This is my record for the last eight racing days. If you have been 'bumped' trying to guess the winners and have come to the conclusion that the racing game is a farce and cannot be beaten, wake up; one week's trial will convince you that Dan Hart is in the "know" and knows what is doing each day. Why bet your good coin on dead ones when you can get my sterling information for so small amount? Rube Waddell, the St. Louis Browns' crack southpaw, fractured two ribs by falling down the steps of the Broadway Hotel, in Sparta, Ill., Wednesday, according to a report from that town. Waddell for the last two weeks has been hunting in the neighborhood of Sparta. The official batting and fielding averages of the New York State League players show that while there are eight men with a batting average of more than .300, there are only three with an average between .280 and .300. Eagan, the Utica catcher, who was purchased by Connie Mack for the Philadelphia Americans, leads the league in batting with .386 for .86 games. The others of the .300 class are Killingsworth of Albany. .333 for 28 games; Lawler of Elmira, .330 for 113 games; McCormick of Syracuse, .324 for .99 games; Howard of Scranton, .305 for 24 games; Goode of Troy, .305 for 129 games, and Madden of Utica, .302 for 127 games.

According to a Chicago despatch the American Association war talk has cropped out again when it was learned that attempts were being made to get the plot of ground at Jackson Boulevard and Kedzie, known as Chutes' Park, as the home for a big league baseball park. Alderman Johnny Powers is said to be back of the proposition, representing large traction interests. The scheme to move one of the American Association clubs into Chicago was thought to be buried until the meeting of the National Commission in Cincinnation Jan. 4, but to-day's reports make it certain Joe O'Brien's end of the bolting minors is doing a bit of scouting so as to be ready for action in case war is declared.
