

With a view to aiding the committee of the Undergraduate Union in selecting books for the new library, we have gathered a few undergraduate opinions on recent books of interest to students, and append them hereto:—"How to Kill Time," by W. A. A. The author is said to be a distinguished authority who has given to the public the results of a long experience in the practice of an art on which he is evidently well qualified to speak. "The Confessions of a Canadian Tobacco Smoker" is by a young author of great promise, Mr. Gregorius Hodgson. The book is written in the inimitably incisive style that is making its author famous.

"The Art of Self-Defense," by A. G. Brown. This eminent writer on the "manly art" has produced a work no boxer should be without. It contains invaluable pointers for beginners, besides explaining some novel ways of giving "knock-out" blows. The book is strikingly illustrated in black and blue by the well known artist, Mr. G. W. Ballard.

"Girls I Have Flirted With," by "Pat," is a very interesting and romantic work in two volumes. The author relates some very touching incidents in the course of his career. Should not be read by Freshmen.
