

MESSRS. JOHN STARR, SON & Co., Ltd., Halifax, N. S. WESTVILLE, N. S., October 25th, 1892.

Dear Sirs,—The "Unique" Telephones furnished this Company by you some time since, are giving every satisfaction, and we are well pleased with them.

They transmit clear and distinctly, and are always the same, and we have never had to re-adjust them.

Yours very truly,

INTERCOLONIAL COAL MINING CO.,
CHARLES FERGIE, Manager.

MESSRS. JOHN STARR, SON & Co., Ltd., Halifax, N. S. HALIFAX, N. S., October, 29th, 1892.

Dear Sirs,—We take pleasure in saying that the "Unique" Telephones you have furnished us are giving excellent satisfaction.

We have our different departments connected, and it is a great saving and convenience to be able to speak from one department to another.

Since the system was completed we have had no trouble with it, and are pleased to recommend the "Unique" Telephones.

Yours very truly,

GORDON & KEITH,
Furniture Manufacturers.
