Judgment of the Full Court in the Case of Coughian & Mayo V. the City.

Decision of the Court Below Set Aside and the Claim Held Not Good.

From Friday's Daily. The full court, consisting of Justices Crease, McCreight and Walkem, gave judgment this morning in Coughlan vs. the Corporation of Victoria, reversing the judgment of Mr. Justice Drake, which was in favor of the plaintiffs. Below is part of Mr. Justice Walkem's

"The plaintiffs, as contractors for the construction of certain sewerage work in the city, brought this action to compel Mr. Wilmot, the city engineer, to give them a certificate for $5,287.62, and to obtain a judgment for that amount against the corporation. The amount consists of the balance due on an alleged agreement for payment of $7,032, as a lump sum for the whole work, and of about $1,900 for extras. The defense, in effect, is that payment at schedule prices, and not a lump sum, was agreed upon: that the alleged extras were part of the contracted works; and that the engineer had given a final certificate for $22.28 which was all that was due to the plaintiffs. At the trial, Mr. Justice Drake held that the contract was for the lump sum Bishop Sillitoe, of Westminster, and a mentioned; that the plaintiffs were entitled to be paid $3,757 as a balance due thereon by the corporation subject to work. The memorial is to take the form the right of the latter to retain ten per cent of it for the maintenance period of six months; and that they should be allowed for certain works as extras-the amount thereof and the question of costs being reserved for further consid-

The corporation now appeals from the part of the decision relating to the lump sum and the extras.

The judgment, it will be observed, does not dispose of the case against Mr. Wilmot. The certificate that was pleaded was, as I understand it, given after the had it not been given at all, the action engineer or architect cannot be compelled hy the contractor to give a certificate as there is no privity of contract between them. He is only liable for damages to the contractor if he acts fraudulently, and there is no charge or tion of that sort against Mr. Wilmot. (See Hudson's Building Contracts, page 63, and cases cited.) We have no power to direct such a reference. The stipulation in the contract that all differences as to its meaning, or as to measurements or variations, should be referred to the commissioner and engineer jointly for their decision, should have been taken advantage of at the proper time. Even had that been done, the jurisdiction of the court would not have been ousted, as there is no provision in the contract to the effect, as in Scott vs. Avery, 5 H. L. A memorial is to be built to the late clergy has been appointed to direct the of a convalescent home and house of rest to be built at Yale. The adoption of this form of memorial is the result of the late bishop's hope often expressed that such a home be established, and of a desire on the part of Mrs. Sillitoe to take charge of and carry on the work of such home without expense on her part to the diocese. It is intended to be open to all who need to seek convalescence and rest. The estimated cost is $3000 and donations towards this most worthy object, in memory of one who gave his life work of Christianity, may be sent marked "Bishop Sillitoe Memorial Fund," to the commencement of the action; but even Bank of Montreal, New Westminster, or the Revs. H. DEATH OF W. J. MEAKIN.

William Joseph Meakin, of Vernon, is dead at that city. His death took place on Tuesday afternoon after a long ill Mr. Meakin was an Englishman by birth but, for several years prior to 1887, he had resided in Montreal. In that year he came to Vancouver and had charge of the wine room at the Hotel Vancouver. He then went into business for himself in the Power block and afterwards in the Lefevre block, and then acquired the ownership of the Hotel Kalemalka at Vernon. Mr. Meakin's restaurants soon became well known by the excellence of his cuisine and the polite attention of himself and wife to customers. His friends, and there were perceptible move in the cattle trade this many, called his place "the Delmonico of the West." But his health was gradually growing worse and last year he went to California and for a while appeared to have benefited by the trip. He again became worse and went to the mountains to live, the dry climate suiting him. The news of his death was not unexpected. He leaves behind him several grown up children.

These are the features of the Prince of French Comedians, whose "Tartuffe," which he may be said to have made his own, convulses every audience which has the delight of seeing the master portray the arch hypocrite: Respecting "Vin Mariani," he says: "Strange to say that 'Vin Mariani,' so exquisite a wine, should also be a remedy, and a delicious one at that, so pleasant to the taste and so beneficial to the entire system." And Coquelin merely states a truth which is attested by the most famous men and women of the age, by the foremost medical men, and the managers of all the great hospitals. THREE WAYWARD BOYS.

Private Hearing of the Victoria West Lads for Obscene Writing.

There was a lengthy hearing in police ccurt this morning of the three Victoria West boys summoned at the instance of the school trustees, two on two counts for breaches of the public mora's by-law and one for the wilful destructon of property in breaking a window. The latter, the youngest of all, pleaded guilty, as did one of the others to both charges. The third was placed on trial and convicted. It was shown that the writing and figures on the wall were most filthy. The hearing was private but between witnesses, parents, techers and school trustees there was quite : crowd present. Sentence was deferred until next Thursday, but beyond the severe reprimand given this morning it is not likely that anything will be done taken the cases into court to hide a deficiency in discipline in the school, and said he believed the remedy was in the hands of the teachers. He did not care to take the fines from the parents of the boys.

The charge of lack of discipling throws the responsibility upon the teachers, and their excuse is that one of the offenders does not attend the school and that neither trustees nor magistrate would support them in puncases into court. It is hoped that what has been done will have a satutary effect on the boys.
