PACKERS HEAR FACTS OF WHAT LIVING COSTS

Statistics bearing on cost of living and wages were yesterday placed before the conciliation board in connection with questions raised by the employees of the Toronto packing plants. The figures, which were submitted by Lou Braithwaite, showed that in the case of a family of seven, the man's wages were $20 per week, and the necessities cost $19.23; another experience on $24 a week with a family of six, showed that this returned soldier spent $13.30, excluding coal, clothes, or boots; another family spent $30.90, and the income was $30, showing a balance on the wrong side. An estimate of a single girl for a year figured out at $18.35 per week.

"We are of the opinion," said J. F. Matthews, "that we are paying now a fair rate of wages, and that we have treated our employees fairly. We pay as high as the packing houses on the other side of the line."

According to Mr. Walker, the average wage for March, 1919, was 45.77 cents per hour; in December, 1914, it was 19.02 cents per hour.

Workmen's and Soldiers' Council Being Planned in Cape Breton

Halifax, N.S., May 28.—A Sydney despatch to The Herald says: "That the returned soldiers and the trades unionists of Cape Breton are about to unite in what will be virtually a workmen's and soldiers' council, altho far removed in sentiment, motives and methods from the organizations of similar name, which have sprung up in Europe, is the significant information gleaned from a most reliable representative here."

"In pursuance of this scheme, a meeting was held last week between representatives of the local veterans and members of the Sydney Trades and Labor Council, and it is learned that notable progress was made."

THE SITUATION IN EUROPE

The Associated Press issues the following:

With the hour at hand when Germany must make known to the allied and associated powers Germany's intentions with regard to the peace terms submitted to her, the only impasse in the way of letting the Austrians know what their penalty is to be for having been associated with Germany in the war has been breached.

Thursday at Versailles will witness the ceremony of the German peace delegation handing in their reply to the allied terms. The reply will consist of a volume of counter proposals and acceptance aggregating 108 pages of printed matter.

Friday at St. Germain the Austrians, who have been clamoring for an early presentation of the peace treaty that has been arranged for them, will be called before the peace congress and handed the document.

This has been made possible through an agreement reached by the council of four on one mighty question which had blocked the council in its efforts to settle the issues with the Austrians.

Great stress is to be laid in the German document on the assertion that the allies are virtually abandoning President Wilson's fourteen points for peace, which the Germans declare they accepted as the basis for the signing of the armistice.

It is reported that the Germans in an endeavor to offset the entente claim for reparation will go so far as to put in a counter-claim for nearly thirteen billion marks, alleged damages suffered because of the blockade made by the allies against Germany.

covered that he had been disinherited by his father, Brady and Mahoney, comedians famous for their laugh-making skits, in their latest concoction, "The Cruise of the Doughnut," and LeHoon and Dupreese, in an unusual comedy, "Matt and Jeff," cartoons, and Loew's World-Weekly are other features billed.

Mary Pickford at Regent
The delightful story of "Daddy Long Legs," in which the famous screen star Mary Pickford is featured, has drawn immense crowds to the Regent Theatre this week and Miss Pickford's brilliant talents that have agreed that this as the finest exhibition of her many brilliant talents that have been seen. The picture is remarkable for its many interesting features. The story by Jean Webster has been made a picture for the screen and the photography is beautiful. A splendid comedy and an exceedingly attractive musical program are other features of the very pretentious entertainment.

At the Allen
Those who have seen Cecil B. DeMille's latest production, "For Better, For Worse," playing at the Allen this week claim that it is by far the finest piece of work Mr. DeMille has ever given to the screen from every standpoint—theme, story, dramatic suspense, acting, and production. This is the most conclusive praise that can be given to a picture, for everyone who has seen Mr. DeMille's previous pictures knows they are without parallel. In the cast of "For Better, For Worse," are Gloria Swanson, Tom Forman, Rudolph Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Jack Holt and Elliott Dexter.

Morey at Madison
Harry T. Morey, the virile and versatile, is the star of the Vitaphone picture, "Beating the Odds," which will be presented at the Madison Theatre today, tomorrow, and Saturday. The photoplay is the film version of "The Money Maker" and is a novel and exposure of the graft in the underworld of a big city.

"The Belle of New York"
Did you ever see Edna May's greatest success, "The Belle of New York," the most famous musical play ever produced? Did you ever see the Ziegfeld Beauty Chorus, famous as the "most beautiful collection of girls in the world"? You will have the opportunity of seeing them both together in the magnificent screen version of "The Belle of New York" showing today, tomorrow and Saturday at the Strand Theatre.

At Star Theatre.
Every week is a new and a breaker for the burlesque pace at the Star Theatre, and next week the "High Flyers" will endeavor to establish a new record for the pace in the singing and dancing members. The chorus of this company is one of the singing and dancing organizations in burlesque. The girls are evenly matched, and are crowned in the latest creation in chorus garments. Specialties by the principals and chorus, are featured on the illuminated running board. Manager Dan Pierce, is at present in New York arranging several new burlesques which he intends producing during the stock season which is now on its third week. It is likely that a number of new performers will be added to the large cast.

Broadus Farmer—Massey Hall.
Broadus Farmer's Massey Hall concert tonight offers an unusually attractive and diversified program, featuring many solo violinists, two numbers for forty violins, some notable piano works, with Eva Galloway Farmer as one of the players; two distinguished singers, Ruth Thom-Dusseau, soprano, and John Detwiler, baritone; and, to conclude the splendid musical offering two orchestral selections. Free admission cards to this concert may be had at the Hamburg Conservatory, at Nordheimer's, and at Hawkes and The role of the Salvation Army lassie, Violet Gray, played by Edna May, is delightfully portrayed by beautiful Marion Davies. The story grips the heart, the settings are massive and beautiful, the whole production a unique treat.

ALL ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR BLOCKADE

Germany Will Be Given 72 Hours' Notice if She Refuses to Sign Treaty.

London, May 28.—The allied blockade council at Paris has completed all arrangements for again putting the blockade of Germany into force in case the German delegates refuse to sign the peace treaty. While complete plans have been worked out for the fullest co-operation between the military and economic forces which will be employed in case of necessity.

Immediately following a failure of the Germans to sign the treaty, putting the allied and associated governments to the necessity of acting, Germany will be given 72 hours' notice of the termination of the armistice. On the expiration of this period the British, French and Americans will advance into Germany. Simultaneously the blockade will be enforced as tightly as possible.

All the arrangements perfected during the war to protect as far as possible the interests of neutral nations, while preventing the entry of food or raw materials into Germany, will again be brought into play, and Germany will find herself adequately cut off from the rest of the world.
