

THE ROYAL VICTORIA HOSPITAL
MONTREAL

To begin with a few lectures and demonstrations for the undergraduates in Medicine might suffice - but the ultimate aim should be a post-graduate course, such as they have in Cambridge.

I am sending a duplicate of this letter to Dr Birkett for his consideration.

I remain

Yours very sincerely

M.D.

(Radiologist, Ross Pavilion,
Royal Victoria Hospital.)