MANGLED BY THE TROLLEY

Terrible Death of Teamster Nottley in King-Street Subway—His Wife, Child, Man, Seriously Injured.

Thomas Nottley, laborer, single, 260 Lippincott-street, died at the General Hospital yesterday morning from injuries received in a trolley accident in the King-street subway, and Matthew Chalmers, 84 Clarendon-street, lies in the Hospital badly hurt.

About 9 o'clock yesterday morning the two men were coming east through the subway with a load of earth, when the double-deck of the wagon broke. Both men were busy repairing the break when motor car 466, going in the same direction ran into the wagon. Chalmers' head and face were cut, and some ribs fractured. Nottley by some means was jammed under the car, where he remained for twenty minutes before being rescued. He was terribly crushed and mangled. Both men were taken to the Hospital, where Nottley died an hour later. Chalmers is a teamster in the employ of the Park Commissioners' Department, and Nottley was taking a ride with him.

Coroner Atkins will hold an inquest to-night at the General Hospital.

YORK TOWNSHIP.

Sale Through Arrears of Taxes—Engineer's Report on Rosedale Bridge.

An interesting question of law will likely come up at the Monday meeting of the Council. In the case of property sold for arrears of taxes through no fault of the owner, the township has hitherto retained it from the purchaser at the price named virtually by himself. A recent case was the purchase by the township for $50 of a lot sold for a sum of no more than $2. The point is taken that the first buyer can receive nothing beyond the price he paid plus 10 per cent. interest.

The case for the township in the suit of York v. Humberstone will all be in by Saturday.

Lighting of Newway.

The Consumers' Gas Company is investigating at Newway the question of the cost of lighting the gas lamps on the Kingston-road. The disputed clause in the agreement between the company and the township prescribes no limit to the amount which the former can charge in case in its opinion the township does not properly take care to do so.

Township Engineer and Rosedale Bridge.

It is understood that the report of Township Engineer Gibson with regard to the suggested taking over of the Rosedale bridge is not favorable to no doing. The sub-structure is of light material and is said to have keeled over to one side. The township authorities are apprehensive of a big claim for damages should any accident occur. The Moore Park district, it is understood, is against the undertaking also, on the grounds that the neighborhood lower down would be benefited at its expense.

Efforts are being made to bring up the Richmond Hill Railway v. York case this session. At the request of the company it was placed at the bottom of the list.

A meeting of the Township Council will be held on Monday at the Eglington Town Hall.

Queen's Own Rifles.

The regiment paraded last night 648 strong, including 30 recruits, under Major J. P. Delaney. They were exercised in battalion and company drill on the ground south of the Armouries, and then marched out, returning to the Armouries about 10 o'clock. The decision as to where the regiment will spend Queen's Birthday has not been made, nor will it be until Wednesday next. The choice lies between Kingston and Niagara.

Drummond, Montreal; William Saunders and Jas. Fletcher, Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

WED MIDST A SCENE OF SPLENDOR

Society Thronged to the Nuptials of Capt. Michie and Miss Edna Lee—Superb Presents and Reception.

Capt. John Forbes Michie of the 48th Highlanders, and proprietor of Michie & Co., was yesterday afternoon united in marriage to Miss Edna Emma Lee, second daughter of Mr. W. S. Lee, of 306 Jarvis-street. The ceremony took place at Little Trinity Church at 2.30, in the presence of a large concourse of guests, who secured admission to the church by ticket.

The bride looked charming in a magnificent dress of white satin, trimmed with beautiful Honiton lace and pearls, a bridal veil of tulle with sprays of orange blossoms, and carrying a shower bouquet of white roses. This was all set off with lovely ornaments of diamonds and pearls, the present of the groom, and the whole made a very attractive picture.

A Lovely Scene.

Miss Mabel Lee, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and she looked very becoming in a dress of white silk with yellow brocade Louis XVI. coat and gold collar and belt. A white hat with feathers and tulle strings completed the effect.

Miss Annie Michie, second sister of the groom, Miss Jean Clark, daughter of Mr. W. Mortimer Clark, Miss Jessie Gooderham, daughter of Mr. Alfred Gooderham, and Miss Phemie Smith, daughter of Mr. Andrew Smith, were the bridesmaids. They carried pretty bouquets of carnations, and were attired similarly to Miss Mabel Lee, wearing lavender broadened coats and two white.

Miss Violet Lee, the little niece of the bride, acted as her happy auntie's flower girl. Her wares were very choice daisies. Master Forbes Stuart, the groom's nephew, was page to the bride.

The groom was supported by Mr. William Hendrie of Hamilton. The ushers were Messrs. Charles Michie, Charles Lee, Frank Gray and Capt. D. M. Robertson.

Crowded and Fashionable Reception.

After the knot had been tied the bride and her guests drove to the home of the bride's parents, 306 Jarvis-street, where a reception was held, the happy couple afterwards leaving on the 4.15 train for New York.

The honeymoon will be spent in the Southern States. On the return of the young couple to the city, they will reside for the summer at 306 Jarvis-street, while Miss Lee's family is at Kew Beach.

The presents to the fortunate young couple were numerous and of great value. They filled two large upstairs rooms and made a most imposing display. They were of all varieties in gold, silver, glass and china, and bore the marks of many of the best known names in the city and country.

A Great Society Function.

The wedding was one of the fashionable events of the season, the contracting parties both being society favorites. Miss Lee enjoyed an enviable position in social circles. Her form was a familiar one at the Hunt, where she could always be seen in front. At the recent Horse Show she was awarded the prize for the best lady rider, and she shared the honors with Mrs. Carruthers for the best riding over jumps.

The groom is very popular in military circles, and is one of Toronto's prominent business men. About 40 of the employees, ex-employees and friends of Michie & Co. fittingly celebrated the marriage of Capt. J. F. Michie by a sumptuous repast at Webb's last night. A jolly evening was passed in music, song and speech-making, and everyone enjoyed himself. Giannini's Orchestra was in attendance.

Fashionable Wedding at St. Anne's.

The wedding of Mr. B. King and Miss Sophie Taylor took place last evening in St. Anne's Church, Brockton, Rev. J. M. Ballard officiated. The bride's dress was of white silk. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Thompson, in pink, and Miss Morrison, in white. Mr. E. Wingate was best man. Many members of the Denison and Taylor families were present, the bride being a granddaughter of the late Mrs. Denison of Dovercourt. Mr. and Mrs. King took their departure for Muskoka by a late train.

REFORM THE PRIMROSE LEAGUE.

Lord Salisbury's Assertion Regarding the Reform League at Johannesburg.

London, April 22.—At the annual meeting of the Primrose League, held at Covent Garden to-day, Lord Salisbury said in an address that, he was sure President Kruger would not use unworthily the power which circumstances had placed in his hands. As regards the situation in Armenia, Lord Salisbury said the last Government was to blame for having adopted a policy of coercion toward Turkey, and that yesterday morning a man named Premier defended the campaign in the Sudan as being in accordance with the responsibilities which Great Britain undertook when she occupied Egypt.

Lord Salisbury referred to the leaders of the Reform movement as struggling for what they conceived to be their rightful liberties in the Transvaal. This assertion was received with loud cheers.

President Kruger's name was received with hissing from some parts of the Premier's audience. There was a very large gathering present, but most of them in attendance were ladies.

THE DOCTOR AND THE DEAD CHILD

Coroner Will Inquire Into the Occurrence at a Baby Farm.

Coroner Johnson has issued a warrant for an inquest on a male infant that died at 334 Sumach-street. Dr. Bray, 238 Gerrard-street east, who furnished the information, says that yesterday morning a man named George Smith, employed at 3 Gerrard-street east, and who lives on Walton-street, asked him to call at Mrs. Costello's, 334 Sumach-street, to see a sick child. He called at the house shortly afterwards, and was shown the child lying in a baby carriage. He saw at once that the child had been dead.

Mrs. Costello, who claims to have a permit for a baby farm, says the child was brought to her last Thursday by Smith. Smith denies that he is the father of the child, but admits taking it to Mrs. Costello to be cared for.

The child was well nourished, and showed no marks of violence. Mrs. Costello lived on Parliament-street for a month, moved to the Sumach-street house a week ago, and yesterday moved to Spruce-street.

The inquest will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the Morgue, where the body now lies.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion is occasioned by the want of action in the biliary ducts, loss of vitality in the stomach to retain the gastric juices, without which digestion cannot be effected. Parmentier's Vegetable Pills, taken before going to bed, for a while, never fail to give relief, and effect a cure.

F. W. Ashdown, Ashdown, Ont. Writes: "Parmentier's Pills are taking the lead against ten other makes which I have in stock."
