FATALITIES IN EASTERN CANADA

Montreal, Dec. 24.—The directors of the Dominion Cotton Company at a meeting held yesterday discussed a cut of ten per cent. in the wages of employees. It was finally decided not to make it at least for the present, as in the Montreal mills the employees were on short time during a portion of the summer months owing to loss of power, and their earnings were consequently not as large as usual. At the present time they are only working something like eight hours per day. It was recognized that a cut will have to be made eventually. On account of the high price of cotton economy in the production has been made imperative.

It is said that W. Leonard, who has been assistant to the general manager of the Canadian Pacific Lines in the West, is likely to be assigned to other duties in consequence of the appointment of Wm. Whyte as second vice-president, and assistant to the president of Winnipeg. Mr. McNeill declines to say any more than was contained in the official circular that the cause of the arrangement was to relieve Mr. McNeill of some of his heavy burdens.

Quebec, Dec. 24.—A furrier named Lapointe committed suicide by taking Paris green this morning.

Toronto, Dec. 24.—Mayor Urquhart was declared elected by acclamation, the papers by Mr. Howland having been filed too late.

Hamilton, Dec. 24.—Samuel Stevenson, night foreman of the Hamilton Iron & Steel Company, a native of Youngstown, O., having only come to Hamilton from that city three days ago, was strangled to death by the gall yesterday.

Barrie, Ont., Dec. 24.—John Glassford, engineer, James Patton, fireman, are dead as the result of a terrible scalding received from escaping steam from their engine, which had been turned over on them by Cowell, by a steam plough running off the track and pulling the engine with it.

Chatham, Dec. 24.—Mrs. John Jacques of Ferry, about seven miles from here was burned to death while alone in the house. It is supposed she fell with a lamp in her hand, which set fire to her clothing.

Winnipeg, Dec. 24.—Hon. T. M. Daly, K. C., formerly Dominion minister of the Interior, has been appointed police magistrate for Winnipeg, succeeding G. W. Baker, who has been dismissed.

Head of an Unknown Man Found in Woman's Trunk.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 25.—The arrest of Miguel Antonio and Trinidad Arriaga at Bakersfield on the charge of murdering Lee Gar, a Chinese, at Needles last Sunday, may develop other tragedies. In the woman's trunk has been found the head of an unknown man. The woman, who is a Mexican, and Antonio, her companion in flight, a Cuban, are now in the county jail.

Winnipeg clearing house returns for the week ending December 24th, 1903, were $3,859,721, corresponding week 1902, $3,907,107; corresponding week 1901, $3,425,474.

City of Mexico, Dec. 25.—President Diaz, acting upon the request of the American ambassador, and upon hearing the evidence submitted in the case, has conceded the United States authorities the extradition of Charles Kratz, a former member of the St. Louis city council, who was arrested on a charge of bribery in connection with street car franchise legislation.

JAP MURDERED IN TERMINAL CITY

Vancouver, Dec. 26.—M. Kawasui, a Japanese ticket-of-leave man, was found murdered yesterday, lying on the C.P.R. tracks within a block of Chinatown. He had been stabbed several times with a long knife, one wound being through the neck. The man had a fifty-cent piece still clutched in his fingers, and in his pockets were six dollars more of silver.

It is believed he became embroiled in a row in an adjacent Japanese gambling resort, and was either followed and killed at the spot where found, or the body was carried there and laid on the railway track.

The victim was a ticket-of-leave man, having been sentenced at Nanaimo on February 21st, 1901, for assault, with intent to murder, on a fellow countryman. He was allowed out in February this year on good conduct.

Tracing the Murderer.

London, Dec. 25.—The Nagasaki correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says that the Japanese railways have been ordered to be prepared to transport several thousand troops from the north to the south. It is understood that only the necessary troops are to be sent, the remainder being to be sent by sea.

Paris, Dec. 24.—The Dreyfus Commission to-day unanimously recommended a revision of the case by the Criminal Branch of the Court of Cassation. The court will assemble next month to hear the case.

SNOWSTORM IN EAST

New York, Dec. 26.—A heavy fall of snow, accompanied by a high wind, fell early this morning, and the snowdrifts during the morning that darkness almost like that of night prevailed in the city. The snow was nearly an inch deep. During this storm many fire boats went astray, their engines having lost their bearings, and the harbor sounded with the darkness. The snow was several inches on their way from quarantine to their piers had to lay to until the darkness lifted. The snow, wet and heavy at first, melted as the sun fell, but later the temperatures fell and the storm took on the semblance of a blizzard. Before noon the storm lessened considerably, but it was still raining, although the snow continued to fall.
