Notes of Women's World

St. John's Ambulance Nursing Division meets in Grosvenor Street Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m. today.

The weekly meeting of St. George Chapter, I. O. O. E., takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Simon's parish house.

At 3:30 p.m. today, there will be a sewing meeting of the Admiral Hood Chapter, I. O. O. E. at the home of Miss Helen Robertson, 531 Palmerston boulevard.

Mrs. Stearns-Hicks, who has had such a strenuous season of voluntary work at the Toronto Women's Patriotic League, is taken a well earned ten days' holiday in Price Edward County.

The Canadian Business Women's Club will meet at 8 o'clock this evening at 114 1/2 Yonge street.

Introducing a series of teas to be given this week by the ladies at Niagara-on-the-Lake in aid of the Red Cross, a "bridge" will be given this afternoon at the lovely home of Mrs. Charles Nelles on the River road.

The I. O. O. E. of Montreal are offering a prize to the school which in September will send in the largest number of knitted articles, the object being to get the children to work in this manner for the comfort of the soldiers during the coming winter.

Linen and red cotton have been sent to members of the Veterans of '66 Chapter, I. O. O. E., with a request to autograph it and embroider in outline stitch. A quilt will be made from the worked squares which will be exhibited and then sent on to the boys in our Canadian hospitals.

Among the things for which there is imperative need is an increase in the contributions towards the Sand Bag Fund, which is a saver of many lives among our boys in the trenches.

Contributions should be sent to Major Kilgour, 21 Wellington street west, who cables the money direct to England. The following donations which bring the total to $2,274.16 have come in during the past week:

O. T. Dawson, Little Current, $5.00; Bartram Thornton, Ontario, $1.00; Welcome Methodist Church, Mrs. T. Roberts, secretary, $3.50; J. D. McArthur, Welton, Ont., $3.00; anonymous "Sons," $3.00; Ladies Aid, Anglican and Presbyterian churches, Glenworth, Ont., $14.14; Beardmore & Co., $25.00; Emily E. Something which has not entered largely, if at all, into our patriotic activities, was introduced on a somewhat colossal scale, according to press despatches, by Queen Helena of Italy, who on Saturday directed the auction in Rome of tickets in a lottery for the benefit of the Red Cross Society. The sale took place in the royal stables at the Quirinal, and it is reported that the public was largely represented and a great number of tickets sold. The lottery is said to offer 40,000 prizes. Among those at the sale of tickets were the young crown prince, the Princesses Yolanda and Giovanna and other children of the royal family. Postcards were sold by the prince and the little princesses went among the people offering their wares of bouquets, their baskets needing frequent replenishing. The Duke of Genoa, lieutenant-general of Italy during the king's absence at the front, was also present. Extra Train for Third Cabin Metagama Passengers. For the convenience of third cabin passengers sailing from Montreal, S.S. Metagama, July 8, extra train will leave Toronto 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, July 7, for Montreal.
