

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

[FOR THE TRUE WITNESS.]

Oh! dear to Erin's exiled sons Is the green flag far away, The land where their forefathers sleep In holy churchyard clay.

The Isle of learning and of song, Where minstrels old and gray Sing to the music of their harps, To chiefs and ladies gay.

Then ask not why, in this far clime, "Southward bound" banner's fold—Who "Southward bound" the Irish mind Back to the days of old.

The sons of Erin proudly march On every day that has power To teach the hearts to cheer!
The weary hearts to cheer!

See yonder on that banner green The Erin, the Erin, the Erin She leads upon her golden harp With sadly pensive air.

And there the great O'Connell stands, His words to the Irish people He taught them the Irish mind Smiling in grand pride.

The Cross, with Ireland's shamrock wreathed Of Irish heart and warrior-chief, With many a saint and warrior-chief, Who for faith and country died.

Then we will not that Erin's sons With sliver banner and Wear badges green whereon are wrought
The Harp and Cross in gold!

And ask not why the Irish march To some inspiring day,
It is the feast of their loved Isle,
It is St. Patrick's Day!

HOUSE AND HOUSEHOLD.

IS BEAUTY A BLESSING?

OF the beautiful women I have known, but few have attained superiority of any kind, says Anna Katharine Green in "The Ladies' Home Journal." So much is expected by the woman accustomed to admiration, that she plays and patters with her, as if the crooked stick is all that is left her. This we see exemplified again and again. While the earnest, lively, sweet-spirited woman of the past hair and doubtful line of nose, has perhaps a one-time lover whose worth she has time to recognize, an acknowledged beauty will find herself surrounded by a crowd of showy egotists whose admiration soizes and bewilders her that she is lost to the most important one in order to end the incessant struggle.

Then the incentive to education, and to the cultivation of one's special powers is lacking. Forgetting that the time which has been made a holiday of youth must be given to the years, many a woman neglects that training of the mind which gives to her who is poor in all else, an endless storehouse of wealth from which she can hope to produce treasures for her own delectation and that of those about her, long after the faded bloom upon her handsome sister's check has faded with the roses of departed summer.

SALLY LENS.

A cheap and very good recipe for this is as follows: One tablespoonful of sugar, one egg, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one cup of milk, two teaspoonfuls of Hecker's baking powder, and flour sufficient to make a batter as stiff as for griddle cakes. Bake in one pan or in gem pans.

BEAN PUREE.

Dried lima-beans make a most appetizing "puree of beans." Put them in water the day before you wish to use them; let them soak all night; early in the morning put them on the stove and let them simmer gently; when soft rub them through a colander; season them to taste; there is a richness and flavor in the dried-bean that the canned vegetable soup cannot give.

DELICATE CAKE.

Take half a pound of butter, one pound of sugar, one pound of flour, half a pint of sweet milk and four eggs. Beat the butter and sugar to a cream, then add the beaten eggs, then the milk, then the flour, the sifted flour; beat all together thoroughly in a pan; the batter into a pan lined with buttered paper; sift fine sugar over the top and bake immediately in a moderate oven.

PAX POWDER.

Cook a quantity of apples with a little sugar, as for apple sauce, until haldone.
Take out the range and season with a large proportion of butter, a little cum-ber, mince and lemon, and then put into a large or deep earthen dish. Have ready some raised dough which has just been mixed with plenty of butter. Put a covering of this couple of inches thick over the dish, cook in a slow oven.
When could break the crust into the apple in pieces the size of eggs. Cook again in a very slow oven. Put away for a day or more, when the flavor will be improved.

This homely dish usually impresses husbands and brothers as simply delicious, provided only that apple and precious have mingled their flavors in a happy moment, when the cook hit the right proportions to perfection.

HOLY POLY.

The usual way of making a holy-poly pudding can be greatly improved upon; instead of making crust with baking powder, take a piece of bread dough, roll it out to the thickness of half an inch, then spread on the fruit; roll it carefully and pinch the ends together so that none of the fruit will be lost. When steamed it will be found to be "a light as a puff." Black currants and cherries are of course first choice for the pudding. But another and little known filling is made by stew-ing prunes until very soft; cook them in as little water as possible; remove the stones, and mash them with a spoon.
When prunes are used, the sauce should be made by rubbing butter and sugar and flour together, then pour boiling water over it, stirring briskly to prevent lumps from forming; add a little vinegar or lemon-juice.

Every tissue of the body, every bone, muscle and organ, is made stronger and more healthful by the use of Hood's Sassaaparilla.

Auditor-General's Report.

The annual report of the Auditor-General for the last fiscal year has been issued to the press. It is as bulky as usual, consisting of 1,154 pages, and contains some interesting reading matter.
In his introduction Mr. McDougall makes an important suggestion, viz., that the three months limit allowed at the beginning of each fiscal year for paying the claims which have accrued in the previous fiscal year be shortened to two months or less. It seems quite clear, he says, that with the present easy and constantly increasing means of communication between all parts of the Dominion, no serious inconvenience would result to any department by decreasing the three-months to one month, and thus stepping all payments for the previous year on the 31st of July. Indeed, the departments would, no doubt, be in a similar position to that of this office, and would find it an advantage to be relieved of that part of the old year's work when preparing a report to Parliament of the past year's transactions, and at the same time carrying on the work of the current year.

Somewhat Sarcastical.

The Holy Synod of Russia has addressed a memorial to Queen Victoria in behalf of her Majesty's persecuted Catholic subjects. In an exact imitation of an address from the Mayor of London to the Czar in behalf of the Jews, the clergy Russians make a strong ironical appeal on behalf of Catholic subjects of England, pointing out their great services to Britain, their natural right to be treated as Englishmen, not as pariahs, and the degradations to which they have been subjected. Coming from dull Russia this retort is a pleasant surprise.
The most hideous of the absolute monarchies now cumbering the soil of Europe can show a little humor on occasions. There should be no pity, however, for the caste which rules in the Czar's dominions. When the history of Catholicity in Russia comes to be written, terrible will be the indictment against royalty for the crimes committed against Catholics by Czar and Holy Synod. The story will shame even England's back-record.—Catholic Review.

Wouldn't Be Without It.

Mr. Alfred Roberts, Manager of the Dominion Railway Advertising Agency, as King St. W., Toronto, Ont., June 1, 1878, writes as follows: "I desire to testify to the efficacy of St. Joseph's Oil as a sure remedy for sciatica, rheumatism, neuritis, etc., having had occasion to use it in my family for some time past. In fact I would not be without a bottle of the Oil in my house for doubling the amount charged."

Vital Statistics.

The statistics of births, marriages and deaths for the district of Montreal, during olics, 7,048 births; 6,299 deaths; 1,500 marriages. City of Montreal, Protestants, 1,318 births; 231 marriages; 757 deaths.

ques Cartier, 640 births; 75 marriages;

CONSUMPTION CURED.

And old physician, retired from practice, had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility, and all nervous complaints. Having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, and desiring to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who wish it, this receipt in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail,

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Vicissitudes of climate, exposure and hardships, tell heavily on soldiers and sailors sowing the seeds of disease which may ultimately break up the constitution.
Naturally careless of their health a word in season may avert many evils, and may cause them to resort to timely measures without any difficulty or publicity. Holloway's effective remedies are so suitable, and are so easily adapted for the varied complaints to which our soldiers and sailors are liable, that a supply should always be obtained before receding abroad. It may with confidence be stated that many a valuable life might have been saved, or confirmed cripple prevented from begging in the streets, if Holloway's remedies had been used in time.
