ALLIES CONTINUE DRIVE IN DOBRUDJA

Pursue Von Mackensen Along Entire Front of Province.

HOLD ENEMY IN WEST.

Roumanians Gain Some Ground in Buzeu Valley Action.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.

London, Noy. 7.—Von Mackensen is continuing his retreat on the Dobrudja front before the combined advance of the Russians and the Roumanians.

The allies have instituted a general march forward. It is believed that they are in much superior force to the army of the German Field Marshal. Von Mackensen is believed to have weakened his command in order to send aid to the Bulgarians fighting in Macedonia. and also to aid the Germans and the Austrians engaged in the Dobrudja.

The Roumanians have also after heavy fighting resumed their advance in the region of the Buzeu Valley, and they have made some slight gains. In the region of the River Alt, in the Red Tower Pass, the Roumanians are engaged in a heavy action. The Germans claim that in this region they have made progress and that they have taken 1000 Roumanian prisoners.

BRAVE OFFICER WINS THE MILITARY CROSS

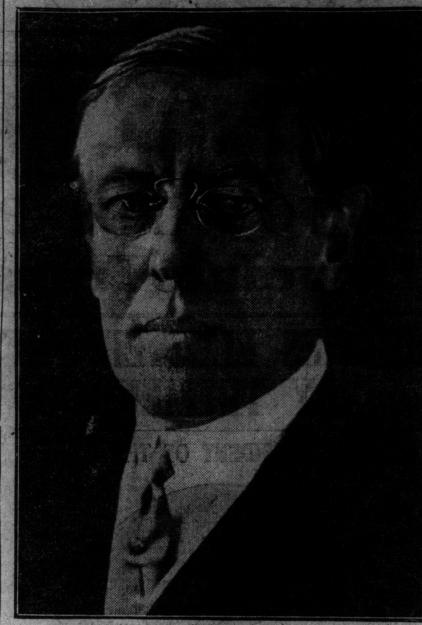

Major J. H. Lovett, Galt, Rose From the Ranks-Wounded Many Times.

Galt, Nov. 7.-Lying in a London hospital with four wounds, Major Jas. H. Lovett, son of Dr. William Lovett of Ayr, and a former Galt man, has been decorated with the Military Cross presumably for gallantry in the battle of the Somme. The honored soldier is a graduate of G.C.I., and commenced a banking career here. He was staticned at Winnipeg when the war broke out and enlisted with a Scottish battalion from that city as a private. He was a member of the King's Body Guard when his majesty reviewed the first Canadians before leaving for France. In France he obtained his commission, and in April lest was promoted to captaincy. InJ uly he suffered temporary blindness thru the explosion of an aerial torpedo, and was then promoted to major. On Sept. 7 he received wounds in his back and side, his foot was torn by shrapnel and his right hand was hurt. H. Lovett, son of Dr. William Lovett

Democrats Still Hopeful.

A statement issued by the Democratic national committee at 1.30 this morning refuses to concede the election of Mr. Hughes, and says that with the loss of the following states, which it was not believed that Hughes had carried, President Wilson was still relected by a majority of two votes in the electoral college; California, Indiana, North Dakota, Fouth Dakota, West Virginia, Wisconsin, The committee claimed that even if these states are lost it will give President Wilson a vote of 268 in the electoral college.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 7.—Early returns adicate that Hughes will carry Idaho.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 7.—Early returns indicate that Wilson has carried the state and the U. S. Senator George Sutherland, Republican, is probably defeated by W. H. King, Democrat.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 7.—Early returns give Wilson a big margin over Hughes in the state. Stewart, Democrat, is far ahead for governor.

Carriers.

London, Nov. 7.—The morning papers give great prominence to the report that the steamer Lanao, sunk by a German submarine, was an American ship. Lloyd's report that the, vessel was no longer of American rogistry has not yet been published here.

The Lanao was halled in the darkness 25 miles off the Portuguese coast by a German submarine on Oca. 28, The chief officer, who is a Chinaman, took the crew aboard the submarine which sunk the Lanao by a homb placed in the engine room. Members of the crew say that while they were aboard the submarine a British steamer was unsuccessfully attacked.

The chief engineer says that all the Lanao's crew except two officers were a American flag.

A Dality Chronicle despatch from Barry, Wales, says:

"The officers and crew of the United States steamer Lanao were landed by the Norwegian yessel Tromp at Barry Saturday night. The Lanao was bound from Manila to Havre with a cargo of rice. Capt. Mainland, the commander, G. Godinez, chief officer, and William Munson, chief engineer of the Lanao, were seen by me tonight and told me the story of their adventures

British Vessel Escaped.

"On the evening of Oct. 28," said Mainland, "we were passing St. Vincent, on the Portuguese coast, when we encountered a German submarine. When we sighted her she was engaged in sinking a Norwegian vessel. She afterwards endeavored to sink an English ship, but was driven off by the guns of the latter. We slackened speed and stood by the Norwegian steamer in case it should be possible to save any of the crew.

steamer in case it should be possible to save any of the crew.

"The submarine, which seemed about 200 feet long, fired three wurning shots across our bow. This we understood as a signal that they wished us to stand by and communicate with them. Chief Officer Godinez and four of the crew rowed over in one of our boats and went aboard the submarine. He treated them with every courtesy. The commander of the submarine, who spoke excellent English, said he had orders to sink all ships of whatever nationality carrying contraband for the allies. He regretted that he was compelled to de this, but he informed us his orders were imperative.

"He sent an officer and four sailor Chatham, Nov. 7.—The latest recruit to report with the 186th Kent Battalion is Pte. George Allenby, who served over sixteen years in the British navy, He is a survivor of the Irresistlible, torpedoed in the Dardanelles.

"He sent an officer and four sailors from the submarine, who ordered us to get into the ship's boats and go about the submarine. Then he placed a bomb in the engine room of my ship. A terrible explosion followed after we left the ship, but I did not seen her sink. The Germans took away every article of value belonging to the ship, including the picture of my wife. They carried off the sextant and becometer. "The submarine cruised about some time and finally the commander put us aboard the Norwegian stenner Tromp, which brought us to Barry. We saw ro more of the German vessel after we left."
