FIRST MORTGAGE PREMIUM BOND
OF THE

These Bonds are issued for the purpose of raising funds for the erection of a building in the City of New York, to be used for a

Perpetual World's Fair,
A permanent home, where every manufacturer can exhibit and sell his goods, and every patron can show his invention; a centre of industry which will prove a vast benefit to the whole country.

For this purpose the Legislature of the State of New York has granted a charter to a number of our most wealthy and respectable merchants, and these gentlemen have purchased no less than eight blocks of the most valuable land in the City of New York. The building to be erected will be seven stories high (151 feet in height) surmounted by a magnificent dome, and will cover a space of 23 acres. It will be constructed of iron, brick and glass, and made fire-proof. The bonds which are all for $20 each, are secured by a first mortgage on the land and building, and for the purpose of making them popular, the directors have decided to have quarterly drawings of $100,000 each; this money being the interest on the amount of the whole loan.

Every bondholder must receive at least $21.60, but he may receive $100,000:

Or $31,000, or $10,000, or $3,000, &c., &c.

"3d Premium Drawing, March 1st, 1875."

"4th Series Drawing, April 5, 1875."

Capital Premium $100,000.

These Drawings take place every THREE MONTHS, and EVERY BOND will participate in them.

I. Introduction.

II. Infantry Tactics of Detail. From the French of Captain Emile Polrot.

III. German Company Column and Autumn German Manoeuvre, 1873.

IV. English Formations for Attack.

"Napoleon's maxim was that, to hold superiority, a people must change its tactics every ten years. The following pages illustrate the force of this maxim in its tentative and progressive character of the formations and movements most employed abroad today. In the words of the distinguished French staff-officer, Colonel Laval, 'Progress is life, the status quo is the death of armies, and, what is worse, of nations. Tactics must change in form from age to age, and at epochs relatively very near. It is unbecomingly childlike. We may deplore these perpetual mutations, but we cannot escape them; it is the modern law. We must follow the movement which draws us on. It would be better to place ourselves at its head and direct it. In tactics it will not suffice to imitate, to keep abreast of others, servilely to copy institutions or methods; new applications must be sought without ceasing, and we must guard well against clinging to transient and variable forms. The recent revision and assimilation of our system for all arms, lends new and immediate interest and importance to this comparative analysis."—Extract from Preface.
