cumulating fund, until the net income shall in each case amount to fifty pounds per annum; for the more effectual promotion of which object the Society will engage, whenever such fund shall be formed and shall amount to one hundred pounds, invested in bank stock, or other public securities, to add thereto an amount not exceeding one hundred pounds, provided always that such investment shall stand in the name of the President of the Society.

Ninthly.—The management and the superintendence of all lands belonging to the Society.

ARTICLE XI.

All meetings of the Society, of the Central Board, and of District Associations, shall be opened by the following prayers—(see any of the Society's Reports,)—or such others as the Bishop may appoint.

No alteration or amendment in the Constitution or By-laws of the Society shall be made unless such alteration or amendment shall be proposed at one and adopted at another General Meeting of the Society, provided that not less than one month intervene between the two meetings, and that the object of the Meetings be stated in the advertisement by which they are called.

At all meetings of the Society, of the Central Board, or of Committees, the Chairman, in case of an equality of votes, shall have a double or casting vote.

ARTICLE XII.

Whereas some Members of the Church, who are not unmindful of the great spiritual wants of their own neighborhood, still feel constrained in pious gratitude for the blessings they enjoy, to allot something, however small, from the means with which a Gracious Providence has blessed them, towards the spread of the glorious Gospel among the nations, which still sit in darkness; the Society will gladly receive and forward to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, the Church Missionary Society or the London Society for promoting Christianity among the Jews, whatever sums may be given for the conversion and instruction of the Heathen or the Jews.
