

reside in Montreal and its vicinity—and 2dly, Corresponding, to consist of those who reside at a distance. The latter shall pay no subscription, and whatever they give shall be considered in the light of donations—they shall have a right, when in Montreal, to attend the meetings of the Society—but not to vote unless they have taken up their permanent residence in the City or its immediate vicinity; in which latter case they shall enjoy the same rights, and be subject to the same laws and conditions as Ordinary Members. Ordinary Members, on leaving Montreal to reside at a distance, shall forthwith become Corresponding Members.

IX. Members shall be admitted by Ballot after the 1st day of January next—and on admission, every Ordinary member shall pay his annual subscription in advance.

X. After the 1st January, every candidate for admission must be nominated by two members in the following form:

“We, the undersigned Members of the Montreal Mechanic’s Institution, from our personal knowledge of _____, of _____, do hereby recommend him as a fit and proper person to become a member of the Montreal Mechanic’s Institution.”

N.B. Blank forms will be furnished by the Secretary on the application of the members.

XI. The form of nomination properly filled up, must be delivered to the Secretary by one of the members who have signed it, in order that it may be filed for future reference.

XII. On the person proposed being presented as directed, signing the following obligation in the Books of the Institution, and paying to the Secretary one year’s subscription, (two dollars) he shall become an Ordinary Member of the Institution.

“I _____, do hereby promise to observe and keep all the Rules and Orders of the Mechanic’s Institution, and to promote its welfare to the best of my power.”

XIII. Every member, on paying his subscription, shall
