

COLLEGE ST. BAPTISTS REMEMBER SOLDIERS

Memorial services were held at College Street Baptist Church yesterday in memory of fourteen former members of the congregation who had given their lives for the cause of the Allies as members of the Canadian expeditionary forces overseas.

Rev. Albert Hughes, acting pastor, appealed for five hundred letters to be sent during the present week from members of the congregation to some Canadian soldier overseas to encourage the recipients at this important period of the war.

Major Brown said in sending nearly 150 of their young men as volunteers to the front and releasing their pastor for overseas service they had shown their patriotic fervor.

Several Toronto officers, one of them an "original," returned from overseas service on Saturday. The "original" was Lt.-Col. J. J. Fraser, D.S.O., commander of the 2nd Field Ambulance.

Major Wm. Black, who returned on leave to his headquarters at Lendhurst, reported that at the house and at Passchendaele, the condition of the roads was so bad it was almost impossible at times to get supplies up to the front.

Major G. Carruthers, 5 Wells street, reported that "the spirit among the Canadian troops in England is great." Far from being demoralized by the war, they are more determined than ever.

Lieut. S. S. Jones, of Oshawa, was invalided home after six months' service in France. He went overseas with the 14th Battalion.

FOREIGN MISSION BOARD HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board was held throughout last week in Knox College, Principal Giesler, chairman of the board, presiding. Considerable business in connection with the various Presbyterian missions held abroad was transacted.

The board carried over a deficit from 1917 of $21,000, which, with the great increase in cost of maintaining the work, threw a heavy financial burden upon the church for its foreign mission work in the present year.

A proposal, looking toward the establishment of courses for prospective missionaries, provided by the colleges of Toronto and other universities, was favorably considered. It was decided that surveys of all the mission fields should be made during the next few months.

The news of the death of Lieut. Gordon S. M. Gauld of Toronto University, killed in action, was reported, and a cablegram of sympathy was forwarded to his father, Rev. Wm. Gauld, of the foreign mission in Formosa.

All steam plants TO BE OPERATED A new order covering the power situation in Toronto and district will be issued this week, it is expected, as a result of the investigation made by Sir Henry Drayton, power controller.

WEARING OF THE ROSE. Tuesday, April 23, will be dear to all Britons as the day of England's patron saint, St. George. On Tuesday the streets of Toronto will witness the wearing of the rose by the thousands.

THIS LETTER From a Truly Grateful Mother St. Catharines. Prof. Mulveney, Dear Sir: When I was in Toronto a few months ago I got a bottle of your remedy called "Mothers' Friend" medicine, and it has been a treasure and a new source of life, and I want to get more.

'I'M GLAD TO TELL EVERYONE OF IT'

Mrs. Mainhood Suffered for a Whole Year—Tanlac Has Relieved Trouble.

"I would never have thought that I would give a testimonial to a medicine, but since taking Tanlac my relief has been so remarkable that I am glad to tell everybody about it," recently said Mrs. Agnes Mainhood, 269 Gerard street, Toronto, whose husband has been employed by the Grand Trunk Railway for 30 years.

"All last year," she continued, "I suffered from indigestion in its worst form. I had no appetite, the very sight of food on the table would sicken me, the little I forced down soured on my stomach."

"I never had much faith in patent medicines, but when my husband urged me to give Tanlac a half cent bottle I was feeling so much better that I kept it up until I had taken six in all. That meant, bitter taste in my mouth, but I appeared to eat and enjoy anything I wanted without having the least trouble after wards."

PESSIMISM FROM WANT OF SELF-GOVERNMENT Taking as his text the 32nd verse, 16th chapter of Proverbs: "He that ruleth his spirit shall be lord of his city," Rev. Dr. W. T. Herdridge of Ottawa preaching at Trinity Methodist Church last evening, stated that it was a goodly number of boys overseas. "We cannot all be at the front," he said, "and I will not judge any young man who has formerly been a soldier."

SMALL FIRE IN HOME. An outbreak of fire from some unknown cause occurred at the home of William Arthur, Armistead avenue, West Toronto, yesterday afternoon. The damage was slight. Reels from Perth avenue and adjoining halls were promptly on the scene.

All Hells Eventually Lead To Path of Self-Sacrifice Felix A. Belcher, in the course of an address before the Theosophical Society on Sunday evening at Foresters' Hall, stated that to the best of his belief Jesus of Nazareth was really mortal like those He essayed so hard to put on the right path, and that if He had not been so He could have done but little to help them. It had been the idea of His that He descended into hell and that on the third day He had risen from the dead. He was a term which could be variously interpreted and could be classified into many sections. There was, for instance, the hell peculiar to the business man and that peculiar to the thief, another only known to the real sufferer from the pang of conscience.

ORANGE YOUNG BRITONS. The county lodge of York, Orange Young Britons, held its quarterly meeting in Victoria Hall, Friday evening. Very favorable reports were given of the primary lodges, showing progress. It was decided to send an invitation to the Grand Lodge of British America to hold its session of 1919 in Toronto. Sympathy was expressed for Capt. Wm. Crawford on the loss of his son overseas. The county master and deputy county master were appointed delegates to grand lodge at Perth.

NEWS OF LABOR STILL IN THE FIELD.

The skill of the glass blower is still in demand, and a number of glass blowers are employed at the Jefferson works on Carlaw avenue. This refutes the claim recently made that the day of the glass blower has passed, since it is understood that very ordinary is employed on certain types of glassware.

MAY NOT ENFORCE LAW. William Covert, business manager for the Moving Picture Operators' Association, stated last night that there was reason to believe that the government would not attempt to enforce anything in the nature of a spring switch upon the operators. It was believed that the government had decided to abandon that regulation. "If this has been decided," said Mr. Covert "it will do good in more ways than one. It will give several hundred good farmers and youths from the moving picture profession to that of farming, and at this juncture it should prove a boon to both the farmer and the country."

SUCCESSFUL EUCHRE. The euchre and dance held by the members of Ward I of the Greater Toronto Labor Party at Masonic Hall, Gerrard street and Logan avenue, Friday evening, was very successful, more than 250 being present. Mrs. W. G. Norman, president, presided. Mrs. Day and Patterson won the first and second prizes respectively for the euchre. The prizes were given by William Varley and John Vick.

NEW BRANCH FOR LABOR PARTY. The Oakwood branch of the Greater Toronto Labor Party has formed a branch of the Canadian Labor Problems Club, of which Professor Melvor is the provincial secretary. The new club will deal with reconstruction problems after the war. The officers of the local branch are: S. Norman, president; A. Rigby, secretary; and D. Hood, treasurer. Jas. Gunn is acting in an advisory capacity.

CANADIAN SOLDIERS' GRAVES TO BE MARKED. It is proposed to mark the graves of all soldiers who have died in Canada with a bronze cross, mounted with a bronze maple leaf, the record of the soldier to be inscribed on the leaf. The idea is to pay honor to the soldiers who die in Canada in a similar way to that adopted by the authorities in England and France. The plan is for the Dominion Government to defray the cost, estimating at between $15 and $20 a cross, with the department of militia having general supervision of the work. All soldiers who have enlisted have shown their desire to be buried in their own country, and it is pointed out, in death should be honored.

Loew's Theatre. The humorous account of the struggle of a young vaudeville artist, "The Black Sheep," by Bob Fitch, the extemporaneous boy of poetry and song; Sherman, Van and Hyman, offering melodious nonsense; Art Henry and Madeline Moore, in their latest edition of "At the Sevens Stand"; Paul and Hall, in an artistic melange of music and song, and Curtis' clever performing dogs. Loew's comedy and universal picture pictures complete the bill.

City Belles Here. The City Belles, a quartet of four young women, will be the first time this play has ever been done in Canada. The scenic equipment will be of the usual high standard that has marked all the Robins productions.

For the week the management of the Hippodrome presents an all-star bill of novelty and comedy, headed by "Inspiration," musical comedy in one act, with a cast of clever boys and girls, who will present a revue of the season's songs and dance novelties. "The Three Kashies" girls, singing offerings, and "Breaking His Pledge," Moore and West have an unusual sketch. Dale and Boyle are comedians, and Robb and Day are comedians. "School Days" and the Aerial De Groffs, in sensational feats, come well recommended. "The Hillcrest Mystery" with Mrs. Verrill, and "The Pathetic" complete the bill.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC "Rambler Rose." At the Princess Theatre, beginning this evening, Julia Sanderson and Joseph Cawthorn will be seen in their newest musical play, "Rambler Rose," one of the best vehicles appearing at the Empire Theatre in New York and at the Illinois Theatre in Chicago for some months past. Both Mrs. Sanderson and Mr. Cawthorn have large and loyal followings here and their annual engagement is always eagerly awaited.

Maude Fulton's delightful comedy, "The Brat," which was presented here early in the season by Rea Martin and her clever company, returns to the Grand this week. "The Brat" is a character study, cleverly and interestingly presented, founded on an actual incident in the life of a prominent novelist. The character as interpreted by Miss Martin is one of the brightest studies given to the stage. Her work has been commended by critics everywhere, and the return of the comedy to the Grand will be welcomed by all lovers of the best in theatricals.

A farce comedy by the author of "Experience," George V. Hobart, "What's Your Husband Doing?" has been selected by Edward H. Robins and the Robins Players for presentation at the Royal Alexandra this week, commencing tonight, with the usual popular matinee on Wednesday. As the play is a farce, it is pointed out, in death should be honored.
