解隹isit Aotes.

St. Jumes' Day, Wednesday, July 25th, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 am.

There will be no issue of the Parish Magazine during August and Septembor.

Special preachers during the month have been the Ven. the Archdeacon of Ottawa, the Revs. Egerton Ryerson, E. W. Huntiagford, and E C Cayley. The Revs. R. J. Moore and W. McCausland have also lindly assisted the Rector, who for the last month las been without a curate.

The Chancel Guild desire to thank Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Macdonald, Mrs. Wyatt and Mrs. Foster for sending contributions of flowers for the altar.

Sunday, June 2th, was observed throughout the Church of England, as the Bicentena:y of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.

The Synod lunch called for its usual contributions this month in money and in kind, while Miss Screet, assisted by Miss B. Hagarty and Miss Ethel Street, looked after the welf:are of the St. George's table at St. James' school house.
O.1 Thursday, June 14th, the sewing school had its treat. This consists each year of a tea and a romp in the Rectory garden, followed by prize-giving. The first prize, a Silver Thimble given by Mrs. Cayley, was won by Edith Buckle.

The Sunday school picnic was held on June 19th, a glorious summer day. Tne children were all taken out to Long Branch in special cars, and as they left at 10.30 a.m. and did not return till nine p.m., they had a long and happy day in the country.

"Idleness is not rest." Change of occupation is often the best way to secure true rest. Any one who is looking for a really useful occupation during the holidays, which may be of permanent benefit, might do worse than learn shorthand. Mr. A. J. Tarver, of $3 \overline{5} 9$ Huron Street, will be found a careful teacher of Pitman's System. Twenty lessons for $\$ \$ .00$.

SUMMER SERVICES.

The Rector will be assisted by the Rev. Edward Cayley or July 8th and loth. On July 22nd Professor Clark will preach at the morning service, and has kindly offered to take both services on the last Sunday in the month. During August, when the Rector expects to be in Muskoka (P.O. address, Ferndale House), the church will be under the care of the Rev. Edward Ciayley, who, in case of eme:gency, can be reached any niorning at Trinity College by telephone 5336. In like case Mr: Kuhring will kindly attend to any call on No. 2415 (23 St. Patrick St.) Mr. Moore's address, it may also be well to note, is 67 Grange Avenue.
