The closing of the maket on the exchange yesterday was marked by even more than ordinary dulness, practically no receipts and no business worth mentioning. Now that the holiday season is over today and tomorrow will see a resumption of business and everybody will be glad to get of the outlook is said to be for a good market on Monday, not alone in cattle, but in sheep, lambs and hogs.

Practically all the business of the week was centred in Monday's trading when 1990 cattle were on sale. Since that time about 800 fresh cattle have come on the market. At Monday's trading when 1990 cattle were on sale. Since that time about 800 fresh cattle have come on the market. At Monday's trading mearly all classes showed an advance of from 25c to 49c, and despite the fact that the trading since that time has been scattered, there have been no price. The saif trade thru the week was light, but there was little demand for anything but really choice light veal.

The sheep and lamb trade has been fairly light as well, and the demand strong. Monday's lambs sold from 15½c. The bulk of the lambs sold around 15½c, but one outstanding dot, as mail bunch of extra black face, weekning man of C. Zeegman & Sons bould the following constitutions. The outlook for sheep and lambs is for a good trade next week.

The market has been steady to strong all week, opening Monday at from 18c.

WHOLESALE FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

Chicago, Jan. 2.—Aggressive corn selling resulted today from the prevailing cold wave, which seemed likely to stimulate the movement of the crop. Prices closed unsettled, %c to 1%c net lower, with January $1,41½ and May $1,35% to $1,35%. Oats finished %c off to 1%c advance, and provisions varying from 50c decline to 12c advance.

With temperature below the zero-mark in many sections of the belt, sentiment as to corn was bearish thruout the session. Traders were nearly unanimous in looking for enlarged receipts, as a consequence of the improved conditions for shelling and hauling. Most of the selling pressure, however, was on the nearby deliveries. Persistent absorption of May on the part of the commission houses kept that month relatively firm, The fact that all quantity restrictions on dealings had been canceled gave the market more breadth at times than has been the rule of late, but on the whole did not greatly increase the volume of business.

Improved shipping demand from the east and south l'fted January oats, Other deliveries sagged with corn.

Denial that the attorney-general's announcement as to price-fixing would affect the government minimum for hogs led to considerable buying of provisions, but the offerings soon, became over plentiful. Strawberries-The first strawberries for this season came in yesterday from Florida, White & Co., Limited, having a tank of extra choice ones, seiling at 90c per box. This is twenty-six days earlier than the first of last season. Vegetables-The new vegetables at last beginning to come in, the first cars of California celery, cauliflower and cabbage arriving yesterday. There was an especially heavy demand for the celery, which was soon cleared out at $11 per case. The cauliflower brought $6.50 and $6 per case, and cabbage, $3 per case.
