

UP-TO-DATE COMMENT ON MATTERS RELATING TO THAT NOBLE ANIMAL THE HORSE.

The Canadian Horse Show entries show a most gratifying increase in all classes, and the total of 1896 has been 185 in 1895. It is not in numbers alone, but in the quality of the horses...

In the stallion classes there is a fine array of thoroughbred stallions. The royal blue of the Duke of Devonshire is absent from the list, as Mr. Hendrick did not see his way clear to exhibiting...

In the harness, saddle and hunting classes the list is splendidly filled. There is great interest attaching to the presence of Mr. S. S. Howland's crack team...

This season in England, according to London Truth, is marked by an unusually small number of entries. It is actually the only one in which there is no entry...

Following precedents, if the Soarers have won the race in the United States, he would have been ruled off for his previous displays of the landing of the Grand National were a general purpose...

Challenging the fact that L'Abbesse d'Oratoire, who in the late Lord Ranelagh Church, was the only horse to win the Triple Crown in 1815, and was got by Triton...

The same correspondent, writing before investigation proved the facts of the incident he deals with in the following to have been grossly exaggerated...

win next year, but I imagine that the handicapper, being on his true form, will hardly give him a chance.

They start judging early in the morning at the English horse shows. At the recent show of the Hunters' Improvement Society, the judges, with Sir James Colville, commenced their work of selection at 10 o'clock.

It is stated that the Australian bookmaker, William Freeman, who has made a fortune of £200,000 by laying £10,000 to £5 that bettors could not name the winners of the Lincolnshire...

Those who opposed the Canadian Jockey Club bill as being ultra vires of the Dominion Parliament will be informed that the bill has passed the House of Commons...

The starting machine is not always a success. At Memphis, on Derby Day, when Percival, by Leonard, out of the gate, three horses were left at the post in two of the races, and there was no end of "kicking."

One of the brightest spirits and most inventive men devoted to the trotting track is Tom Raymond, owner of Kiamath, 208 1/2, who was on a visit to this city last summer...

It is possible to be a shoplifter in Chicago on very easy terms. The other day one Ida Moss was before a magistrate on the following conversation...

At the Empire in London the "Cine-matograph" has been a great success. It is a life-size production on a big sheet of the kineoscope...

Notwithstanding in Hamilton and Toronto rowing matters appear to be at rather a low ebb, they are pretty brisk elsewhere. I have already said that in London, every year ago oarsmanship was little known outside England.

A strange decision was recently given by an Edinburgh magistrate. A small boy was arrested before him for stealing a cake of chocolate out of one of the penny-in-the-slot machines...

An English paper published before the Oxford-Cambridge race, saying: "It is true that the length of the race is an index of the fitness of the intellect, then the Cambridge crew this year is the most intellectual that ever sailed from the bridge."

Another decision of interest to magistrates was recently given on the old case of Blackburn in Lancashire, in which a man was charged with dropping a penny from a high window...

The price of theatrical gamblers would appear to be eternal death. Actors would be glad to see the theatres unless they are struck down in the view of the audience, who would then excuse what being barely announced...

Approval of the fact that Mr. E. H. Botherell, a member of the Grand Opera House on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, it is interesting to note that the same man was seen to be in the audience to write a sequel to the "Prisoner of Zenda," in which case it was not a happy ending...

The Government has done well in permitting bicyclists to come into the country. It is a pity that they do not enter. But why the province?

An attempt is being made to have the Ontario and Chicago races between representative boats of Toronto and Chicago sailed off this port on the 15th of the month...

With a really splendid temerity, characteristic of him, the conductor, after this climax, returns to the subject with a bass solo descriptive of Elijah's prophetic majesty...

Some of the music teachers who form a section of what is termed the Canadian Society of Music, met on Monday last at the Normal School to consider the establishment of local branches...

MUSIC'S DREAM

Elijah—The sacrifice on Mount Carmel. Once more the trumpets peal forth as Elijah reappears, after three years, in the presence of the king, to announce the close of the drought...

But I have forgotten to speak of the opera itself. I think it is a long way from the real music of the "Fleur de Lis," but while lacking in originality, it is also deficient in that element of popularity which means a long run and whistling in the streets...

Once more Elijah appears, but not in prayer. He has transcended all ordinary forms of communion, and his mind is in a state of exalted contemplation...
