Mercantile Summary.

THE subscriptions towards a monument in the city of Montreal to Maisonneuve, its founder, amount to $13,454.

THE Granby cigar factory of Mr. J. Bruce Payne now turns out 4,000,000 of cigars annually, according to the St. John's News correspondent.

It is confidently expected that the railway to connect the Cape Breton collieries with the port of Louisburg will be finished during the coming summer.

THE British Board of Trade returns for January show that the imports decreased £1,710,000 during that month, and the exports increased £70,000, as compared with January last year.

THE Halifax Board of Trade has taken action towards relief for Newfoundland. A conference between the mayor and members of the board took place on Friday last, with a view to making a shipment by Capt. Farquhar's sealing steamer to-day or to-morrow.

"FIFTY Facts about Peterboro" is the title of a vest-pocket pamphlet about that live town which might well serve as a model for any municipality wishing to advertise its advantages. The Board of Trade has done well to present so much information in a succinct way, and to furnish a map of central Ontario showing the situation of the town.

ST. JOHN imports for last month were of the value of $131,643 dutiable and $130,637 free. Total, $262,280, which is $62,368 more than in January, 1894. There was an increase of $44,131 in value of exports.

A JUDICIAL order has been applied for for the liquidation of the Waterloo, Que., Knitting Company, which was formed several years ago, and was bonused by the municipality to the amount of $10,000. The concern has been in hot water almost since its inception, and a meeting of shareholders and creditors has been called for the 15th inst., to appoint a liquidator.

THE Winnipeg customs returns for January show the value of exports at that port to have been $123,420 as compared with $110,574 for the same month of 1894. The entries of dutiable goods for consumption were $101,517 in value, and the free, $35,687; in the previous January they were respectively $142,430 and $33,429.

WE learn from the Eastern Chronicle that the Amherst firm of Rhodes, Curry & Co. have a contract from the Dominion Coal Company of Cape Breton, embracing 300 cars, including coal hoppers, flats and box cars, a first-class passenger coach, and one combination first-class and baggage car. They have also received an order from the Dominion Atlantic Railway for thirteen box cars of the latest pattern.

MONTREAL.Mercantile Summary.

MR. J. DIX FRASER, of the Nova Scotia Iron Works, Ferrona, returned from Newfoundland last week. He had been at Belle Isle superintending the sinking of shafts and tunnels on the iron property there, owned by the N. G. Iron and Railway Company. They will commence to ship iron to Nova Scotia in July.

ZEPHRIN GUIMOND, of Cap St. Ignace, Que., a baker by trade, who has of late years been trying his hand at storekeeping and lumbering, has got into deep water and wants an extension of time.—A. B. Prieur, a general dealer for quite a number of years at Coteau Landing, but declining of late, has had a consultation with his Montreal creditors, who are few in number, with the result that he has been granted a compromise at 35 cents on the dollar.—P. P. Martel, of St. Jerome de Chicoutimi, Que., was first a shoemaker: some years ago he engaged in general business, and has also lately been running a cheese factory. He has been sued, and creditors will have to extend some general indulgence to enable him to continue in business.—B. Leclaire & Co., general merchants, Lapigeoniere, who sold out within the last few weeks to J. A. Leclaire & Co., have been put into insolvency. The concern has failed twice previously.—Louis Bernstein, a peddler and storekeeper, of East Angus, Que., has been served with a demand of assignment.
