Templar, Sister Grace Andrews; Superin was heard before Mr. Justice Walkem B. and Mr. Justice Drake this morning This was an appeal to two judges of the supreme court from an order of Judge Bole setting aside the verdict of the jury and ordering a new trial. The action was brought by Lam Sing against Donald McGillivray of New Westminster. contractor, as guarantor for the price of goods sold to one Lambort or in the alternative as the principal debtor. At the trial at Chilliwack on November 30th, 1893, the evidence on both sides was given, and the only question put to the jury was "to whom was credit given?" and the jury decided it was given to Me-Gillivray. Subsequently, on the motion for judgment, Judge Bole set aside the verdict of the jury on the ground that it was against the evidence, as no guarnew trial. From that order the plaintiff now appeals. When E. M. N. Woods, New Westminster, for the plaintiff, opened the appeal, A. Henderson, New Westminster, for the defensiont, took the preliminary objection that the notice of appeal was bad, in that it gave no grounds of appeal as required by rule 671 of the supreme court rules. The appeal was neither to the divisional court nor to the full court, but to two judges of the supreme court, and the court expressed some doubt as to whether or not the notice of appeal had to set out the grounds of appeal, but held that in any event leave to amend could be grant-The appeal then went on, and the court, without calling on Mr. Henderson for the respondent dismissed it with costs, being of the opinion that there was no evidence that the defendant was either a at the attempt to raise the hotel license guarantor or a principal creditor, and that Judge Bole was in consequence right in some of those now in business will seek upsetting the verdict of the jury.
