NINETEENTH YEAR

THE WARSHIPS WERE BLOWN UP

Tens of Thousands of Citizens and Visitors Witnessed the Great Explosions—The Program Was a Success Beyond Dispute—Citizens' Day at the Big Fair Was a Record-Breaker.

Seventy thousand visitors took in the Exhibition yesterday. This is the largest number that has yet rolled through the gate. Every train and steamer coming into the city brought crowds of Fair visitors. The streets of the city were thronged all day long by the huge influx of strangers, while the walks, the buildings and the Grand Stand at the Fair literally teemed with their human population.

Labor Day, being a public holiday all over the Dominion, freed the residents of outside towns and cities, who took immediate advantage of the chance to see Canada's greatest show.

Each man wore an air as if he was anxious to say, "This is our show! It's a day!"

Citizens' Day was undoubtedly the banner day of the Fair in more ways than one.

By 7 p.m. the stand was crowded to its utmost capacity, and for the remainder of the evening many Toronto people grumbled because they could not get seats. These people forgot that they could have visited the Exhibition the last three nights of last week and have seen exactly the same entertainment in comfort. They will have other chances to-night, to-morrow night, Thursday and Friday nights to see undoubtedly the greatest spectacular production ever attempted in Canada, if not in America.

The Banquet.

The Directors' banquet was, of course, the mirror of the prevailing sentiment of the day, and among those who beheld their figures in it were naturally the city's representatives, the aldermen.

Aldermen Promise Everything.

The capital bill-of-fare served by Harry Webb at once put the City Fathers in the best of humor, and before they left nine of them, Aldermen Hubbard, Score, Denton, Davies, R. Graham, J. Graham, Lynd, Frame, Lieutenant Dumble, W. J. Hobson, G. E. Sweetman, G. H. Gooderham, W. E. Wellington, G. W. Sweetman, G. D. Ferninger, St. Catharines, G. Booth, S. E. Briggs, R. Pringle, T. Russell, H. Pugsley, George Vair, P. G. Close, W. S. Lee, J. E. Ward.

Educates Canada.

The first speaker to win the plaudits of the banqueters was Mr. R. Jaffray. He spoke of the Toronto Fair as an education to the whole Dominion. Canadian farmers owned their high position in agriculture to the Fairs, and the Toronto Exhibition was the best of all.

The Provinces Cap in Hand.

W. S. Lee believed that the time was not far distant when the Lieut.-Governors of the Toronto Fair directors and ask them to preside over a Dominion exhibit.

More Room for Art.

As chairman of the Fine Arts exhibit, he would like to see it less cramped for room, believing that when this was done foreign countries would double their exhibitions.

More Money for the Fair.

Ald. Hubbard spoke with the enthusiasm of the candidate at the hustings. He dwelt on the wonderful progress of the Fair, and declared that the only criticism he had to offer was that the city could, with advantage, increase its money grant.

Praise for Mr. Hill.

He created up Manager Hill and dashed up American opinion that they had no such Fair in their own country.

Lieut. Dumble Caught.

Lieut. Dumble, R. H., who was introduced as the "Maine," said that if he had known that a speech was due from him he would have dodged the lunch. He spoke in glowing terms of the Exhibition.

Knocked Out Conceit.

Ex-President Smith of the Winnipeg Fair, a gentleman with a fine, strong face and a nose of managerial powers, said that the standard of the Toronto Fair had knocked out all the conceit of the Winnipeg visitors. He had one special bit of advice to give the citizens of Toronto to wit, "Gentlemen, you cannot do too much for your Fair."

Winnipeg Grateful to Hill.

Manager Heubach of the Winnipeg Fair said either say too much in praise of the Exhibition. He attributed much of

SATISFACTION IN LONDON

Over the Great Victory Achieved by Sir Herbert Kitchener.

London, Sept. 5.—The news of Gen. Kitchener's victory over the Dervishes at Omdurman was received with the greatest satisfaction here.

Early this morning crowds gathered about the statue in Trafalgar Square. Through the hazy atmosphere of the day, Gen. Charles (Chinese) Gordon, some one had placed on the pedestal a placard with the inscription "Avenged at last," and when the people saw it they burst into loud cheering.

The police made no attempt to remove the placard and later in the day similar placards were placed on the pedestal, all of which were greeted with cheers.

He Demands the Dreyfus Trial Records Before Discussing Them—Text of the Appeal of Madame Dreyfus to the Minister of Justice for a Revision of Her Husband's Trial—Cavaignac Persists in His Attitude Against a Revision.

MADAME DREYFUS' APPEAL.

Paris, Sept. 5.—General Zurlinden, Military Governor of Paris, has accepted the Ministry of War in succession to M. Cavaignac, resigned. General Zurlinden was a member of the Ribot Cabinet, which went out of office, Oct. 23, 1895.

When the Cabinet met to-day the Minister of Justice, M. Ferdinand Buisson, informed his colleagues of the receipt of Madame Dreyfus' request for a revision of the verdict against her husband. M. Sarrien promised to give a statement of the result of his examination into the matter at a meeting of the Cabinet to be convened after the Minister of War shall have been appointed.

General Zurlinden's decision to accept the war portfolio was communicated to President Faure.

After long conferences with the Minister of the Interior, M. Brisson, and the Minister of Justice, M. Sarrien, General Zurlinden was interviewed by a newspaper representative. The General said that the Minister of Justice asked for the Dreyfus documents. When these should be given him, he added, he would study them carefully and inform himself thoroughly regarding the case before discussing it with the Cabinet.

FOR A WAGER, DROWNED.

Michael Farrell Bets He Can Swim Across Small's Pond—Drowned.

Michael Farrell, about 45 years of age, went to the pond and jumped in. The others laughed at him and returned to the hotel, thinking that he would come after them. Shortly afterwards, as he did not come back, they went to look for him but could not find any trace of him. One of his chums suggested that perhaps he was drowned. After diving several times, Mr. Thompson, Chambers succeeded in recovering the body, and brought it to shore. It was found about 15 feet from the bank.

Dr. Brown was notified by telephone, but life was extinct before he arrived. When the body was first recovered no effort was made towards resuscitation by those present. The body was in the water for about half an hour.

The deceased was well known in the east end, as he was in the habit of working in one of the Leslieville brick yards during the summer months, doing any small job that he could secure during the winter. For some time past he has lived on Knowlton street, near the corner of the city police refused to act in the matter. The city officials were notified, but up to late hour last night had not taken any action.

MR. GLADSTONE'S WILL.

Personal Estate Valued at $50,500—The Grand Old Man Wrote the Will Himself.

London, Sept. 5.—The will of the late Right Hon. William E. Gladstone has been probated. It shows that his personal estate is valued at $50,500.

Mr. Gladstone's will was written by himself in an ordinary memorandum book. It is a document of about two thousand words and is a remarkable specimen of penmanship. The second clause of the will has reference to the funeral arrangements, and says:

"Committing myself to the infinite mercies of God in the life to come, I leave the particulars of my burial to my executors, applying only that they be very simple and private, unless there be conclusive reasons to the contrary. And I desire to be buried where my wife may also lie. On no account shall a laudatory inscription be placed over me."

After appointing his sons as executors, the will charges the future possessor of Hawarden to remember that, as the head of the family, it will be his duty to extend good offices to other members thereof, according to his ability and their manifest needs and merits. The rest of the document leaves servants and householders to the care of his executors, as bequeaths to his grandson, William, as heirlooms all the patents of Crown offices held by the testator and all books and prints presented to him by the Queen, letters from the Queen, etc.

The will bears date of November 26, 1893.

HORRIBLE RAILWAY SMASH.

Montreal Express on the D. & H. Road Ran Into a Trolley.

Albany, N.Y., Sept. 5.—The Montreal express on the Delaware & Hudson Railroad, this afternoon at about 7 o'clock to-night, struck a trolley and trolley car at that place. Fifteen persons were killed and about 20 injured.

The injured were taken to the City Hospital and to the Continental Infirmary mill, the former not having sufficient ambulance service to care for them all.

The bloody corpses were picked up and placed in boxes, but most of them unrecognizable. The crash was frightful in its results. Headless women with their own summer dresses tucked in their own and bound to their bodies without trunks or any means of identification; women's and men's heads, with crushed and distorted features, bodies crushed and flattened; these sights constitute a scene most horrible and ghastly.

The following dead bodies were identified up to 1 o'clock this morning:

Archie Champagne of Cohoes, James Temple of Lansingburg, Edward Barney of Cohoes, Mrs. John Craven of Cohoes, Miss Kittie Graves of Cohoes, Joseph Seneca of Cohoes, Nellie Swift, 15 years old, of Cohoes, Mrs. Eliza McElroy of Cohoes.

The injured are: Isaac Shaw of Cohoes, skull fractured; George Ankers of Cohoes, head cut and several ribs broken; Miss Elizabeth McElroy of Cohoes, leg broken; Mrs. Elizabeth Seneca of Cohoes, collar bones fractured and several ribs broken. She had a baby in her arms. It was crushed and will die. Emma Desvareux of Cohoes, skull fractured; James Temple, Lansingburg, jaw fractured and injured internally; Mrs. Ira Dewey of Cohoes, head crushed.

THE STRICKEN WIFE ADDRESSES THE MINISTER OF JUSTICE.

Paris, Sept. 5.—Following is the text of Madame Dreyfus' demand to the Minister of Justice for a revision of her husband's trial: "I had the honor in the month of July to place before you a request in which I asked you to exercise the right conferred upon you by law—and which is conferred upon me also—to transmit to the Court of Cassation for reconsideration the judgment rendered against my unfortunate husband in violation of article 101 of the Criminal Code.

"I have the honor now, Monsieur le Ministre, again to address you, a second time, appealing to you because the law which governs such a revision does not permit directly and by my own agency to invoke justice. You, and you alone, have the right to effect a revision of a judgment, bringing with it condemnation on the ground of the discovery of new facts tending to establish the innocence of the condemned man, quite distinctly and without reference to or assistance from all the revelations of many months past, which have thrown so much light upon the judicial error of 1894, and which have caused such profound emotion and excitement throughout the country.

"It is not possible that you, above all others, should not be struck by the following facts: First, there is the examination of the Borearea, which was made in the trial of January of this year. The results of this examination were not communicated to me.

MANITOBA WHEAT HARVEST.

Weather Not Favorable for Threshing and Stacking.

Montréal, Sept. 5.—(Special.)—Mr. H. Meighen, the president of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, received the following telegram this morning from Mr. W. A. Haskins, the vice-president of the company, who has been making a tour of the province: "Fully 90 per cent. of the Manitoba crop has been cut, and about 50 per cent. in the territories. Weather showery throughout the wheat country, preventing threshing and stacking. Very little stacking done except in the Mennonite country. Can expect no deliveries with present weather."

Another telegram from the west this morning stated that the first deliveries of wheat have been received by the Lake of the Woods Milling Company at Greena and Akona, in the Mennonite reserve. The wheat has been forwarded to the mills at Keewatin.

London, Sept. 5.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times, who has just paid a visit to Niu-Chwang, the Province of Manchuria, a terminus of the proposed railway extension, the contract for building which has been at issue between the Russian and British Governments, says:

"The Russians are acting there quite regardless of the rights of Englishmen and others, and as if the place belonged to them."

According to a despatch to the Daily Mail from Shanghai, it is rumored there that the British fleet is under orders to rendezvous at Niu Chwang.
