

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT
J. A. M. A. R.

TO THE PRESIDENT
FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE ARMY

The following information was received from the Secretary of the War Department on the 1st day of January, 1900, and is being furnished to you for your information.

The Secretary of the War Department has received from the Secretary of the Navy Department a copy of a letterhead memorandum dated the 28th day of December, 1900, and captioned "The Navy Department's Policy Regarding the Use of the Word 'Navy' in the Title of the Secretary of the Navy Department." The memorandum is being furnished to you for your information.

The Secretary of the War Department has also received from the Secretary of the Navy Department a copy of a letterhead memorandum dated the 28th day of December, 1900, and captioned "The Navy Department's Policy Regarding the Use of the Word 'Navy' in the Title of the Secretary of the Navy Department." The memorandum is being furnished to you for your information.

The Secretary of the War Department has also received from the Secretary of the Navy Department a copy of a letterhead memorandum dated the 28th day of December, 1900, and captioned "The Navy Department's Policy Regarding the Use of the Word 'Navy' in the Title of the Secretary of the Navy Department." The memorandum is being furnished to you for your information.

The Secretary of the War Department has also received from the Secretary of the Navy Department a copy of a letterhead memorandum dated the 28th day of December, 1900, and captioned "The Navy Department's Policy Regarding the Use of the Word 'Navy' in the Title of the Secretary of the Navy Department." The memorandum is being furnished to you for your information.

The Secretary of the War Department has also received from the Secretary of the Navy Department a copy of a letterhead memorandum dated the 28th day of December, 1900, and captioned "The Navy Department's Policy Regarding the Use of the Word 'Navy' in the Title of the Secretary of the Navy Department." The memorandum is being furnished to you for your information.

The Secretary of the War Department has also received from the Secretary of the Navy Department a copy of a letterhead memorandum dated the 28th day of December, 1900, and captioned "The Navy Department's Policy Regarding the Use of the Word 'Navy' in the Title of the Secretary of the Navy Department." The memorandum is being furnished to you for your information.

h
co
pi
th
fo
fat
the
sho
mac
bé f
In
phic
has
prop
tion
inter
luabl
Of t
mar,
lished
carefu