

the patriotic effort to improve the commercial conditions of what is after all a common country.

The author is greatly indebted to the officials of the Dominion and United States Government, and to other persons, for the information necessary to compile and to write this paper. He is particularly indebted to Sir Hector Langevin, Minister of Public Works of the Dominion of Canada; and Mr. Baillairgé, Deputy Minister; Mr. H. F. Perley, chief engineer Public Works Department; Mr. John Kennedy, chief engineer of the Montreal Harbour Commission; Mr. G. P. Brophy and Mr. Thomas C. Keefer of Ottawa, Mr. Walter Shanley of Montreal, M. P., Superintendent U. S. Census; United States Commissioner of Navigation; Chief of the Bureau of Statistics U. S.; Colonel O. M. Poe, U. S. engineer; Capt. W. L. Marshall, U. S. engineer; Hon. D. Blain, Mr. Kivas Tully and Mr. Joseph Blakeley of Toronto, also to Mr. Chas. H. Keep, secretary Lake Carriers' Association; secretaries of the Boards of Trade of Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago and Duluth; Mr. L. E. Cooley, president Western Society of Engineers; and to the author's associate, Mr. A. F. Robinson, civil engineer.

From the drawing accompanying this Paper Plate II has been prepared.