Cynthia Grey's

Mail-Box

As it's give' me to perceive, I most certin'y believe, When a man's jist glad plum through, God's pleased with him, same as mine, hoping someone will be helped by Ans.—Thank you for coming with so nuch help on your first visit, Crystopas.

Dear Miss Grey,—Some time ago I saw in your valuable page where Old Sixty—Six would tell anyone how to raise turkeys, so am enclosing a self-stamped envelope to be forwarded to her. Also would like to know what to put on would like to know what to put on cabbage plants to keep the worms off them gives its fragrance. The strawberries are getting ripe and say, they're just lovely with cream—the wild berries, I mean. I wonder if any of the pageites can furnish me with words of a song of which this is part. I know the tune,

Papa, what will you take for me?

My address is with Miss Grey. Wil close with a recipe. We think it's good.

Poor Man's Pudding—One egg, ½ cup of sugar. ½ cup of shortening, ¾ cup

If somebody wanted to buy me,

What would you take for me?

but have forgotten the words:

you.
—James Whitcombe Riley.

PAGE OF INTEREST

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

TELL IT TO THE SOCIETY EDITOR

Mrs. O'Neail and Mr. Harry O''Neail I. O. D. E., and others, including Mrs. of Paris were in the city on Monday Humphrey, Mrs. Gordon Hunt. Mrs. attending the O'Neail-Martin wedding. Gerald Pearson, Miss Mona Wilson, Miss Maggie Clark of Armley, Leeds, England, after an absence of several years is visiting Mrs. James Y. Foster, John street.

ronto, where she captured high honors.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Clara E., to Mr. Harold A. Tanton of this city, the marriage to take place June 30th.

At Knox Church, Guelph, on Saturday, June 12. Miss Etta May Harper, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Harper of Guelph, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Clarence Ruther-riston, Ont., wish to announce the ensagement of their youngest daughter, Marie Isabel, to Dr. Charles McGibbon Porter, Toronto. The marriage will take

The Brantford ladies' golf team will play a match with the local ladies on the Hunt Club links on Friday afterneon. The visitors will arrive at 12:30 o'clock noon, when lunch will be served. Prior to their leaving at 6 o'clock they will be the guests at tea.

Those intending to attend must notify the scene of a pretty garden party yesterday afternoon held in aid of the Grenfel mission. By 4 o'clock the sun had definitely decided to shine for the occasion, showing up the old garden in all its beauty, and before the afternoon was over; the grounds literally swarmed with guests in pretty summer attire. The result was the netting of over $150 for the mission.

Mrs. Becher was a gracious hostess, receiving her guests as they arrived, assisted by Mrs. A. T. Little, in a pretty.

The bride wore a suit of pavy tricolette.

On Wednesday of last week a quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. Ont., when their only daughter, Harriet Ann, was united in marriage to son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Toronto.

ing been arranged by Miss Minnie Ray-mond and Mrs. Grant Harris. To the delight of the children, there was the handsomest of ponies and fascinating cart, in which they drove about the grounds and incidentally added a few more pennies to the mission fund. Tea was served on pretty tables arranged out on the green, Mrs. George Reid and Mrs. Coffey officiating at the principal table, assisted by mem-bers of the Princess Patricia Chapter.

Gifts to Women

the makers for a list of aluminum

Montreal. On their return they will reside on Cruse street, St. Thomas.

Montreal. On their return they will reside on Cruse street, St. Thomas.

Moran—Noyle.

Jiffy-Jell is the one dessert which has the fruit flavors in vials. A bottle of condensed fruit-juice essence comes in the package. So a Jiffy-Jell dessert is a real-fruit dainty. The flavor is not artificial. The sweetening is sugar, not saccharine. Women who once try it will always get it. Your grocer has ten flavors. Try pineapple and loganberry first.

Montreal. On their return they will reside on Cruse street, St. Thomas.

Montreal. On their return they will reside on Cruse street, St. Thomas.

Montreal. On their return they will reside on Cruse street, St. Thomas.

Montreal. On their return they will reside on Cruse street, St. Thomas.

Moran—Noyle.

On June 16. St. Joseph's Church, Corunna, was the scene of a very pretty dead by Peter at Joppa. She was a Christian disciple, who had made coats and garments for the poor. For this reason, church sewing societies, and the quently called Dorcas societies, and the quently called

Mrs. Eric Reid, Mrs. Charles Ivey and Mrs. Jeffery Hale, mother of Dr. Hale of Hayman Court, left yesterday for Metis Beach, Quebec, to spend the summer.

A fascinating table of home-made cakes, pies and rolls, was in charge of Mrs. McPherson, Mrs. Vining, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Clement and Miss Margery Reid. Another small table boasted the prettiest of artificial flowers for sale, and everywhere the tables had been made gay with peonies, Oriental poppies and John street.

Miss Rugie Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nicholls, is home after attending Bishop Strachan's school, To-

RUTHERFORD-HARPER.

ford, son of the late Mr. John W. Ruththe Rev. Dr. officiating.

FENTON-ROBERTSON.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place in Knox Presbyterian Church on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Capt. William H. Fenton, M.C., M.P.P., and Miss Amy B. Robertson, daughter of Robert Robertson. Garfield avenue, were united in marriage. Rev. T. A. Symington officiated.

During the ceremony Miss Anne Reputtey played the wedding music The o'clock they will be the guests at tea.
Those intending to attend must notify the steward previously.

"Thornwood," the beautiful home of Mrs. Becher on St. George street, was the scene of a pretty garden party Ontario.

Outring the ceremony Miss Anne Bentley played the wedding music. The bride was charming in a traveling suit of navy blue tricotine with hat to match. She had a corsage bouquet of Sweetheart roses. They will spend their honeymoon in the East, afterwards returning to reside in Tara, Ontario. Ontario.

JACKSON-HILL

Mrs. Becher was a gracious hostess, receiving her guests as they arrived, assisted by Mrs. A. T. Little, in a pretty white sport costume and large white hat, and Mrs. A. V. Becher also in white.

A delightful musical program, in which Mrs. A. T. Little, Mrs. Brown, Miss Ruth Kingsmill, Rev. G. Q. Warner and Mrs. Heuton took part, entertained the guests on their arrival, having been arranged by Miss Minnie Ray-

LAY-TELFER.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Tuesday, June 22, at 4 o'clock, when Elizabetr Beatrice (Lillie), youngwhen Elizabeth Beatrice (Lillie), youngest daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Telfer, was united in marriage to Mr. George Albert Lay, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lay, Myrtle street, St. Thomas, the Rev. W. J. Knox officiating. The bride looked charming in a traveling suit of navy blue and hat to match, and car-ried a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Miss Tessie Telfer, who wore a becoming gown of blue taffeta and pic-ture hat and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was attended by his brother. Mr. Charles Lay. After a dainty luncheon at the home of the bride's mother, 74 Albion street, the happy couple left by C. P. R. amid showers of confetti and good wishes for Toronto, Hamilton and On their return they will

Mrs. Charles Bryan Mr. and Mrs. Moran, showered with the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends, left by motor for Sarnia, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. Later the happy couple left by motor for Fort Frank and points east. They will be at home to their friends on June 23.

ELLIOTT-MILLER. The Moore Line Presbyterian Church was the scene of a pretty June wedding on Wednesday, June 16, when Hazel, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller, was united in marriage to Henry C. Elliott, son of the late Arthur Elliott and Mrs. Elliott, the Rev. Wm. Moore officiating.

Crystopas Comes With Helps.
Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first visit to your Mail-Box, and seeing so many nice, helpful letters, I wish to add Precisely at 1 o'clock, to the strains of the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin," the party entered the church, and took its place beneath a beautiful arch of the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin," the party entered the church, and ladies assisting in ladies chouse, hoping someone will be helped by reading it.

Retipping Shoe Laces.—Take a bit of copper wire, or any other wire strong enough, cut all ravelings from the shoe and inch below the end of the lace, until it covers the point of entrance, and push the wire back on the wire back on the wire back on the wire date.

Immaly

The guests then repaired to the home of the bride's mother, where a sumptuous wedding luncheon was served.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, among which was a handsome check from the managing board of the church, of which Miss Miller has been the organist for several years.

The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst of pearls; to the organist a pir set with pearls, and to the little flower girls, gold lockets.

The young couple left on the 3:30 train for points east, the bride traveling in a suit of navy tricotine. On their ing in a suit of navy tricotine. On their ing in a suit of navy tricotine. On their ing in a suit of navy tricotine. On their ing in a suit of navy tricotine. On their ing in a suit of navy tricotine. On their ing in a suit of navy tricotine.

Western Ontario Women's Activities

return Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will reside on Concession 12, Moore.

WOODSLEE EPWORTH LEAGUE
About forty of the young people or Woodslee Epworth League surprised Miss Edythe Couzens, one of their members, when they called upon her and presented her with a fountain pen and a handsome box of stationery on the eve of her departure from Woodslee.

Could any of the readers give me a recipe for fudge cake? Also dark drop cakes?

A.—I have no name on the list of Boxites as "Old Sixty-Six," but perhaps someone will come to your assistance through publishing your request.

I have always enjoyed the letters in your corner and box of the readers give me a recipe for fudge cake? Also dark drop cakes?

A.—I have no name on the list of Boxites as "Old Sixty-Six," but perhaps someone will come to your assistance through publishing your request.

your corner and have also received some help, too, although I don't write often. We have had lovely weather lately. So far June has been nice. I think it one of the best months of the year, with such lovely flowers in abundance, and now, too, the new mown hay gives its fragrance. The strawberries are getting ripe and say, they're just KERWOOD TRUE BLUES.
The True Blues of Kerwood have pledged themselves to raise a certain amount of money toward the new church and are consequently serving ice cream in Kerwood every Monday and Thursday to help raise the money.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

The quaintest and most charming of old-fashioned names is Dorcas, now re-garded as a Puritan name, but once in general and widespread usage. It signifies "a gazelle," and curiously its significance has become so much a part significance has become so much a part of the name that its phychic emanations would seem to influence its bearer toward modesty and shyness of bearing.

Dorcas comes from the Greek word which indicates the full, dark eye of the gazelle. St. Luke makes Dorcas identical with the Aramean Tabitha, another name very popular in Puritanical.

ago under the pen name of "Peggoty." but I noticed someone else had taken my name, so I dropped out, although I still always turn to your page first go.
I am writing you, asking you for that all wonderful stocking foot pattern.
Dear me, how many new pairs of stockngs it has saved.

ings it has saved.

I wonder if some of our Mail-Box readers with great big hearts will help me to amuse a little girl about 6 years old who has to lie in bed for the next six months or maybe longer. The doctor gives no definite length of time, but 1 hope soon to see these six months is the least, and she is such with answers in your valuable a dear, patient little thing. I was wona dear, patient little thing. I was wondering if some of the readers didn't have some laid aside picture books and dollies she could play wtih. I'll leave my address with Miss Grey and they can be forwarded to me. I thank you one and all kindly for anything you can or will do to help me entertain her. I'll sign presume.

A.—1. The bride and bridesmaid each have bouquets.

2. Yes, and the ring is given the groom by the best man.

3. Usually the bottom story.

4. The one used at the table, I would presume.

5. Yes. In slices. myself this time, HUMBUG.
A.—Have mailed pattern and rainy day suggestions sent in recently by Merry Mother, which may help amuse 5. Yes. In slices.

6. The bride's parents receive near y the door and the groom's parents in some conspicuous place further inside, and the bride and groom in the drawthe little girl. I am sure other Box-ites will have something to send her, but would suggest that they write to the Mail-Box for your address, Hum-8. Ring

A.—1. The bride and bridesmaid each

Veranda Chats. Here I come again, and this is my bug, and then parcels can be mailed

Wedding Queries. -Dear Miss Grey,-I am a stranger, but am going to risk peeping into your page, which is and has been of such interest to me, and I know others, too, have been benefitted by your careful answers to their questions. So, it has given me a little more courage to try.
May I please ask a few questions?

1. Could you please tell me, at a wedding, if the bride has a flower girl, again. Now for a few questions. Should is she, herself, supposed to carry a bouquet, or is the bridesmaid to carry a bouquet?

2 Is the model.

is she, herself, supposed to carry a bouquet, or is the bridesmaid to carry a bouquet?

2. Is the wedding ring placed in the basket of flowers carried by the flower girl? And is the flower girl supposed to hand the ring to the minister?

3. Should the whole wedding cake be placed on the table, or just the bottom story?

4. When placing in the cake the thimble, button and ring, in which story should they be put?

5. Is the bride supposed to cut the cake on the table before her guests? How should it be cut, in slices or in pie shape?

6. Should the bride receive her guests at the door with the husband? pie shape?
6. Should the bride receive her guests at the door with the husband?
7. At a reception, should the bride is optional.

wear her wedding dress for that occa-8. Please tell me what the symbol of each is when found in the bride's cake -thimble, ring, button.

9. Does the bridesmaid have to do 9. Does the bridesmaid have to do or say anything during the ceremony?
Could someone please send me a few crochet patterns and I will leave my address with you. Miss Grey?
Hope you won't feel too cross at me being so inquisitive for my first call,

YOUR OLD CARPETS Made into new, beautiful, fluffy, reversible rugs. CANADA RUG COMPANY 68 Carling Street. Send for Leaflet.

> Choice Flowers

For the Graduations.

West Floral Co. PHONE 2187. 249 DUNDAS ST. ROYAL MILLINERY CO.

Announce for

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

A Most Extraordinary Sale of

465 Beautifully Trimmed

SUMWER HATS

Trimmed and Tailored Panamas Trimmed and Tailored Milans

Trimmed and Tailored Leghorns Trimmed and Tailored Malines

Trimmed and Tailored Sport Hats and the new Satin Tams

ALL ON SALE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY AT

$1.95

This is without doubt, the biggest Millinery offer made this season, for you can choose from a great assortment of new MID-SUMMER HATS. Most of these Hats are worth double the selling price.

-Oh, Man! Hop to These

Straws and Panamas

Summer

Right now is the time to secure your Straw Hat or Panama. Stocks are at their best. Step in today and take a heavy load off your Sit under a Royal Sailor or Panama and smile.

Our entire stock of Men's Straws and Sailors to clear at one price Friday and Satur-

$2.95 WHAT'S YOUR SIZE?

WE HAVE IT!

OPEN EVENINGS

246 DUNDAS STREET

See the New Blouses

Many Exclusive Designs Received This Week

Dozens and Dozens of Beautiful New Georgettes

You will like the new exclusive designs in georgette that have just arrived. They feature the chic summer effects that everyone will want. You will find lots of styles to choose from and in addition they come in all sizes. Lots of pretty whits georgettes to wear with a white satin or tricolette skirt. Expensive laces and cluster tucking vie with each other in making these blouses most attractive. Dozens of other pretty designs are on display in pink, peach, sand, apricot, etc. All Sizes, Tomorrow, $7.50 Up.

NEVER BEFORE HAVE WE BEEN ABLE TO OFFER SUCH A WONDERFUL SHOWING OF CREPE DE MER WEAR.

The over-blouse effect is charmingly used on new models, which are embellished with embroidery solidly worked. A feature of our showing of crepe de chines is the variety of neck lines and colors Tailored, semi-tailored and dressy effects. Long and short-sleeved models are

> All sizes. Priced From $6.50 Up.

New and Smart Tricolette Blouses at $17.50 and $20 in over-blouse style with round neck and short sleeves. The colors are white, wine, sand, etc. Sizes 34 to 48.

On Sale At $17.50 and $20.

Beautiful Blouses In Great Profusion See Our Display Tomorrow

Nineteen Stores

Dundas

Advertiser Patterns Owing to the pattern manufacturers increasing the price of patterns to us, all patterns advertised from this date will be 15 CENTS EACH.

I saw in last Saturday's paper where Beauless Seventeen wished very much to see the finish of "Revelations of a Wife." I am not reading it. so do not know where it ended in the Tiser, but we get it in the town paper, and I have all the June numbers, so if she cares to send me her name and pay the postage. I will save and send them to her each week till finished.

GRANDMA.

A Pleasing Frock for Mother's Girl.

Pattern 3159 is here depicted. It is cut in 4 sizes: 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. For a 6-year size 3½ yards of 27-inch material will be required. Percale, ging-ham, chambrey, lawn, challie, serge and gabardine are attractive for this style.

As here illustrated dotted blue and white printed voile was used.

A pattern of this illustration mailed

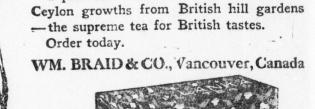

As here illustrated dotted blue and white printed voile was used.

A pattern of this illustration mailed I am really needing help from some to any address on r your Cosy Corner readers, but I in silver or stamps. to any address on receipt of 15 cents hope I will not trouble them much. I would like to have the words of these two songs, "The Old Plaid Shaw!" and "Let the Rest of the World Roll By." I am sending 10 cents for the hospital fund.

AN IRISH COLLEEN.

Tea-time joy That afternoon cup of Lanka! Refreshing, stimulating, every sip a pleasure! Blended from the choicest dog would be much happier in a cosy home with a kind master and lots to lie down too, so the whole three of them eat, but wandering dogs dislike such privileges, and find as much joy out of funny thing to do they all laughed cut-

Club News

Province

Provi

THE THREE TRAMPS.
PART ONE.

There was Herble the Hound, Freddie the Foxterrier and Sammy the Spaniel, three wandering dogs. Now, a wandering dog is a dog that has no home and travels from place to place, eating where he can and what he can, making friends with very few and not wanting to be made friends with. It's a strange life for a dog and one would think a dog would be much happier in a cosy