

QUEBEC, FEB. 23.—We understand that the departure of His Excellency the Governor in Chief, is now fixed for Tuesday next, should his health continue to improve.

We understand that Andrew Stewart, Esquire, Agent for the Constitutional Association, leaves town to-morrow afternoon on his way to England via Upper Canada.

We understand that the trials of the persons charged with the murder of Lieutenant Wier, and the volunteer Chartrand, are going on at the Criminal Term at Montreal. Upwards of a hundred of the other prisoners in the gaol taken in arms, or charged with being concerned in the rebellion, have recently been discharged.—Quebec Gazette.

MURDER.—The foulest conspiracy that ever marked the annals of crime, has this day been committed in deliberate cold blooded, and unmitigated murder. That cowardly blood spirit which has so long pervaded the House of Representatives, and has been constantly and perniciously invoking conflicts and strife, has at last been appeased in blood.

Mr. Cilley, of Maine, was challenged, a few days ago, by Col. Webb, Editor of the New York Courier, on account of some words used by Mr. Cilley, on the corruption case. Mr. Cilley refused the challenge on the ground that Mr. Webb was not a gentleman. Mr. Graves, of Kentucky, a very amiable and worthy man, (!) was induced, it seems, to bear Col. Webb's challenge to Mr. Cilley. Last night, as I learn, Mr. Graves, as the friend of Col. Webb, assumed the responsibility of his principal, and challenged Mr. Cilley. Mr. Cilley accepted it, chose the rifle as the weapon, and fixed upon 11 o'clock this morning, as the time of meeting. With such secrecy and promptitude were the movements made, that no one knew of the affair till the parties had gone out. Mr. Clay and Crittenden started in pursuit, determined to arrest the proceedings. Unfortunately they could not find the place. The Marshall of the District made the same attempt with a warrant, but the pursuit was baffled.

Mr. Cilley was accompanied by Messrs. Bynum, Jones, of Wisconsin, Col. Shamburg, of the Dragoons, and Dr. Duncan, of Ohio, as Surgeon.

Mr. Graves was attended by Messrs. Wise, Menifae, and Calhoun of Kentucky. They fought at 50 yards. It was exceedingly cold, and the wind blew almost a tempest. Three times they were suffered to fire, and three times the fire was entirely ineffectual. The seconds of Mr. Cilley here interposed, firmly and resolutely, as I am told, and demanded of Mr. Graves and his party a withdrawal of his challenge—insisting that there was no quarrel between the principals, and that both of them had shown themselves by their courage and conduct, to be gentlemen. But the other party insisted, as the only terms of accommodation, that Mr. Cilley should concede that Col. Webb is a gentleman. He said he could not do that: the fourth fire took place, and Mr. Cilley fell a bleeding victim into the arms of Col. Shamburg. He was shot through the lower part of the abdomen and died instantly.

His corpse was brought into the city at 5 o'clock this evening, and carried to his lodgings in Third st. I need not say that the deepest sensation pervades the city, and that the wretches who got up and perpetrated this tragedy are execrated by every honorable man. Washington 24th Feb.

CIRCULAR.

AS Mr. Leggett contemplates inserting in the introductory pages of 'THE MEMENTO' the names &c of his esteemed agents, together with the names of Subscribers obtained through their politeness, he would respectfully suggest the propriety of an early return of Subscription Lists—say on, or before the 10th of April, if not sooner.

Editors and Publishers of Periodicals throughout the Provinces will confer a special favour by copying the above. Bathurst N. B. Feb. 12, 1838.

PROSPECTUS,

Of a New Work from the pen of WILLIAM M. LEGGETT, Wesleyan Missionary, to be entitled

THE MEMENTO.

This Publication, which is to form a Duodecimo volume of about 200 pages, will include a selection of original sermons, strictures, poems, and sacred melodies; and as the author has used every effort to render it acceptable even to the eye of criticism, his patrons may anticipate an adequate return for the small expense of three shillings and nine pence per copy.

The Memento will be neatly executed, as to the mechanical part, done up in cloth, and delivered to Subscribers through the politeness of Agents appointed for that purpose. Bathurst, 21st. Dec. 1837.

ALSO TO BE PUBLISHED, THE ENGLISH GRAMMAR

Condensed and Simplified by the same Author.

This brief analysis is designed to facilitate the progress of the Student in the science of our native language, and will, doubtless, prove a valuable acquisition to Provincial schools and the Public generally. Several gentlemen of critical acumen have seen the work in MS., and honoured the same with the most unqualified approbation.

Price 2s. per copy. 25 per cent discount allowed where one dozen, or upwards, are ordered by any one person.

P. S. Subscriptions for either of the above works received at the Pearl Office Halifax, or at the book-store of Messrs. A. & W. McKinlay. Feb. 16th.

NEW AUCTION AND COMMISSION ESTABLISHMENT.

THE necessity which has for some time existed in Halifax, of having an AUCTIONEERING ESTABLISHMENT, where Goods sent could be promptly sold and settled for, has induced the Subscriber to come forward, in the hope that the concern which he is about to establish, will meet with that public patronage which he believes on trial it will fully merit. The Business will be conducted on the following system.—All Goods sent for public Sale, will positively be sold—no articles being put up, which are either limited or allowed to be withdrawn—all purchases to be paid for on delivery, and the proceeds to be handed over to the owner on the day succeeding the Sale; and as these regulations will be rigidly adhered to in all instances, the Subscriber trusts that they will be found advantageous for both Buyer and Seller, as the former may rely that the Sale will be positive, and the articles themselves will always command a fair price from the competition which such a system must produce; and the fact that the money will be forthcoming on the day succeeding, will recommend itself to the favorable notice of those who may be inclined to patronize it. Business will be commenced on Thursday next, the First day of February, and parties wishing to send Articles will please leave a Note of them previous to that time, in order that they may be properly advertised, and they may rely that confidence will at all times be strictly preserved. Articles will also be received for Private Sale; and as the premises occupied by the Subscriber are in a central part, and one of the greatest thoroughfares of the Town, quick Sales may be reasonably expected. The smallest favor will be carefully attended to.
