

THE WORLD'S CLASSICS.The most popular series on the market

THE WORLD'S CLASSICS are an attempt to furnish a library at a price within the reach of all, in an attractive and lasting form. The series has gained an instantaneous and enormous success: it has filled a distinct gap in the book market, and over a million copies have been sold. Every important paper in the United Kingdom has commented in flattering terms of the unprecedented combination of cheapness, quality, and bulk of literature in the WORLD'S CLASSICS. The sixty-third and sixty-fourth volumes have just been issued, and others are in preparation. The volumes are produced in two styles, at One shilling Net, in cloth, and Two shillings Net, in leather. They are published by
