SALE OF MARKET SQUARE PROPERTIES ORDERED BY COURT

Partition Suit Over the Melick Estate; Wilcox and Cowie & Edwards Buildings—Other Court Business

Before Mr. Justice McLeod in chambers this morning, the case of A. H. Hanington vs Melick et al was heard. It is a partition suit to have the Melick estate divided. His Honor decreed that the property be sold by the master, and the proceeds divided, according to the rights of the claimants. The estate comprises two valuable properties, one the building on the corner of Dock street and Market Square, now occupied by Wilcox & Co., and the other the building on the eastern side of Market Square in the possession of Cowie & Edwards. The estate is estimated to be worth between $35,000 and $40,000. C. S. Hanington and M. G. Ford appeared for the plaintiff and the defendants were represented by J. King Kelly, Judge Armstrong, S. A. M. Slaughter, Boyer S. Smith and Homer D. Forbes.
The case of the Royal Trust Co., vs. Dunbar et al an application for foreclosure and sale under a mortgage was also heard. His Honor made an order for sale with leave to all parties to bid.
Gregory A. White, manager of the Bank of Montreal, in Woodstock, gave evidence of the amount due the bank. Col. H. H. McLean appeared for the plaintiff, M. G. Ford for Dunbar and C. F. Inches for the Bank of Montreal.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL
The Nash Case Disposed of—Diggs to Jail for a Six-Months Term and Must Work

In the police court this morning James Foley and Thomas Quinn were fined $8 or two months in jail, each on the charge of drunkenness.
Thomas Nash, arrested about a week ago on the charge of attempted assault on Mrs. Elizabeth Braman in her house in 13th street, was brought into court, and after entering a plea of not guilty, was sent up for trial at the next sitting of the court. The defence did not offer any evidence but will have witnesses when the case comes up in the high court. Nash will probably be admitted to bail this afternoon.
Charles Diggs was sentenced to six months in jail with hard labor for stealing $250 from a house at Lakewood two weeks ago. He pleaded to be freed, but the judge told him that he was becoming a public nuisance, and would be better in jail.
Frank O'Neil and Frank Dickie, charged with wandering about in Leinster street on Monday night last, and not giving a satisfactory account of themselves, were further remanded. His Honor told them that he was making inquiries.
John Collins, charged with being drunk in Brussels street, was fined $8 or two months in jail with hard labor. Leo Murphy, arrested on charge of assaulting Mrs. Murphy in her house in Chapel street on Tuesday last was further remanded. The case will likely be tried this afternoon.
George McAdoo, arrested on the charge of drunkenness, was also brought into court, and after receiving a reprimand from the court, was sent back to jail.

SOLITARY PEER WAS ONCE THE GOVERNOR OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Baron Stanmore Who Stood Out in House of Lords Against Colleagues Was Sir Arthur Hamilton Gordon

A London despatch last night announced that the House of Lords passed the third reading of the parliament bill, otherwise known as the veto bill, without division, after only three hours' debate. The revolt of the insurgent peers failed to materialize. All the threats of the extremists to throw out the bill at this stage and precipitate a crisis proved a bluff. One solitary peer, Baron Stanmore, raised his voice to demand a vote and he found no support in his role of Horatius at the bridge.
There is special interest in New Brunswick in the fact that Baron Stanmore alone stood out for a vote for he is well remembered here though under another name. Baron Stanmore was Sir Arthur Hamilton Gordon, one time lieutenant-governor of New Brunswick. He held that position at the time of Confederation.
In 1855 the first election on the question of uniting the provinces was held, and the anti-Confederate party defeated the supporters of Confederation. The latter secured only six seats in the house of forty-one.
Governor Gordon had lent his influence very strongly against the confederation project, but next year changed his course, moved, it was said, by a hint from the powers at home.
In the next year the people voted again on the question, and confederation was carried by a great majority as well against it in the first election.

Here's Something New
No more ashes to lug, no clumsy ash pan to spill dust and dirt on the kitchen floor.
The GLENWOOD ASH CHUTE solves the problem. It is situated just beneath the grate and connected by a sheet iron pipe straight down through the kitchen floor to the Ash Barrel in the cellar.
No dust can escape, just slide the damper once each day and drop the ashes directly in to the ash barrel.
This is only one of the splendid improvements of the plain CABINET GLENWOOD, the range without ornamental or fancy trinkets. "THE MISSION STYLE" GLENWOOD, every essential refined and improved upon.
At least one-half of all GLENWOODS are sold through the enthusiastic recommendation of a satisfied buyer.
