

A T A B L E.

A Table of some principal things herein contained, not properly reducible to the other two.

A.

A Bades, a strange beast, the Rhinoceros of the Ancients 888

Abassines, by whom converted 976. their Heterodoxies and opinions ibid.

Abilene, the Tetrarchy of Lysani, where it was 701. 718. why reckoned Luke 3. amongst the portions of Herod's Children 701

Abydos besieged by Philip of Macedon, &c. in distresse, is fired by the Inhabitants, who likewise slew themselves 655. betrayed since to the Turks by the Governor's daughter ibid.

Adamites, why so called, and what 450. by whom destroyed ib.

Adolphus II. Earle of Berg, shut up in an Iron vessel and miserably stung to death by Bees 411

Adriatick Sea, whence it had the name 122. the great extent thereof in some ancient Writers ib. married to the Duke of Venice every holy Thursday ib.

Advice of an old Calique to Columbus 1097

Aeolus, why made the God of the Windes 86

Æt Corinthium, what it was, how highly prized, and how occasioned 587

Etna, the violent burnings of it. 83. and the cause thereof 84

Africa, whence it had the name 931, 932. the estate of Christianity in it, how much decayed. 933. the several languages therein spoken. ibid. The monstrous things reported of it by some of the ancients 932

Agbarus, Prince of Edessa, his message to our Saviour 789

Albigenses, what they were, and why so called. 226. The summe and substance of their story 225, 226

Alcoran, the book of the Mahometan Law, why so called 778. how highly revered ib. The Dogrinals thereof reduced, &c. reduced unto eight Commandments ib.

Alfonso, Tables by whom compiled, and the cost bestowed in the compiling of them 272

Allusion, of a French Gentle-man, concerning the cause of their civil broils 179

Almans, from whence so called, 396. of what several Nations they consisted 429. their affairs and story. ib.

Almadad, the son of Jocktan, where most probably fixed 11

Aloes a precious Wood, worth its weight in silver 908. Aloes Zoccarina, from what place it comes 1001

Amar, a Mountain in Æthiopia, described 980

Amazons, why so called 145. their dwelling place ib. 848. the sum and substance of their affairs 645

Amber, where it groweth, how gathered, and the virtues of it, 532. Amber liquid 1053

America, not known to the Ancients 1011. by whom first discovered 1012. 1013. the people of it not so black as the Africans 1016. that they are descended of the Tartars ib. The estate of Christianity in it ibid. The ingenuity of the people in their Feather pictures 1018

Amethyst, a precious stone, and the virtues of it 647

Amiantum, a stone whereof cloath is made 615. which stained, is cleansed by fire ib.

Amphilynes, what they were, and of their Authority 593

Amphiscii, why so called, and what they are in Geography 24

Ameylos silentium perdidit, a by-word, and from whence it came 77

Amyrus insanit, an old proverb, the meaning and occasion of it 77

Anabaptist cuts off his brothers head 165. their furies and proceeding in the Citie of Munster 476. their demands in the insurrection of the Boors 542

Anakim, the name of a Gigantic race of men, and why given unto them 729

Ananim, the father of the Hamanientes, an African people 13

Avayagidiv, an old by-word, and the meaning of it 617

Anchorets, whence so called 116 buried whilst alive ib.

Annals, what they are 20. & how they differ from Histories ib.

Answer, a feeling one of an English Captain to a scoffing demand of the French 179. a smart one of Spinola to Manrice Prince of Orange 68 of Richard I. to the Pop., writing for the Releasement of the Bishop of Beauvois 183. of the Conqueror concerning his imprisonment of Bodo 192 of Dr. Dale to the Spanish Commissioners 765

Anticyram naviget, a proverb, and to whom applicable 593

Antipodes, what they are 24. The tenet touching them decided by some of the ancients ib. condemned of Heresie in the darker times of the Church ib.

Aniach, the same with Riklah 694. its story 696

Ansoeci, what they are in Geography 24

Antonius Army in distresse, relieved by the prayers of Christians 454

Apennage, what 177

Archery, where most practised in elder times 827. Cezere missis, good Archers 518 the excellency of the English at it 827. whether Guns, or that that to be preferred ib.

Aram the son of Sem, the founder of the Syrians 9 684 the large extent of that name in Holy Scripture ib.

Areopagites, what they were, and from whence so called 590

Argonants, who they were, and whence so denominated 802 their expedition into Celchus ib.

Argosies, great ships of burden, whence they had their name 554

Ariamnes, a Galatian feasted the whole Nation for a year together ib.

Aristomanes, strange escape out of prison 589

Aristotle, the Precursor of Christ, in rebus naturalibus 2. why he conceived the World to have been eternal ib.

Arim, the Heretick his dissimulation and death 931

Ark of Noah, where made 788. in what place it rested after the flood 788. 830.

Armadilla, a strange beast in America, 429. the description of it 1018

Armenians, in what point they differ from other Christians, 799. how, and by whom their Church is governed ib.

liiii Arms