43RD YEAR

NO. 17965

THE ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1906. -TEN PAGES.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

"To the committee?"

will incriminate myself."

others.'

"No."

"Who to?"

"Who else?"

"Five dollars."

"No one."

election?

"No, I was not on the committee."

"Mr. McBride, the Beal boys and

"Car fare, refreshments and the like."

"You knew this was against the

"You were an agent under the law,"

"I will not answer any questions that

"If you tell the truth you will be pro-

"What did you do with the $35?" ask.

"Is it a dead sure thing that I have

"Well, I paid some money for votes."

"A man named McLaren."

"A man named McKernan."

"Is that all you paid?"

"All I paid directly."

"The same bunch.

money to vote right?"

"Who from?"

"I don't know. About $20."

"It came in a mysterious way."

Bert Beal about it, but I can't say."

"Who did you speak to about it?"

"I might have spoken to Arthur or

"You reported to the committee whom

"Very mysterious all this," said the Conservatives Offered Bribe.

"I was offered $15 not to vote in a

"Did you offer a man named Gives

"Yes, I offered him $15. He told me the Tories had offered him $10, and I

E. Downing was seen by Oscar

Woonton and another man about his

The stranger told him he would put left in Oscar Woonton's hands. Jerry

Collins paid the money after the election. At the hotel witness met Tom

Lewis, and asked him if Woonton was

Collins and another man was upstairs.

Collins said about the witness: "This fellow belongs to Sifton's gang," but Collins finally agreed to pay him, and charge up the amount to Sifton's ac-the deputy, Alex. Milne, had opened the

to see Jerry Collins. Witness did so, and he saw Jerry and another man, a

(Continued on Page Eight.)

tall man with a gray mustache.

Witness declared that when he voted said I would go him $5 better, but if he

"How much did you give him?"

"Who did you pay indirectly?"

"I think a man named Williams, F

"Who arranged that you should buy

"How often did you do this work?"

"In the local and the bye-elections."

"Who did you bribe in the local elec-

"What money did you get in the Beck said the magistrate. "Who did you

"Who was on the committee?"

"What expenses did you have?"

THOUSANDS OF MADDENED NEGROES STORM BIG PHILADELPHIA PLAYHOUSE

Panic in the Heart of the Quaker City Over Drama of the South, Written by a of stealing a quantity of liquor from a Minister—Police Reserves Have Fierce Battle With Rioters.

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.-Rioting by mousands of negroes was caused las night by a production of the Rev. Thomas Dixon's play, "The Clansman." Before its was ended panic reigned inside the Walnut Street Theater, where was on. Car service to the central part of the city was stopped, were broken, and scores of blacks were badly beaten up. Several went to hospitals, and a number were

A committee of ministers called upon Jayor Weaver yesterday to protest against the play and thousands of negroes in the negro section, calling upon them to march upon the theater and stop the play by force. Recent lynchings in the south were attributed MARITAL MIXUP to it.

arrested

By 8 o'clock 3,000 negroes filled the streets, and two squads of reserve police from the city hall had all they could do to protect the theatergoers. It was not long after the curtain went up that a fight began in the gallery, and George Bwersdorf Tells His Ex- Manager of Vaudeville Theater down into the street came a negro, his head and face streaming with blood. "Rush the theater," the crowd cried, but just then 100 more police charged

While the trouble was at its height. ministers, who joined them, managed which he pleaded not guilty.

inside to see the play.

RED HAT FOR FARLEY

States, It Is Said.

States has been definitely settled, and that Archbishop Farley will be raised legal wife. to that dignity at the coming December consistory, along with Mgr. Bourne, the Archbishop of Westminster, a German prelate and possibly a Spanish prelate.

BANWELL AFTER PAROLE

Liberated From Prison.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—A petition asking London, Oct. 23. — Married with all mitted.

for the release on parole of E. St. the pomp New York's society could in answer to Mr. Cowan, counsel for for the release on parele of E. St. the pomp New Tork's society of Mr. Cowan, counsel for the release on parele of E. St. the pomp New Tork's society of Mr. Driscoll, Sergt. McGuire said that he had not measured the exact space. tence of four years, in Kingston Peni- Duchess of Marlborough, is ready to left between the chairs and the wall, tence of four years, in Kingston Peni-tentiary for the theft of over $40,000 separate from her husband. Disagree-from the Crown Bank, has been signed from the Crown Bank, has been signed months have reached a culmination, and the disagreements is said by Banwell and Mrs. Banwell, and will the cause of the disagreements is said taken up by the persons who occube presented to prominent people, some to be a young woman guest of the pied the chairs. The chairs, he said, of whom employed Banwell, for their duchess, who received the attentions pied the chairs, he said, signatures. It will, when completed, of Marlborough. be sent to E rl Grey, Governor-General of Canada.

THE U. P. STORM-SWEPT

Wyoming State.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 23. - Cheyenne, dispelled these thoughts. Wyoming, this morning reported that Consuelo, Duchess of Marlborough, disaster in Chicago. a storm which has continued there for likes country life. When her father re- Mr. Cowan submitted that the three days without interruption, is rag- fused to countenance the extravagance ater had been built with twice as many ing with increasing fury, accompanied of the duke, and the latter wanted to exits as the law required, and that the by a heavy fall of snow. The Union dispose of the country seat, Blenheim, aisles had also been left wider than Pacific Railway is trying to keep its the duchess refused to sanction it. She the rule prescribed, so that extra seats line open with snowplows, and pas- remained there with the two children, could be put in. senger trains are arriving several hours the Marquis of Blanford and Lord Ivor

London, Oct. 23.—The reassembling of Parliament today drew large crowds to Westminster, despite the fact that the opening of the sessions was devoid of sumptuous ceremony or the appearance of royalty, as this was merely a resumption of the business of the last session

British House Reopens.

The formal opening of the House of Commons occurred this afternoon, and before the House of Lords, thus giving the throngs of spectators an opportunity to witness the assembling of both bodies. Ambassador Reid occupied a seat in the diplomatic gallery of the House of Commons, with the French, Russian, Spanish and other ambassadors and ministers. The public galleries were overflowing with visitors. Mr. Balfour, the ex-premier, who it was thought would not be present, unexpectedly appeared and received a hearty greeting from the Op-

Joseph Chamberlain was absent. He is still nursing his attack of gout, and chafing under his inability to participate in public affairs. Premier Campbell-Bannermen was warmly welcomed perience With a Divorced Wife.

AIRED IN COURT

Rather a complicated matrimonial

It is said that in McKeesport, Pa., promising not to repeat the offense. ranged for today, and announced to the with a woman who had quite a wide witness called, told of visiting Bennett's mayor of Moncton has convinced him with a woman who had quite a wide witness called, told of visiting Bennett's mayor of Moncton has convinced him ridently bennetty b usband died, and she was divorced west side set close to the regula

Another Cardinalate Slated for United until at last Bwersdorf is said to have opposite the exit. On the steps in the boys and girls in the South London had received information from London Lewis?" asked Mr. DuVernet. New York, Oct. 23.—The Tribune says mately located him in this city. They two men were sitting. On the east the care of the society at one time, and right man had been arrested. today that private advices received in again came to an agreement and started side no one was sitting in the exits. At consequently it means a heavy drain this city tend to confirm the report early last spring, and up till yesterday way, seventeen persons were standing. the 29 little ones, twelve are girls. In current in ecclesiastical circles for when Bwersdorf's lawful wife came to This passage, the witness said, was the Catholic Orphanage on Richmond some weeks past that the matter of town and swore out a warrant for his about six feet wide, and he thought street north there are also four chilanother cardinalate for the United arrest, no one ever suspected but that that it was not much obstructed by the dren, who were placed there through Bwersdorf had been living with his presence of the seventeen men.

> has been living has a family of small and west aisles, reducing the space to Society, the police magistrate having ments yesterday, I believed him," Mr. did not speak to him." children.

of the court will be given. MARLBOROUGHS PART?

Duchess Have Separated.

William R. Vanderbilt, whose mar-riage to Mrs. Rutherford a few years ago dissolved the hopes of Mar borough of ever controlling the Vanderbit millions, figures in the gossp of the cause ence of his patrons; but the bylaw, of separation. The duke had dreams of which was intended to prevent the No Let-Up to Three Days' Blizzard in entering politics, perhaps becoming placing of obstructions such as chairs, viceroy of India, and buying back the etc., in the aisles, had been passed for years. W. K. Vanderbilt's marriage had been prompted to the passing by late. Freight traffic has been abandon- Spencer Churchill, while the duke spent Telegraph wires are down east of weeks and months elsewhere. The North Platt, Neb., and west to Raw-children are perhaps the only cause bylaw No. 2419, which relates to of preventing a separation long ago. TREASURE SHIP IS OVERDUE:

Shipment Aboard, May Have Foundered.

Arabistan is now several days five to seven days. believe the ship is all right, and will ship was caught by it

SS. Arabistan, With Big Gold soon appear. The Arabistan, besides a each and every performance, service or New York, Oct. 23. — The British have crossed the Caribbean Sea in from ance, service, exhibition, lecture, con-

San Juan, Porto Rico. Nor- Lucia, a hurricane tore across the Car- stools, sofas, settees, or obstructions of ton & Co., the agents here, say they ibbean Sea, and there is some fear the any kind in such aisles or corridors on such occasions."

AISLES MUST NOT BE OBSTRUCTED

in Court—Let Go With a Warning.

mixup was aired at the police court Bennett's Vaudeville Theater, appeared several years. Director of Public Safety McKenty and this morning, when George Bwersdorf, swer to a charge of violating a city a decade ago, and when last heard from he was not the man wanted, and he who was arrested yesterday by Detec- bylaw, by allowing seats to be placed he was working at Moncton. His bro- showed that crown prosecutors were Shoyer, pushed through and gained the tives Nickle and Rider, appeared in the in the theater aisles. After hearing ther in this city had not heard from both hasty and unreasonable. theater steps. They and three negro dock on a charge of nonsupport, to the evidence, the magistrate found the him for a considerable period, and on experience in the matrimonial line, Vaudeville Theater on the evening of that such is not the case. probable that the press agent will be having been married twice. Her first finding eight chairs in the aisle on the able property was damaged caused by from her second husband. She then leaving a small space, about 18 inches, stones, and hardly a handful remained went to live with a man, to whom, it is between the chairs and the wall. He Largest Number on Record Now in the alleged, she was not married, and finally then examined the aisle on the east side, and found there about the same From McKeesport Bwersdorf and the number of chairs placed in the same woman zent to Toledo, where they position. The chairs reached back on woman vent to Toledo, where they position. The chairs reached such that one chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and wife for some time, the west side so far that one chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the Children's Aid Society has now 29 and the chair was the chair left her without warning. But she was south exit on the west side a lady and Shelter. not to be shaken so easily as he a gentleman were sitting, and on the thought, for she followed him and ulti- steps of the north exit on the same side This is the largest number ever in case of John O'Meara, but that the plied. to keep house on Hill street. That was the rear of the partition, in the passage- on the funds of the organization. Of

The case was adjourned until the sitting on the steps in the gallery, but every week for their board.

Ex-Bank Cashier Will Petition To Be London Rumor That the Duke and that the performance was nearly over are suitable places for the little ones and that he did not care whether he moved the chairs or not, but that a breach of the bylaw had been com-were all common, little wooden chairs. The magistrate pointed out that Mr. estates the family had lost in other the safety of the public, and the city the measure by the Iroquois Theater

The Law in the Case. The magistrate then read section 4, churches, theaters, halls, and other buildings used for places of worship, public meetings, or places of amusement, as follows: The aisles, stairways or passages in WAS IN PATH OF HURRICANE every theater, church or other public building, shall be kept free from camp stools, chairs, sofas, hinged seats or other obstruction whatever, and during miscellaneous cargo, carried $300,000 in meeting, the doors of all exits theregold, and 70 men. On her way from from shall be and remain unlocked and Buenos Ayres for New York, she stop- without any catch or latch of any kind, ped at St. Lucia for coal. She sailed and no person shall be allowed to for San Juan on Oct. 12, and should stand in or occupy any aisle, passage-way or stairway, during any performcert or public assemblage of any kind; After the Arabistan sailed from St. nor shall there be any chairs, camp-

TWO MONTHS FOR SYDES

Thorndale Hotel Porter Sentenced for Stealing Liquor.

John Sydes, the Thorndale man who recently pleaded guilty to the charge hotel at that place, was this morning sentenced to two months at hard labor by Judge Elliott. The judge stated that owing to extenuating circumstances he O'MEARA TO DEMAND REDRESS had decided to impose a very light sentence. Sydes saved the county much expense by pleading guilty to the charge. It was also his first offense. Henry George, the Indian who is alleged to have stolen a bicycle, will be brought up for trial tomorrow at 11 a.m. before Judge Elliott.

TWO MEDAL-WINNERS

Miss Pearl Jackson and J. G. Althouse Take Beck and Gibbons Prizes.

It has just been announced by the education department that Miss Pearl annually donated by Hon. Adam Beck and elected to be tried by jury. for the student of the London Collegiate Institute who has taken the highest marks on Part II. Senior Teachers' Examination.

Alan Gibbons' memorial medal for the student of the Collegiate Institute who has stood highest at the junior matriculation examination.

NOT MOHAN'S REMAINS

Mr. Philip Mohan, of 518 Piccadilly Mr. George F. Driscoll, manager of ton Mohan, who has been missing for charge proven, but allowed defendant reading in the papers recently of the to go without paying a fine upon his finding of a skeleton in the woods, he prosecutor and his assistant entered Bwersdorf left his legal wife to live | Sergt. McGuire, who was the only brother. However, the letter from the

POPULATION IS GROWING

Children's Aid Shelter.

Inspector Sanders stated today that don.

the efforts of the society. Three of In the gallery, the sergeant found these come from one house in the city, trate. The woman with whom Bwersdorf three chairs placed in each of the east but they are not a charge on the Aid eighteen inches. He also found one man ordered the father to pay a fixed sum DuVernet said, "but we are going

Driscoll, who told him that they had receipt of applications for children from leged contraductions in O'Meara's evi- Hea. turned 300 persons away, and that if all parts of the western peninsula, but dence, which he intimated were conhe was not satisfied with the seats be- before any of them are granted a very victing. ing in the aisles he would have them careful investigation is conducted to moved. The sergeant told Mr. Driscoll ascertain if the proposed foster homes

ROYAL AUTO HITS MAN

His Majesty Runs Down Pedestrian ort Road to Newmarket.

London, Oct. 23.-King Edward was of the city limits, sustained a very evidently aware that the proceedings severe fall the other day. in Parliament would be devoid of any Mr. Sanders was shingling a house important features, as he left Buckingham Palace in an automobile at noon. to spend the rest of the week at the a bundle of material to the ridge of Newmarket races. The car knocked the building, when he missed his footsulted from the accident.

THE WEATHER

TOMORROW-UNSETTLED; RAIN.

Toronto, Oct. 22-8 p.m. Light scattered showers have occurred in Ontario today, while elsewhere in Canada fair weather has prevailed, and temarature charges have a constant of the control of the changes have as a rule been unimportant. Minimum and maximum temperatures: Minimum and maximum temperatures:

Dawson, 24—48; Atlin, 40—44; Port Simpson, 42—54; Vancouver, 32—53; New Westminster, 32—54; Kamloops, 28—46; Calgary, 28—58; Qu'Appelle, 28—52; Minnedosa, 28—52; Port Arthur, 22—40; Parry Sound, 32—56; Toronto, 44—52; Ottawa, 40—42; Montreal, 38—44; Quebec, 38—44; St. John, 34—54; Hallifax, 36—54.

FORECASTS. Tuesday, Oct. 22-8 a.m. Today-Northerly winds and fair.

Wednesday winds, and I	probably ra	ain.	t and ea
T	EMPERAT	URES.
		Min.	Weathe
algary	34	28	Clean
Vinnipeg	16	14	Clear
ert Arthur.	30	28	Fair
Parry Sound	34	34	Fair
coronto	46	42	Fair
ttawa	42	40	Fair
Montreal	44	42	Clou
Quebec	40	36	Clou
father Point	36	26	Clou

WEATHER NOTES." Rain fell locally yesterday in Ontario, and quite generally in the Province of Quebec. The weather continues fine and mild in the Western Provinces. A discontinuous forming in the Missessian turbance now forming in the Missouri Valley will cause unsettled weather and probably gales on the lakes.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES. The highest registration at the London weather bureau yesterday was 57°; lowest 46° above.

LEWIS RELEASED ON $10,000 BAIL

Surety and One of Brother.

Crown Prosecutors Again Assert That He Is the Right Man-May Be a Suit.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Toronto, Oct. 23.—Tom Lewis was given his freedom this morning, when brother, John Lewis, of London, for $5,-000, was accepted by the court.

Yesterday afternoon Lewis was arraigned before Magistrate Denison on a Jackson is the winner of the gold medal charge of perjury, pleaded not guilty, Magistrate Kingsford refused to allow bail, but later the crown, after a vigorous protest by Mr. Robinette, John G. Althouse is the winner of the agreed to accept bail in $10,000.

It has been learned that it was Mr. Eric Armour, who has been assisting the crown prosecutor, Mr. DuVernet, who laid the information against Mr. John O'Meara, of London, charging that gentleman with having been mixed up in an impersonation case at Brantford, Ont., in the Heid-Henry election of Mr. Armour's connection with the street, has received a letter from Mayor making of the charge may result in a Lewis promised to leave the money these men?" Steeves, of Moncton, N. B., which sat- suit for damages being entered against with Forbes. isfies him that the remains found re- him, as it is understood Mr. O'Meara cently in the woods near that place has placed the matter in the hands of are not those of his brother, John Wal- Mr. T. C. Robinette, K.C., with instructions to demand redress at once.

The eagerness with which the crown thought possibly it might be that of his into the arrest of O'Meara and the utter collapse of this case has made ridiculous here.

It is said that some "wise ones" in that they are accused of making a mis- was again placed on the stand. take," said Mr. DuVernet. "They are positive he is the right man."

"If what you say is true, O'Meara with him or who it was paid him. committed perjury," said the magis-

"When he made his positive statealong with the case." afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the decision of the saked witness his name, afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the decision of the court will be given.

The Children's Aid is almost daily in Mr. Duvernet also referred to all the court will be given.

The Children's Aid is almost daily in Mr. Duvernet also referred to applications for children from leged contraductions to C'Morre's on the sate of the got $35 for his around. Lewis asked witness his name, and he then told him to go upstairs.

FELL FORTY FEET

Contractor, However, Sustained Nothing More Than Shaking Up.

Mr. Richard Sanders, a contractor, who lives on the Hamilton road, east at London Junction, and was carrying the line fence and a quantity of building material. The bundle of shingles which Mr. Sanders was carrying also fell, but fortunately did not strike him. He was removed to his home, where it was found that he had received a severe shaking up, but had not sustain- Former London Lady Survives Man Who Stood By Capt. Drey-

SHIFTING THE TRACKS

Line of Street Railway Near Coves Is Being Moved.

Springbank line of the street railway company, west of Railway street.

The land all along used by the street railway at that point is needed by the Grand Trunk in the elevation of its tracks, and in its place the company is given a strip immediately to the south, which will serve the purpose just as well At the point where the land was secured by the Grand Trunk the road is to be over twenty feet above the old track level, which means that the work could joining lots in the same cemetery. not be proceeded with unless the adjoining strip was secured.

As far as the shifting of the street railway tracks is concerned, it will occupy with the large gang of men that are

Crown Witness Declares Conservatives Offered $15

The Crown Accepts Personal To Keep Him Away From the Polls-More Ten-Dollar Stories at Toronto Inquiry-This Morning's Evidence.

[From Our Own Reporter.]

Toronto, Oct. 23.-John Trawley was the first witness examined in the London election investigatian this morning. Trawley swore he got $9 50 in the Hyman-Gray election, and $5 in the Beck-Rumball election. Collins made William Serviss for the latter. Witness said he had intended voting for pay money to?"

Hyman anyway. At this point, Mr. DuVernet asked that Serviss, who he said had been tected, you are a crown witness," said the magistrate. "If you commit perresubpoenaed and had not put in an jury you will be prosecuted." appearance, should be called three times and that a warrant should be ed the magistrate.

to answer that question?' "Is he out of the country?" asked the

"No." said Mr. Armour, "we understand he came part of the way to Toronto this morning." John Orr said he got $10 for staying away from the polls. A man named Lewis had called upon him and made Ottawa, formerly of London, paid the money, he said. Lewis was alone gave him money for someone." when the arrangements were made.

"Was it Tom Lewis who saw you?" "I don't know."

James Heal swore he got $10. Jerry Collins paid over the money at the tion?" Hotel Normandy. Witness got $5 in the Mr. O'Meara proved conclusively that general election, and $5 in the Beck-Rumball election.

"Would you have voted for Hyman if you had got no money in the last election?" asked Mr. Robinette. "Yes."

Walter Osborne, of West London, go $5 from Jerry Collins some time ago. Witness wo ks in Hyman's tannery bought.

James Dewar said he was seen by London who have been looking after Oscar Woonton about his vote previous magistrate. for the giving of the "tip" to Mr. Ar- to see Alex Milne at the committee don," said the witness. mour which resulted in O'Meara's ar- rooms, saying 'hat there was money rest. The crown prosecutor was com- for him there. Witness did not see pelled to apologize to Mr. O'Meara, Milne at the rooms but a man he did Hyman-Carling election. "The Conand pay his expenses to and from Lon- not know. It was not Tom Lewis, servatives offered me the money." Witness got $10 from a man whom he (Laughter).

that no mistake had been made in the 'A brother-in-law," the witness re-Alex. Thompson, a witness who was had accepted it, I would not have given "The people in London who will give kept over from yesterday because his it. I was making a bluff at him."

us the information are much incensed evidence did not please Mr. DuVernet Thompson swore he did not know vote, who told him there was a tenwho it was made the arrangements spot in it if he voted right.

"You were talking to Tom Lewis this $10 in an envelope for him, and it was morning," Mr. DuVernet said. "I was not," the witness replied.

Andrew Robinson swore he got no money for his vote. He got $35 for his

"Who gave you the money?" "I don't know."

"How did you get it?" "It was put in my coat pocket." "Where was your coat when the money was put in?"

"On my body." "You knew what the money was

"Yes." "You expected it?" "Yes, I made a report of my ex- magistrate.

"Who did you report to?" "I don't know." "You know James Malloch?"

"No." "You reported to him?"

down a man as the King was leaving town, but no serious consequences resulted from the accident. In the trace of about 40 feet. He dropped into the adjoining yard, and in doing so missed. THE REAPER CAME | GEN. PICQUART AS PREDICTED at it.

Life-Long Friend But a Few Hours.

A dispatch from Detroit says: Mrs. Jennette Falkner, of London, Ont., is dead at the home of one of net has ben completed as follows: her sons in Fairview, a suburb of De-A gang of Grand Trunk laborers this troit. Mrs. Falkner, who was 70 years morning started the task of shifting the of age, had lived the greater part of her life in London. Next door to her lived Mrs. Kinsel, 69 years of age. The women had been close friends for many saigne. years, and each had said she would not survive the death of the other. Upon one of Mrs. Falkner's sons telephoning Pichon. to relatives in London, the news of the death of his mother he was told Mrs. Kinsel had died very suddenly only six hours before. The funeral of the two will be held in London on the same day, and they will be buried on ad-

Mrs. Falkner was for a long period a resident of the east end of the city, living for many years on Queen's avenue, near Ontario street, and later on only a very short time, and will in no Elizabeth street and Adelaied street. A way interfere with street railway traf- few years since she moved to Detroit fic, but the filling in of the huge em- to live with her son, Mr. Wm. Falkner,

(Continued on Page Eight.)

corner of the ballot and had looked "Who did you vote for?" asked the "Charley Hyman," the witness replied. Charles Johnston was told by Joseph Hardy to go to the committee-rooms fus Taken Into the New French Cabinet.

MINISTER OF WAR

Paris, Oct. 23 .- The new French cab!-

Premier and Minister of the Interior -M. Clemenceau.

Minister of Justice-M. Guyot-Des-Minister of Foreign Affairs - M

Minister of Education-M. Briand.

Minister of Finance-M Callaux Minister of War-General Picquart. Minister of Marine-M. Thomson. Minister of Public Works-M. Bar-

Minister of Commerce-M. Doumera

Minister of Agriculture-M. Ruau. Minister of Labor-M. Viviani. The portfolio of minister of the colbankment will take some weeks, even who is employed in a photographic onies was offered this afternoon to M.