TWO PASSENGER STEAMERS
COLLIDED IN DENSE FOG

One Man Was Killed and One Is Missing—Crowds of Passengers Were Thrown Into a Panic.

KINGSTON, Oct. 13.—The passenger steamer Adirondack, of the People's Line of Albany, and the Saratoga, of the Citizens' line, of Troy, collided near Glisco, twelve miles north of the city at 11:15 o'clock this morning. Clarence Sherman, of Melrose, N. Y., an officer on the Saratoga, was killed and George Horton of New York city, is missing. The collision occurred in a dense fog which prevented the pilots of the boats from seeing each other. Both, it is thought, missed their bearings. The Saratoga sustained the greater damage.

The Adirondack was on her way to Albany and the Saratoga was enroute to New York. The Adirondack tore off the port side of the Saratoga, which listed to port and her boiler went overboard and sank. Sherman was killed instantly by flying timbers. Horton is supposed to have been knocked overboard and drowned. Many passengers on the Saratoga were knocked down by the force of the collision but the crew of both boats assisted in rescuing them and later they were transferred to the City of Troy and landed at Tivoli by train. The passengers on both boats became panic-stricken and only by the coolness of the officers and crews of both boats was heavy loss of life prevented. The Adirondack after the fog had cleared was able to proceed to Albany. The Saratoga listed to port and was hauled to Glisco dock where she is anchored. Captain Brown, of the Saratoga at once came to Kingston and arranged for wreckers to raise her sunken boiler. The officers of the Saratoga say the collision was unavoidable. Their boat had just passed an island south of Glisco when the fog bank rolled out of Zuger's Creek, obscuring the view of the river. The approaching Adirondack was not seen but was completely hidden when the fog bank intervened between the two boats. Without warning the Adirondack's light suddenly turned up in the fog and the crash followed. The stern of the port side of the Saratoga was crushed in. The boat, being away immediately after the collision, the Saratoga listed and about a dozen occupants of the staterooms were thrown into the almost ice-filled waters of the Hudson river. During the confusion following the accident it was impossible to keep track of their number or who they were.

Second pilot Ludewig of the Saratoga was steering his vessel. Capt. Brown had been in charge but left the pilot house to go below soon after passing Kingston. The Saratoga has been towed to the east shore of the Hudson opposite Glisco. Captain Brown is extremely nervous and cannot give a connected account of the accident or what followed. The steamer Ontario of the Catskill night line came along soon after the accident and assisted in rescuing several passengers who had been thrown into the river.

The Saratoga is an old boat having been built in 1877. The vessel was 300 feet long, had accommodation for 150 passengers and was valued at $550,000. She is one of the fastest boats on the Hudson. She is 29 feet beam and has five decks. One of which is 350 staterooms. The boat is modern in all her appointments.

Extraordinary precautions of all kinds have been taken for the grand duke's safety, and there are very nearly as many detectives at the hotel as waiters.

LOST MONEY BY NOT SETTLING THE CASE

In the civil court last Thursday morning Edward Murphy sued Edward Filmore for the sum of $14.64 for work done and the case was adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock.

Filmore, the defendant, who was represented by G. H. V. Belyea, put in a set off for almost the amount sued for. The defendant claimed that Murphy had received potatoes, turnips and board at the Filmore country home, which would amount to nearly $14.64.

The case took up considerable time and finally the magistrate gave judgment in favor of the plaintiff to the amount of $8.84.

After all this had been done the defendant said that he had offered to settle for $10. So Judge Ritchie said they should make up and be happy. Murphy could again visit Filmore's country house and Filmore could get Murphy to do his replating.

The James Fleming Co. have commenced work at Hilyard's slip on a new steel barge for the Dominion government. The barge is to be 112 feet long with a 22 foot beam. The firm have contracted to build the barge.

Contractor Fred Heans has laid the blocks for the erection of the barge, and it is said a complete set of blocks are to be erected parallel to the present ones and work on two barges may soon be in progress.

The Grand Manan steamer Aurora hauled off the blocks this morning and slip.

The schooner Lizzie H. Patrick, bound from Bridgewater for St. John, with coal, put into Rockland, Me., a few days ago with her main boom broken.

WILL SEARCH ON MONDAY
FOR GREATER CHILDREN

Constable Thomas Organizing a Party for the Final Effort—St. John Vagrant Sentenced in Moncton.

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 13.—In an effort to organize another search for the missing Greaser children, Constable Charles Thomas leaves on Monday for Bayfield. As was recently stated, this search is to be a final one and every effort will be made to secure as large a party as possible along the line to look for the missing tots. Several men from Moncton will accompany Constable Thomas who has had a good deal of experience on this search, and is well acquainted with the locality, and it is expected that rewards which now amount to six hundred dollars will induce many people to join. This expedition will be undertaken by F. W. Sumner, of this city, who has already spent a large sum in an endeavor to solve the mystery.

A young man named Frank Watson giving his home as St. John, was sentenced to three months jail by Magistrate Kay for vagrancy. He was selling shoe laces and soliciting alms, being arrested at the I. C. R. Depot yesterday afternoon.

PRICE ON CAZAR'S LIFE
AND THAT OF S'N

Anarchists Urged in Inflammatory Pamphlets to Slay Both and Earn Money.

ZURICH, Oct. 13.—Thousands of pamphlets have been secretly printed in Zurich and Geneva, offering $25,000 for the life of the czar, and half that sum for that of his son. The pamphlets have been smuggled across the frontier into Russia.

The notice, which does not state state how or by whom the money will be paid, ends as follows: "Best assured that the sum mentioned above will be paid to you, or, if you die in doing the glorious and heroic work, to your relatives within three days of the accomplished act. Free us from Czarism and slavery and Russia will be free."

The Echo de Paris Biarritz correspondent states that it is rumored that the czar and his family are expected to arrive there next month for a long stay.

There can scarcely be any truth in the rumor for the czar is extremely unlikely thus to offer himself as an easy prey to the terrorists. The report is probably due to the fact that the Grand Duke Alexander, with a large suite, arrived at Biarritz yesterday for a stay of a few months.

Another Grand Duke—Alexis—is living incognito at the Hotel Chatham, in Paris. The name he has assumed is kept a profound secret, and nobody is admitted to see him who does not know him.

Extraordinary precautions of all kinds have been taken for the grand duke's safety, and there are very nearly as many detectives at the hotel as waiters.

MONT PEELE IS QUIET.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—At the office of the French Cable Company in this city today, it was stated that there had been no fresh eruption of the volcano of Mont Pelee on the island of Martinique. Reports of such an eruption came from Guadeloupe and St. Thomas in the West Indies. Supt. J. J. Gaudin of the French Cable Company's office said: "I have this moment received the following from Martinique: 'Stories of fresh eruption of Mont Pelee false. Volcano is calm.'"

CANADIAN BISHOP
RECEIVED BY THE POPE

ROME, Oct. 12.—The pope, who is in perfect health, received many people in private audience today, including Archbishop Mazzella, of Rossano, Italy, and the Right Rev. E. Grouard, apostolic vicar of Athabasca, Canada, entertaining the latter lengthy about the condition of the church in Canada.

COLLINS DECLARES
HE IS INNOCENT

Wrote an Account of the Murder to England. He is a Model Prisoner and Does Not Give Any Trouble—Spends Most of His Time in Reading.

HOPEWELL CAPE, Oct. 12.—The Collins examination, which had been adjourned until today, has been further postponed for a week to await the return of Premier Tweedie, who is conducting the case for the crown and also in order to secure additional witnesses to identify the second value and contents found later on, and which it is supposed Collins threw away.

Rev. Fr. McAuley, who will probably be asked to identify the articles, has been in Boston, on a visit. No evidence was taken today, the prisoner simply being remanded until Friday, October 19th, when it is expected the examination will be proceeded with.

MUST NOT TAKE BOARDERS
WITHOUT OFFICIAL CONSENT

More Precautions Taken in Russia—Officers of the Black Sea Fleet on Trial.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 12.—The Minister of the Imperial Court has issued an order forbidding officials and employees of the court to rent rooms to or otherwise shelter any persons without the special permission of the Minister. The order is due to the arrests of Klapnikoff and other terrorists at Peterhof September 23, and the discovery that many of the participants in the conspiracy were living unsuspected in the immediate vicinity of the palace. The police are searching for a second conspiracy, and are supposed to belong to Terrorists which appeared in St. Petersburg recently.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 12.—The commission which is investigating the conduct of the Russian officers who took part in the battle of the Sea of Japan has taken up the case of Rear Admiral Enquist, commander of the light cruiser squadron who escaped to Manila. Enquist will be heard on Tuesday in justification of the withdrawal of his ships during the battle.

REMODELLING THE CENTENARY SUNDAY SCHOOL

At a meeting of the building committee of Centenary Church held last evening, arrangements were made for securing slates and glass for the roof and windows. An entire new roof will be needed and this will be put on by James Myles. The committee have engaged F. Neil Brodie to prepare plans for the reconstruction of the interior. The ceiling will be the same as before, the main hall will be almost the same, only that the partition shutting off one of the class rooms will not extend to the ceiling, and the whole floor is to be easily thrown into one. The infant class rooms will be arranged on the lower floor of the building. The construction of the roof is now under way.

Work was commenced this morning on the new building of the Royal Bank at the corner of King and Canterbury streets. About twenty city laborers started work at preparing the lot for the placing of the foundation.

RUN ON THE BANK OF ONTARIO IN MONTREAL

People Who Lost Money in the Ville Marie Failure Did Not Want to Be Caught Again.

(Special to the Star.)
MONTREAL, Oct. 13.—There was a run on the Bank of Ontario here this morning. By 8:30 an anxious crowd had gathered, and by 10 a. m. when the doors opened, there were 150 people pressing in. Police were ready and only a small number got in at one time. All went quietly, and at least two hundred accounts were withdrawn. These were mostly Jews and French Canadian, many of whom had been bitten in the Ville Marie failure four or five years ago.

FINE FOR ASSAULTING
SERGEANT BAXTER

Two Young Men Got Stiff Sentences—Boys Answer to Charge of Stealing Vegetables.

There were four prisoners on the police court bench this morning. James Leithan and Carl Shaffer, who were not quite over the effects of a drunk, pleaded guilty and were remanded. Two young men, James Boudreau, of Digby, and Percy Saunders, of Annapolis, pleaded not guilty to assaulting and using profane language to Sergeant Baxter on British street yesterday afternoon. The sergeant gave evidence and said that while watching Boudreau in his back yard the two young men went in the yard and became abusive, and after being expelled returned, and while he was arresting Boudreau Saunders assaulted him with a piece of wood.

Saunders first gave his name as Ralph Cotter, but this morning told the magistrate that his name was Charles Cotter. Shortly after 8 o'clock he had been started by Ralph Cotter, of Rothesay, called at the court and was quite indignant at Saunders using his name. He pointed out the prisoner to the court as Percy Saunders.

Boudreau was fined $20 or 2 months with hard labor, and Saunders was fined $30 or 2 months with hard labor on one charge, and for assaulting a police officer on the other. The magistrate reprimanded the young man who gave his age as 18 years, and said that for his actions he was liable to be sent up for trial and given a term in Dorchester.

A number of boys reported in yesterday's Star as having broken into Thomas Congrove's Sheffield street garden were in court this morning with the exception of Thomas Mills. Two boys, Nixon and Carline, informed the court that Mills told them that Mr. Congrove told them that they could have the vegetables as they were decaying.

The case was adjourned until Monday after school hours.

The sub-committee appointed by the Board of Works will make a final effort to come to an agreement with the Gordon Hall Works and Sleeth and Coulburn and Co., regarding the purchase of a strip of land for use in rebuilding Union street. The sub-committee must make their report at a meeting of the board on Monday. The members will probably call on the Carleton people this afternoon.

ATLANTA, G. A., Oct. 12.—The Fulton County Grand Jury today returned indictments against twenty white men charging them with rioting in Atlanta on Sept. 22. The names of those indicted have not yet been made public. Previously two white men had been indicted on the same charge and indictments found against sixty negroes charging them with conspiracy in the murder of county policeman Heard, Sept. 24.

NEWFOUNDLAND WILL RESIST
BRITAIN'S LATEST ACTION

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Oct. 12.—The colonial cabinet at its meeting last night to discuss the fishery situation decided, it is understood, to resist to the fullest possible legal extent the enforcement of the modus vivendi arrived at by the British and American governments. The Telegram, the premier's organ, published an exhaustive article today in which it is stated that the modus vivendi is objectionable because it attempts to grant to the Americans rights additional to those conferred by the treaty of 1818; because it attempts to surrender the colony right to legislate for the preservation of the herring fishery; because it attempts to nullify the colony's existing laws which have in view the same object; because it attempts to arrogate part of the foreign fishing vessels act of 1885, and because it attempts to violate the bait act. The article predicts that the Downing street

Interest in the Recital of How
Emperor William Got Into a
Diplomatic Muddle and is Trying to Get Out of it.

PARIS, Oct. 13.—The revelations resulting from the publication in Germany of the late Chancellor Von Hohenlohe's "Recollections" continue to make a great stir in France on account of the delightful throw upon Germany's policy toward the republic and today in connection with the centenary tomorrow, the celebration of the battle of Berlin which opened the gates of Berlin to the victorious French army, the newspapers here are filled with articles on the subject. The general verdict is that Emperor William's action in dismissing Prince Bismarck for counselling infidelity to Germany's ally Austria was highly honorable to the Emperor but nevertheless entailed grave consequences. The Republic Française points out that Bismarck's object was to repair the bad effects of his policy at the Berlin Congress by insisting on a renewal of the secret "re-insurance" arrangement with Russia previously existing despite the Austrian alliance. Emperor William, the paper adds, threw Russia into the arms of France thus becoming responsible for the diplomatic situation of which he now complains and which he vainly attempted to modify by his bold stroke of policy at Tanager. The prevailing opinion here is that there is some important secret behind the publication of Prince Hohenlohe's "Recollections," but there is a disposition to attribute it less to court intrigue than to a manoeuvre to advance the anti-Moharrech movement by discrediting personal role in Germany.

MANY THOUSANDS SEEK MIRACLES AT LOURDES

Torlight Procession at Night Makes Scene a Most Impressive One.

PARIS, Oct. 13.—The annual tale of miraculous cures is being telegraphed to the Paris papers from Lourdes, where many thousands of stricken pilgrims are engaged in prayer and supplication.

There were half a dozen miracles yesterday, the most pathetic of them being the account of a girl of 18, suffering from a disease of the heart. She had lain sleepless and motionless for forty-eight hours, and twice during the night the watchers had believed her to be dead.

But, at the passing of the Host, she sat up suddenly on her stretcher, and jumped to the floor. She rushed with bare feet across the gravel, caught hold of the Host and kissed it. The scenes of excitement, of supplication and of disappointment around the Grotto have gone on, without cessation, for the last twenty-four hours, and will go on for twenty-four hours more.

At night, the vast procession of the pilgrims winds in and out along the hillside, carrying torches and singing hymns. The crosses are electrically lighted on the hilltop until the pilgrims reach them, when they are extinguished. Then the torch-bearing pilgrims themselves led by priests, form a huge cross of flame with a rosary which stretches from the mountain side right down into the valley.

All day and all night long at the baths, at the grotto in front of the three churches, at the hospitals, at the hotels, and all over the village, the prayer to the Virgin Mary never ceases: "Our Lady of Lourdes, cure us; our Lady of Lourdes cure our sick; you can do so, you can do so, you can do so; our Lady of Lourdes cure our sick; our Lady of Lourdes cure our sick."

F. M. Scandlers leaves for New York tonight to meet a representative of a Paris financial syndicate, who intend investing in western lands. Mr. Scandlers will later make a tour of the west.

authorities will be unable to enforce the modus vivendi which has against it the law of the land, the wishes of the government and the sentiment of the colony.

The article contains citations from the works of Hall, Anson and Diney, to show that it has a basis in constitutional law for the position taken.

The merchants of St. John's in the resolutions adopted by them last night with but one dissentient, protest against the modus vivendi as a gross violation of the rights of a self-governing colony. The resolutions declare further that the use of purse seines will be ruinous to the fishery interests and that it will be attended with serious financial loss to the colony and industrial embarrassment to the inhabitants of the west coast. The merchants express alarm and astonishment in the resolutions regarding the terms of the modus vivendi.
