Fred Richard is Appointed to Succeed the Late Captain W. F. Presgrave.

Montreal, Dec. 29.—At a meeting of the executive of the Dorval Jockey Club, held this afternoon, Fred Richard was appointed to fill the vacancy caused thru the death of Captain W. F. Presgrave last month. Fred Richard was the late Captain Presgrave's assistant during last anumn and it was considered by the executive that he is the best man to carry on the plans outlined by Captain Presgrave for next season. Managing Director Richard will visit New Orleans and Havana tracks during this winter with a view to securing any new ideas to be used at Dorval in the way of improvement to the plant. The annual meeting of the clut will be held early in January, when the other officers will he elected. The club will fashion their book more after the style of the one offered by the Montreal Jockey Club in an effort to encourage a better class of horses. There will be no stakes offered, the extra attraction being overnight handicaps of a good value, which is now being followed out by a number of the clubs.

RICH OFFER FOR WELCH AND KILBANE

New York, Dec. 28.—Matt Hinkel, Cleveland's boxing promoter amounced he has made a flat offer of $25.000 for a bout between Lightweight Champion Freaddle Weish and Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane, to take place May 30 at Cedar Point, Oh'o, where the Kilbane-Chaney fight was held. May 30 at Cedar Point. Oh'o, where the Kilbane-Chaney fight was held.

Highed come to New York destrous of learning Po'lok's terms, but said it would be impossible for him to stage the bout before Memorical Day. Pollok is reluctant to hold off for so long, and in the meantime is considering an offer of $12.500 for Welsh and Ed. McDaniel of Toledo.

Pollok has begun to talk in approachable figures regarding this contest. He has been holding out for impossibilities, but Welsh's sunings have not been overly heavy of late, and Pollok wants action for the champion.

Pollok has been trying to manoeuvre into a position from where he could see the match staged in New York, but things are so uncertain in a pugilistic way in this city that it now appears almost hopeless. Les Darcy's arrival also, has overshadowed the probability of a head line hout with the Australian's participation.

Hinkel is making no restrictions on the division of the purse he has offered for the bout between the two champions. It will be split according to their own ideas.

AX TO FALL AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Certain veteran athletes whose names decorate the roster of the White Sox are slated for the ax just as soon as Manager Rowland can line-up clubs willing to trade fer them. Rowland said so yesterdny and added that the men of whom he proposes to dispose are not has-beens in baseball either, but they do not fit into the machine which Rowland is trying to build. Rowland declines to name the men who are slated to go, but he willingly said that Eddie Collins. Joe Jackson. Ray Schalk, "Hop" Folsch and George Weaver are not in the list.

Fritz Maisel of the Yankees is the man Rowland is most anxious to get, and Capt. Huston has expressed a willingness to trade him in return for a second sacker of ability. Rowland is willing to give either Jack Fournier or McMullin in return for a shortstop of ability in the second sacker of ability.

THE PACIFIC OCEAN BASEBALL LEAGUE

To Include Australia, Japan and Hawaii is suggested.

San Francisco, Dec. 29.—The All-American baltossers, headed by Charlie Swain, are back in San Francisco after their successful barnstorming trip to Honolulu, and the first result of their return is a story of another baseball league to take in Hawaii, Australia and Japan. Hen. Berry, owner of the San Francisco Coast League Club. started it. He suggested that the circuit be called the Pacific Ocean League, This is the way the beautiful project was outlined by him:

"If Honolulu boasts of such great baseball fans who are willing to attend the games, and we hear of our national pastime making great strides in popularity in Australia and Japan, why not organize a Pacific Ocean circuit? It is an idea, I believe, worthy of consideration.

"Of course, right at the start you will ask: What are you going to do? Play one game and then wait a couple of months while you travel to play the second?" Fadmit the point is well taken, but tion. We might even have them in the Coast League."

When asked his opinion of this yesterday, Bob Brown, the local baseball magnate, shook his head and said. "Henry is a man, far, far beyond his time."

TINKER WILL PLAY.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Joe Tinker will plathrid buse for Columbus team of the American Association next season. He made this amountment on the heels of his purchase of the club with the ald of backers here. Morever, thir base is not the most difficult position to the infield, but the easiest, as Tinker received. "It's mostly a hit and miss affair that corner," he said.
