THLETIC.

Y. M. C. A. Teams Win.

In the Y. M. C. A. last evening two basketball teams from the institute defeated two teams from the Exmouth Y. M. C. A. Owing to the fact that the Exmouth Y. M. A. were not acquainted with the rules and regulations followed by the institute they were considerably handicapped and the games were never in doubt with the possible exception of the second game of the first set. Two matches were played. McGuire and Hazel played the first game against Drake and Case and were successful in taking two straight wins; while McNamara and Power also made two straight against Sandall and Handren. The scores were:
Y. M. C. A.—McGuire and Hazel, 21; Exmouth Y. M. A.—Drake and Case, 15. 17.

Marsans Joins Yanks.
Havana, Cuba, April 21—Armando Marsans, Cuban outfielder, left here today to join the New York American League Baseball Club. Marsans played with the Yankees last season but was out of the game most of the time with a broken leg. This year he did not make known his intentions to the New York club during the time that the Yankees were training in the south. Marsans came to the Yankees in trade for Lee Magee. He expects to be in fine condition for play this year.

RING.
Fined and Barred.
Toledo, Ohio, April 23—Willie Langford, a Buffalo negro pugilist, was fined $100 and barred from further participation in Ohio rings at a meeting of the Toledo A. C. Commission today. Langford was found guilty of stalling in his twelve round bout with Jack Blackburn of Philadelphia, here last night, in which he was outpointed in every round. The commission gave Blackburn credit for vainly trying to make Langford fight.

MAE MURRAY
— in —
Face Value
It's a Super Bluebird

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE SAYS:
"Face Value" is the name of the picture which the Bluebird is presenting at the Broadway this week.
It is Mae Murray, and she is cast as Joan Darby, a little girl of the slums. So, as soon as one learns this in the prologue, he knows he is going to enjoy himself, for of all the screen children, we defy any one to produce a more fascinating one than Mae Murray.
She is so different from all the others, and she smiles so infrequently, and she is so pleasant to gaze on, that really it does not make so much difference what she does. The picture is full of novel and human little touches which make it irresistible.
