“Matthew Dale, Farmer.”

By MRS. SANDERS,

Second Edition.

“Told in an easy, pleasant style; its incidents are generally well chosen and probable, and the characters are all well drawn. A very few touches suffice to outline each, and the shading given by conversation and action is in each case consistent and sufficient. . . . It has the merit of being unstrained and unsensational in its incidents, and thoroughly healthy in tone.”—St. James' Gazette.

“The interest of the story in general, though entirely domestic, is exceedingly varied. . . . A very considerable dash of true Scotch humour.”—The Globe.

“Another Scottish rural romance: the personages are in a humble line of life; and they are drawn by a lady, who, as is very evident, thoroughly understands her country folk.”—The Times.

“There is nothing in the story that might not have happened, and yet nothing that was not worth the telling.”—The Graphic.

“‘Matthew Dale’ is thoroughly enjoyable; the plot is evolved with great care, and the style is remarkably good. Ann Forbes’s troubles with the household affairs of the employer whom she has admired from girlhood, with his treacherous sister, and his drunken nephew, are as genuine as anything we have seen in fiction for a long time.”—Spectator.
