

Gillis, Mr. Clarence—Con.

- Cost of living, 135
- Defence appropriation bill, 328-32, 479-80
- Defence industries, establishing in maritimes, 465-66
- Essential materials bill, 464-68
- Excess profits tax, 647-48
- Industries should be brought under national labour code, 331
- Korean situation, 136-37
- Maintenance of railway operation bill, 47-50
- Merchant marine, veterans' benefits, 502
- Munitions and armaments, nationalization
of production, 479-80
- National defence committee, 136, 328-32
- Parliament should give constant attention to affairs of the country, 134-35
- Price control, 648-49
- Shortages, creation of, 466-68
- Sitting, suspension of may prolong discussion until eleven o'clock, 506
- United Nations, long-term investment program in backward countries, 649-50
- War production, decentralizing, 329-30

Gold, flight from dollar, futures market, etc., 623-24

Golfing Equipment

- Customs tariff schedule, 743
- Excise tax, 714

Goode, Mr. T. H. (Burnaby-Richmond)

- Salmon fishing season on Fraser river,
closing of, 255, 664

Gordon, Donald

- Attack on, 64
- Criticism of during railway dispute, 629-30
- Industrial relations, no understanding of, 705
- Period of usefulness as president of Canadian National Railways has come to an end, reference of Mr.
Coldwell, 32
- Railway dispute
 - Attitude during negotiations, 38, 51-52, 65
 - Reported action in ending negotiations with union heads, 32, 49, 53
 - Companies' choice as negotiator, 47-49, 60
 - Substitution of someone else as negotiator, 58
- Statement of Mr. St. Laurent, 81

Government. See also House of Commons;
Liberal Party; St. Laurent, Rt. Hon.
L. S.

- Absolute power, granting to, 510-11, 520
- Administration, efficiency, 604. See also under this title, Expenditures
- Alacrity of to grasp and retain power, 538
- By blackmail, 523

69262—50½

Government—Con.

Cabinet

- Attributes of omniscience and omnipotence, assumption of, 359
- By-passing of, 535
- Confidence in, 197-98
 - Reference of Mr. Diefenbaker, 207-09
- Gregg, Hon. Milton F., appointment as Minister of Labour, 10
- Lapointe, Hon. Hugues, appointment as Minister of Veterans Affairs, 10
- Minister of Trade and Commerce, full and uncontrolled powers to, 539-41,
548-50, 561-65

Ministers

- Exceedingly powerful and in some respects irresponsible, Professor Lower on, 511
- Increased indemnity for suggested, 745
- Prudham, Hon. George, appointment as Minister of Mines and Technical Surveys, 759
- Requires powers to deal summarily with any emergency, 518
- Wide powers granted to, 206-07
- Can be impeached for misuse of sweeping powers granted to, 518-19
- Capital expenditures, deferment of, 632
- Complacency, 225-26, 305, 470, 599-602, 626.
See also references in debate on Address in Reply

Contracts under essential materials legislation, 535

Delegation of powers, 544

Disregard of basic principles of parliament, 521

Disregard of constitution, 542-43

Economies in administration. See under this title, Expenditures

Expenditures

- Control of by treasury board, 625
- Economies always start in somebody else's riding, 626
- Economies in, suggested, 418-20, 509-12, 602-04, 654
- Investigation into by committee or commission, 212, 297, 611-12, 683-88
- Wasteful, unnecessary, 678-81

Extraordinary powers, granting to, 534

Legislation. See that title

Need of power to make quick decisions that parliament of itself cannot make, 516

Order in council, by, 535, 544

Denying individuals right to rule of law
under, 548-49

Parliamentary assistants

Appointments

- Benidickson, W. M., to Minister of Transport, 759
- Campney, Ralph, to Minister of National Defence, 759