

Co-operation in Humanitarian and Other Fields.

As with the other two areas of the Final Act, the Belgrade meeting undertook to review implementation and to examine new proposals under the four main divisions of the 'Third Basket' — human contacts, information, culture and education. Canada joined with other Western countries in co-sponsoring four proposals: one stipulating that family-reunification applications should be granted as a matter of course; two complementing specific provisions of the texts in the Final Act on family reunification and marriage between nationals of different participating states; and a fourth dealing with access to printed information.
