THE BUSINESS COLUMN

Edited by Robert G. House (Copyright)

Woolf Brothers, clothing, of Kansas City, publish a little magazine for their boy customers called "Knickerbocker." It is devoted to half-tone cuts of youngsters who patronize the boys' department. Streetcar Blair, director of the store's publicity staff, is editor of the paper and uses a non de plume of "Tim." In order to touch the youngsters' tender spots for dogs, he has a cut of a conical canine in every issue labeled "Tim's Pup."

Recently the magazine ran a series of articles contributed by prominent business men of the city. The stories were little biographies of their lives and told how they had climbed the ladder to success. Here is a portion of one of the boys' style talks that appeared in the last issue.

"Don't you think it's funny how we boys set the styles? For years we have worn knicker suits. Dad begins to wear them and now mother steps out as though she were pulling some new stunt."

"I'll expect you'll soon see your Dad up in our boys' store wearing what is now in knicker suits and marbles. So I'll tell you right now. Marbles haven't changed much. They're still round. There's something new in knicker suits, belt all around and leather buttons, also have tan and gray tweed caps, pleated back. We call these 'Kaper Kaps,' so if you want to cut a caper get a sport suit and 'Kaper Kap.'"

"Clothes are surely cheaper. Saw a two-piece suit, good wool, gray and tan mixture, belted, $12.75. A whole suit of clothes from Woolf Brothers for what Dad used to pay for a shirt. Good thing we fellows have tough knees from playing marbles. It's the go now to wear three-quarter socks. Fancy cut tops; browns, heathers, tans. Mother better begin playing marbles."

Sidewalk Level Windows Increase Sales Appeal.
Utilization of formerly wasted space for show windows purposes has been raised to the nth power in the new front recently installed by Gray's, men's furnishes, of Salt Lake City. Under the usual expansive windows made to accommodate suits, overcoats, etc., have been built lower-deck windows for the display of hats, ties and other articles of the smaller varieties. The floor of the lower window is a considerable distance below the level of the sidewalk. Hats set on pedestals can be seen by even the casual passerby.
If the latter steps up to the window,

SUCCEEDS WHERE DOCTORS FAIL

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Often Does That—Read Mrs. Miner's Testimony

Chorususco, N. Y.—"I was under the doctor's care for over five years for backache and had no relief from his medicine. One day a neighbor told me about your Vegetable Compound and I took it. It helped me so much that I wish to advise all women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and backache. It is a great help in carrying a child, as I have noticed a difference when I did not take it. I thank you for this medicine and if I ever come to this point again I do not want to be without your Vegetable Compound. I give you permission to publish this letter so that all women can take my advice."—Mrs. Fann Miner, 102, Chorususco, N. Y.

It's the same story over again. Women suffer from ailments for years. They try doctors and different medicines, but feel no better. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you can see its value in the case of Mrs. Miner.

That's the truth of the matter. If you are suffering from any of the troubles women have, you ought to try this medicine. It can be taken in safety by young or old, as it contains no harmful drugs.
