCH. was suggested, therefore, as that of As to the designs of the Govern-concerning the French Jesuits and may be admirable, or otherwise, in The Scotch Kirk is endeavoging to was suggested, therefore, as that of the designs of the design of the desi The executive of the United Irish Cabinet from entertaining any set of the war, against the purposeless de-League in Toronta-have here in com-League in Toronto-have been in compassion of absolutely necessary that all the by fire and dynamite, the gemoval munication with the Irish envoys members of a Cabinet should be of the Communion plate, and the harries and registers.

The Temps in another article refer- experienced committee. Massey the spondent making use of a statement shields of the Provinces and the Capishields of the Provinces and the Capital, and by pictures of, perhaps, the oldest Christian churches in the country-St. Columba, in Donogal, and wide satisfaction.

In remps in another action refers the appointment of the cheek that there was a confalled to reach them. The appointment of the Mission, whose members distinctions being by ficket; but invitations will be sent out to all promito give a final decision. the court composed of the represenlatives of the people in Parliament assembled. Despite all the excitement caused in political circles, all the output of opinions on the part of the secular press, all the diversity of ideas expressed by leading citizens in carious departments of life, still we cling to the solid statement that this matter can only be properly, adjudged during a session of the Feder-al Parliament. Hence the friends of the ex-Minister, who claim that he acted constitutionally, will have an opportunity on the floor of the House of presenting their side of the case; while those who believe that the course taken by the ex-Minister was a violation of the principles of responsible government will be enabled to argue their case before the entire wit claim that the ex-Minister of the Conference of the Conference

THE REAL POINT AT ISSUE was adverse to his theories, while another set will claim that the government had to get rid of him on ac-In his letter to the ex-Minister of count of his antagonism to its policy. Now both are wrong. The Gov. that it would be absolute insanity to tleman's resignation, the Premier ernment never declared itself opposetelle at the Congregation, of Congregation, of the premier and the time available of the premier and the congregation of the congregation ed to the ex-Minister's views, nor could be have been opposed to the "During my absence in Europe, Government's policy. The matter nevpolitical, but "national," M. Combes without warning me and without any er having been decided upon by the In face of the whirlwind of adverse previous agreement with your col- Cabinet there is no person who can criticism, is beginning to regret his leagues, you commenced an active at present state what the policy of haste. In consequence of his action, campaign in favor of a revision of the near future will be. You cannot either accomplished or in course of the tariff toward very high protectantagonize that which does not exaccomplishment, the French Episco- tion. I regret to have had to point ist. Nor would there be any inconsispate has issued a manifesto in the out to you that this attitude on your tency were the Government, later on, stape of an appeal to the Senators part constitutes an open violation of and after full and mature delibera-has not yet arrived. When Parliament meets there will certainly be a

"If you had failed in occuring the ing time comes; and when it does

Providence Oct? 13 -In a lecture Doctrine Society in Music Hall, Pawtucket, last night, Rev. Dr. Benfathe unsettled conditions in the labor world, and status from "social unrest oftentimes couses social good, the he said; "And I aps brought to ask,

"Milton has told us equality is esciety is grotesque; but if the '400' in-gentleman in question had, on pre- gaining. The reply of the Moderator vious occasions, and in the presence of the Dutch Church to a deputation of the Premier, given expression to from the Church of Stotland, says similar views. There is nothing in a Cape Town telegram, "regrets the the world to prevent a member of a absence of Scottish protests during

Jewelry

L'Art Nouveau—the new art-as applied to the manufacture of fine jewelry has given us many designs of great merit.

Our assortment of Brooches, the mountings of which cover the entire list of precious stones, was never so varied nor so full of rare valuables as at present.

Ryrie Bros.

worn over the stylish part fof this continent. The re comfortable and add inish to a costume. All dirs are made from specfally selected material.

FOX BOAS --- 815 to BOAS --- 825

D. DINEEN Co. Limited ..