

"He Got Soaked"

WHEN a man gets the worst of a bargain nowadays we say he got "soaked." We had a gentleman in yesterday who had paid a tailor $36 oo for a spring suit, and, say, when we think of it we feel sorry to know that there are such "easy marks" so ready to part with their cash for such poor fitting garments. Honestly, we couldn't sell clothes like that; we'd hate to accept money for them. We positively guarantee to fit a man properly and save him money. Our Sovereign Brand has every other brand, as well as the tailors, beaten a mile, and we are here with the suits to prove and demanstrate what we say. Don't be like the gentleman we speak of and get "soaked."

"Come On In"

and learn more about us and "Sovereign Brand."

Proprietor of Hotel Will Have to Explain-Machine Moulders Have Got Increase.

HAMILTON, May 15 .- (Special.)-An interesting liquor case will be heard in the police court Thursday morning. The proprietor of the Palace Hotel has been summoned for a breach of the License Act. Constable Smith happened along about 11.30 last Monday night, and found the lights turned on in the bar, and the bartenders busily engaged in cleaning up the place. He had a summons issued this afternoon. Insinuations have been made that police make no effort to detect breaches of the License Act, but this makes several cases they have made during the past few
