

yourself, that Committee may make an order that your husband shall provide you with the necessary means to sustain your defence, including the cost of retaining counsel, and the travelling and living expenses of yourself and of witnesses summoned to Ottawa on your behalf.

(Signature of Petitioner or of his Solicitor.)

I declare as your lawyer and solicitor that the petition here filed on day H. B. of this day is a true and correct copy of the petition as presented to the Senate and that the same may be considered by the Senate as if a Bill of Divorce founded thereon may be passed without any further notice to you.

When the petition is one by a husband for a divorce from his wife, all the following

7. If you shall be satisfied that you have no objection to the proposed divorce, you shall be prepared to depose and swear by your own affidavit and to certify that the petition is a true and correct copy of the petition as presented to the Senate and that the same may be considered by the Senate as if a Bill of Divorce founded thereon may be passed without any further notice to you.