

NAVY WILL NOT GO OUT OF PICTURE

Earl Beatty's Speeches in Montreal.

Duty Remains the Same—Will Afford Security to Those Who Pass on Seas, Whether Navy is 43 or 22 Battleships.

(Montreal Gazette.) Applause and cheering by 1,700 persons which for a few minutes, prevented Earl Beatty from continuing, marked a statement by the Admiral of the Fleet, that "the navy of the world are going to be limited, but it is recognized that the British navy does not go out of the picture" at the first Sunday luncheon of the Canadian Club yesterday in the Windsor Hotel.

When Admiral Lord Beatty rose and faced the audience, he was greeted with such a roar of applause and cheering that for a time he could not commence his address.

"I owe you two apologies," said Admiral Beatty. "One, and a very important one, is that I had the misfortune and very bad taste to arrive in this city on a Sunday. (Laughter.) But I feel I shall have your sympathy in this matter when I tell you that the hours I have spent in the last six weeks have been mapped out to the minutest detail, and I have not had one single moment to spare."

"I owe you a second apology for my totally inadequate capacity of expressing to so great and distinguished an audience all that I feel at the great warmth of the reception you have given me today."

"To you, Mr. Chairman, and you, Lord Shaftesbury, I am deeply indebted for your kind and eulogistic remarks, and to you, gentlemen, for the very kind manner in which you have received those remarks."

"I have already said, as I shall go on saying to the end of the chapter, too much honor is being done to me. (Cries of 'No!') But I accept all that you give me as not only for myself, but as representative of that great fleet which I had the honor to command, and of which I am the representative here today. (Applause.)"

"It is unfortunate, indeed, that the honor should not be capable of being distributed more impartially, and I feel sure that you ladies and gentlemen would benefit very much thereby, in having somebody who could really talk to you. (Laughter.) However, such as it is, and it being Sunday, I must accept Lord Shaftesbury's advice, and not be overworked in the talking line—if we wanted that, we could go to church. (Laughter.)"

"Made Victory Possible."

"But I do think you would like me to say to you something about the navy. (Applause.)"

"As Lord Shaftesbury has pointed out, that navy made the victory possible. We did not know, and no less, it is not an accepted fact that without the command of the seas those gallant and glorious soldiers you sent over to

NIGHT COUGHS

Terribly wearing on the system is the cough that comes at night and prevents sleep. The constant coughing keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed condition that they get no chance to heal.

You will find in DR. WOODS' NORWAY PINE SYRUP a remedy without an equal, for soothing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, strengthening the breathing organs and fortifying them against serious pulmonary disease.

Mrs. John McKernan, Lower Montague, P. E. I., writes:—"About three years ago I caught a very bad cold accompanied with a sore throat. It became so bad that I could hardly hear me speak. I could get no rest at night with the terrible annoying hacking cough. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. Finally I saw Dr. Woods' Norway Pine Syrup advertised in the house, and I immediately bought a bottle, and at once it gave me relief, and after using four or five bottles all my cough had gone. Now I always keep 'Dr. Woods' in the house, and shall recommend your wonderful remedy to others."

SO WEAK SO NERVOUS

How Miserable This Woman Was Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Tomboro, Ga.—"I suffered terribly with backache and headache and the time was so weak and nervous I didn't know what to do, and what not to do, my work. My trouble was a nervous condition, and I read in the papers what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and I decided to try it. I got good results from its use so that I am now able to do my work. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to mine and you may use these facts as a testimonial."

Weak, nervous women make unhappy homes, their condition irritates both husband and children. It has been said that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous depression, "the blues," irritability and backache arise from some displacement or derangement of a woman's system. Mrs. Phillips' letter proves that no other remedy is so successful as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ELDERLY people, whose stomach muscles are relaxed from advancing age, and themselves chronically constipated and tormented by headaches. Strongly physician and male matters worse. Miss Jenny McDonald of Parkhill, Ont., writes that her mother found Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin ideal for constipation. It proved effective, yet did not irritate, and caused no griping. Increased doses were not necessary.

DR. CALDWELL'S LAXATIVE SYRUP PEPsin FOR CONSTIPATION

prevent civilization from being swamped would never have got to the field of battle; they could never have been maintained there. Neither could their command of the seas have been maintained. France, because there is a strip of water which, if it had been commanded by the enemy would have prohibited the British Army from reaching France any other field of operations.

"That, in a word, is what the British Navy is for—to command the seas. The British Empire is an empire totally and entirely different from any other empire. It is an empire of great nations spread all over the world, whose lines of communications are the sea, whose protection is the duty of the navy of these nations. The British Navy is not only the navy of Great Britain, but the navy of the British Empire. And if any portion of the British Empire requires the service of the British navy, the British Navy will be there. (Loud applause.)"

"Therefore every portion of those nations which go to make up the greatest empire the world has ever seen, depends for its security, for its communications, for its prosperity, for the means of transport of its mercantile marine, and all dependent upon the power of the British Navy. No other power in the world is dependent upon a naval force as anything like the same extent."

"It has been said again and again, and is a very eminent fact, that the British Empire is the greatest institution the world has ever known. May I add that it is in no sense aggressive. It is of a defensive character, purely and simply a weapon of defence, and if the Convention were to close its doors tomorrow it would have accomplished a great task. The navy of the world are going to be limited, but it is recognized that the British Navy does not go out of the picture. (Prolonged applause.)"

"There are many details in this project which yet require to be worked out, none of which, I believe, will present any difficulty whatsoever in enabling a result to be achieved which will be eminently satisfactory to every member of the British Empire."

"It has often been asked me if I as a professional sailor and the professional head of the navy of Great Britain and the British Empire can possibly agree to the reduction and destruction of that great service in which I have spent my life. It seemed to a great many people on both sides of the Atlantic that I was asked to make sacrifices in the cause of peace. (Applause.)"

"But I can say this—every naval officer and every naval man is just as ready to make sacrifices in the cause of peace as the navy is to make sacrifices in the cause of war. (Applause.)"

"The navy is not narrow minded. We have seen too much of the suffering and sacrifices of war to wish for the repetition of it. War, with all the improvements and resources of modern civilization behind it—we know what it means, and we are not bloodthirsty. We have had experiences which we do not wish to

Nervous Breakdown

The extreme depression and discouragement which comes over one at times is the most alarming symptom of nervous exhaustion.

This letter is a message of hope to all who find themselves in this unfortunate condition.

Mrs. Geo. T. Tingley, Albert, N.B., writes:—

"For years I was in a very nervous, run-down condition, was much depressed in spirits and suffered a great deal at times. The least noise would irritate me and at times I felt as though I certainly would go crazy. I consulted different doctors to no effect."

"A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and I can truly today to the great benefit received. There was a marked change before I had finished the second box and when I had used a dozen boxes my nerves were thoroughly restored and I was entirely relieved of those terrible feelings. I can assure you even the least noise is no longer a source of worry. I feel sure that this wonderful medicine, feeling sure that it will give to others the quick and permanent relief it has given me."

who pass upon the seas in their occupations. That is part of the prayer used in the navy for a great many years, and that prayer is exactly what we need to exactly express the duty of the navy in regard to the whole of the British Empire. That duty remains exactly the same today and tomorrow and in years to come, whether the navy is going to consist of thirty-three battleships or of twenty-two.

"Nothing abolishes it of its duty, and I can assure you that the navy has performed its duty throughout the past it will continue to perform its duty in the future. That duty remains exactly the same. The members of the great nations which make up the British Empire, which are spread all over the world, are all dependent upon the navy for their service which you are honoring here today, will perform its duty as it has done up to the present."

Agala at the close of Admiral Lord Beatty's address there was prolonged and enthusiastic applause which was relieved when Lt.-Col. Magee instead of making a formal speech of thanks, called upon the gathering to give three cheers for Admiral Beatty. But the gathering cheered three times three, with a vigor before the mingling back up to allow Admiral Beatty to fill his many engagements.

LIVER TROUBLE

BAD BILIOUS ATTACKS

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole system suffers. Your bowels become constipated, the tongue coated, the breath bad, the stomach full of wind, and the system generally in a state of discomfort. The liver holds back the bile which is so essential to prorate the movement of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood, instead of passing out through the usual channel.

The sure way to keep the liver active and working properly, and thus get rid of the bad bilious attacks, is to keep the bowels regular by using

LAXA-LIVER PILLS

They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, work smoothly and gently, and there is nothing of the violent, sickening, and sickening old-fashioned purgatives.

Mr. John S. Caron, L. B. writes:—"I was troubled with liver trouble and bad bilious attacks. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, so I took two vials and I had had no more attacks."

Our Portrait is of Mr. E. F. WHEELER, of 22, Regent Street, Balby, Doncaster, England, who writes:—

"About two years ago I had a nasty wound break out in my big toe. I had it attended to for about three months, but during that time it had sores to all the toes, with the result that I had to undergo an operation, but with no avail. Then, after another operation, I was in a place to say I have not seen any sign of it breaking out since."

Sufferers from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Eczema, etc. Should realize that lotions and ointments can do but little to cure the disease. The true cause of such troubles is the blood. The blood must be purified, and the impurities, that is why so many are unable to recover and so in the end, present to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

Full reports of what had been accomplished to date were given by each of the conveners.

The work for the day was as follows: ward committee, Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson and Mrs. A. W. Estey; Mrs. F. E. Holman; banks, Miss Alice K. Estey; finance, Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond; automobiles, J. H. Doody; refreshments, Mrs. W. B. Tennant; publicity, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith and Mrs. A. W. Estey. The various arrangements were thoroughly discussed. It was decided to ask the city clergymen to make a special appeal from the pulpits on Sunday in order that the public might know that the home had now twenty-nine children in its care, their ages ranging from ten months to twelve years and that the number might be expected to be increased with the hard winter. The pressing need of winter clothing and boots for the children was specially pointed out.

The artistic window cards prepared by Mrs. A. W. Estey were on exhibition and were viewed with great satisfaction. They will be displayed in store windows throughout the city.

It was decided to have a special meeting of the council this week in order that every member of the council might be able to assist in the final arrangements for the tag day.

Girls Gamble To Decide Operation

Girls Toss Coin To Decide Turn On Operating Table

Though both suffered great physical pain, Leona Gaylord and Lillian Alexander, lifelong chronic, stricken with appendicitis, agreed to flip a coin to decide which should go on the operating table. They were seized with symptoms of appendicitis while making calls.

A Treacherous Disease.

Appendicitis attacks at any moment even persons seemingly in good health. Usually, however, it is preceded by so-called stomach trouble, constipation, or similar disturbances. Often when there is a warning feeling of uneasiness in the abdomen, appendicitis comes on suddenly and exactly the same manner in which one guards against the spread of throat infection, because that is just what appendicitis is—an infection in the intestines spreading to the appendix.

When one has sore throat, one can prevent further trouble and the development of influenza or grippe by using an antiseptic wash or gargle to fight the bacteria and laxative to carry off the poisons from the body. Just exactly the same procedure is necessary to fight the intestinal germ and guard against appendicitis. But instead of an antiseptic wash for the throat, an INTESTINAL antiseptic is necessary.

Intestinal Antiseptic.

There is now offered to the public a preparation having the DOUBLE action of an intestinal antiseptic and a COMPLETE system cleanser. This preparation, known as Adierka, acts as follows:

It tends to eliminate or destroy harmful germs and colon bacilli in the intestinal canal, thus guarding against appendicitis and other diseases having their start here.

It is the most complete system cleanser ever offered to the public, acting on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removing foul matter which poisoned the system and caused it to feel nothing else can dislodge. It brings out all gasses, thus immediately relieving pressure on the system. It is astonishing the great amount of poisonous matter Adierka draws from the alimentary canal—matter you thought was in your system. Try it right after a natural movement and notice how much more foul matter brings out which was poisoning you. In similar disorders, such as occasional constipation, sour stomach, gas on the stomach and sick headache, one spoonful of Adierka ALWAYS brings relief. A longer treatment, however, is necessary as you are obliterating the cause of long standing stomach trouble, preferably under direction of some physician.

Reports From Physicians.

"I congratulate you on the good effect I had from Adierka, since I prescribed it. (Signed) Dr. L. Langlois."

"I have found nothing in my 50 years' practice to excel Adierka." (Signed) Dr. James Weaver.

"I use Adierka in all bowel cases. Some require only one dose." (Signed) Dr. W. M. Pettymann.

Adierka is a constant support to people who have used only ordinary bowel and stomach medicines, on account of its rapid, pleasant and COMPLETE action. It is sold by leading druggists everywhere.
